Christopher Newall, Ann Bukantas, 2016 Featuring more than 100 works of art from celebrated Pre Raphaelite artists this fascinating new research into Pre Raphaelite painters and collectors positions Liverpool as the Victorian art capital of the north      The Boyce Papers Sue Bradbury, Susan Miller Bradbury, 2019 The first full edition of the correspondence between three artists Joanna Boyce her brother George P Boyce and Henry Wells who she eventually married It dates from the period 1845 to 1861 and covers artistic life in both Paris and London including the Pre Raphaelites This correspondence between three artists Joanna Boyce her brother George P Boyce and Henry Wells whom she eventually married dates from the period 1845 to 1861 They were all friends of Rossetti and the Pre Raphaelite circle but in addition Henry and Joanna both studied in Paris and Joanna wrote extensively about her time there training with Thomas Couture She wrote for The Saturday Review as well as painting a small number of very interesting and much admired pictures Her brother George established himself as a successful watercolourist and member of the Old Watercolour Society having been encouraged both by David Cox on his Welsh sketching expeditions and by Ruskin whose letters advising him what to paint in Venice are included here Henry Wells was primarily a portrait painter At first he specialised in miniatures and was commissioned to paint Mary princess of Cambridge by Queen Victoria There are vivid accounts of visits to country houses to carry out commissions from their owners The three wrote constantly about techniques of painting and about the new colours that became available at this period and about their visits to exhibitions both in Paris and London They all contributed to the Royal Academy and other exhibitions In addition there is the extraordinary story of Joanna s and Henry s courtship and marriage at first encouraged and then viciously opposed by Joanna s recently widowed mother The correspondence survives only in an unpublished transcript made in the 1940s as the originals were all destroyed in a bombing raid on Bath during the second world war Excerpts from George P Boyce s diaries were published in the 1930s but the present edition contains a considerable amount of new material

Landscape and Infrastructure Margaret Birney Vickery, 2019-10-03 Landscape and Infrastructure examines the relationships between landscape painting and landscape design from the seventeenth century to the present and contemporary infrastructure projects around the globe These seemingly disparate subjects are united by a shared concern for the pastoral middle ground a traditionally productive landscape By focusing an art historical lens on pre industrial productive systems and the effects of the Industrial Revolution on the pastoral landscape tradition we can gain a better understanding of how to weave new approaches to productive infrastructure systems such as power generation water filtration and food production into our contemporary landscapes With rising demand for clean energy clean water and locally grown food this study offers a historical perspective on how such systems can be integrated into our suburban and urban areas Vestigial elements of the pastoral tradition have long held aesthetic sway in our suburbs cities and national parks both in Britain and America Now as new energy and water related projects encroach on these spaces remnants of the pastoral play a crucial role in convincing neighborhood residents municipal leaders and energy companies or water authorities of the benefits of a neighboring infrastructure This book investigates the history of that tradition and highlights the advantages it brings as we re imagine infrastructure in the twenty first century Joanna, George, and Henry Sue Bradbury,2012

Biography of three artists closely associated with the Pre Raphaelites whose letters give a vivid insight into the dramas of their personal life Joanna George and Henry tells the story of the intertwined lives of three young artists in the 1850s When the transcript of the material on which this group portrait is based came to light ten years ago no one could have imagined the drama within They were family letters letters from a young woman to her brother and later to her suitor of interest chiefly because all three were painters and all were active participants in the youthful Pre Raphaelite revolution that swept England in the 1850s They turned out to be a revelation giving not only a comprehensive picture of what it was like to be an artist in the mid 19th century but containing within them a powerful family drama and a most unusual love story It is a love story moreover told largely from a woman s point of view Joanna Boyce s dedication to her art was absolute she studied in Paris under Thomas Couture and had her first painting exhibited at the Academy when she was only 24 She was headstrong self critical opinionated and teasing an artist with her pen as well as her brush She died tragically young Between them Joanna her brother George and suitor Henry Wells knew all the artistic luminaries of the day among them Ruskin Millais and Rossetti with whom George shared a great deal including mistresses They wrote to each other not just about art but about their friends their favourite books their travels their illnesses their passions and their quarrels In this book they tell their story in their own vivid words a story which portrays the age in which they lived and the powerful drama of their emotional and professional lives Sue Bradbury taught in Spain for three years before joining The Folio Society in 1973 She became Editorial Director in 1984 a post she held for twenty five years Her own publications include translations of Three Tragedies by Federico Garcia Lorca a novel Midnight Madonna set in the Spanish Civil War and a four volume history of the world in contemporary accounts Eyewitness to History with Robert Fox She was awarded the OBE in 2010 Ophelia Through

Time Carolina Sanabria,2025-01-22 For centuries interest in Shakespeare s Hamlet has prioritised its brooding melancholy prince Yet over time the enigmatic Ophelia his tragic love interest has risen to prominence in painting film television and beyond focused especially on her madness and death conspicuously off stage in the drama itself Analysing her rebirth resurrection and ghostly afterlives in straight adaptations as well as narratives far removed from the Bard's play this study offers an innovative cross media analysis of Ophelia's evolving representation Tracing her journey from marginal character to symbol of increasing yet ambivalent transcultural importance it identifies a series of recurring tropes that re-write her female subjectivity in surprising and fascinating ways From page to stage and scene to screen Ophelia's voice is by turns amplified ventriloquised mediated and silenced reshaped by the delicate dialogue between text and image This book is a captivating exploration of one of Shakespeare's most evocative figures and her enduring impact on visual storytelling The Journal of Pre-Raphaelite Studies, 2005

A Companion to British Art David Peters Corbett, 2016-02-16 This companion is a collection of newly commissioned essays written by leading scholars in the field providing a comprehensive introduction to British art history A generously illustrated collection of newly commissioned essays which provides a comprehensive introduction to the history of British art Combines original research with a survey of existing scholarship and the state of the field Touches on the whole of the history of British art from 800-2000 with increasing attention paid to the periods after 1500 Provides the first comprehensive introduction to British art of the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries one of the most lively and innovative areas of art historical study Presents in depth the major preoccupations that have emerged from recent scholarship including aesthetics gender British art's relationship to Modernity nationhood and nationality and the institutions of the British art world The Ethics of William Carlos Williams's Poetry Ian D. Copestake, 2010 The poet as an inheritor of an Emersonian tradition and Paterson as an ethical autobiography in progress

Victorian Artists and Their World 1844-1861 Katie J. T. Herrington, 2024 The Boyce Papers give readers a rare insight into the milieu of the artists of the mid-Victorian period

The Influence of Pre-Raphaelitism on Fin de Siècle Italy Giuliana Pieri, 2007 This volume is the first comprehensive study of the influence of English Pre-Raphaelitism on Italian art and culture in the late nineteenth century Analysis of the cultural relations between Italy and Britain has focused traditionally on the special place that Italy had in the British imagination but the cultural and artistic exchanges between the two countries have been much misunderstood This book aims to correct this imbalance by placing Pre-Raphaelitism in its European context It explores the nature of its influence on Italy how it was transmitted and how it was manifested by focusing on the role of Italian Anglophiles the English communities in Florence and Rome the writings of Gabriele D'Annunzio and a number of Italian artists active in Tuscany and Rome The works of Cellini Ricci Gioja De Carolis and Sartorio in particular fully demonstrate the impact of Pre-Raphaelitism on the young Italian school of painting which found in the English movement an ideal link with its glorious past on which it could build a new artistic identity These artists show that English Pre-Raphaelitism was one of the most powerful single influences on fin de siècle Italian culture

Painting, Science, and the Perception of Coloured Shadows Paul Smith, 2021-03-17 Many artists and scientists including Buffon Goethe and Philipp Otto Runge who observed the vividly coloured shadows that appear outdoors around dawn and dusk or indoors when a candle burns under waning daylight chose to describe their colours as beautiful Paul Smith explains what makes these ephemeral effects worthy of such appreciation or how depictions of coloured shadows have genuine aesthetic and epistemological significance This multidisciplinary book synthesises methodologies drawn from art history close pictorial analysis psychology and neuroscience theories of colour constancy history of science the changing paradigms used to explain coloured shadows and philosophy theories of perception and aesthetic value drawn from Wittgenstein and Merleau Ponty This title will be of interest to scholars in art history art theory and the history of science and technology Victorian Science and Imagery Nancy Rose Marshall, 2021-07-27 The nineteenth century was a period of science and imagery when scientific theories and discoveries challenged longstanding boundaries between animal plant and human and when art and visual culture produced new notions about the place of the human in the natural world Just as scientists relied on graphic representation to conceptualize their ideas artists moved seamlessly between scientific debate and creative expression to support or contradict popular scientific theories such as Darwin s theory of evolution and sexual selection deliberately drawing on concepts in ways that allowed them to refute popular claims or disrupt conventional knowledges Focusing on the close kinship between the arts and sciences during the Victorian period the art historians contributing to this volume reveal the unique ways in which nineteenth century British and American visual culture participated in making science and in which science informed art at a crucial moment in the history of the development of the modern world Together they explore topics in geology meteorology medicine anatomy evolution and zoology as well as a range of media from photography to oil painting They remind us that science and art are not tightly compartmentalized separate influences Rather these are fields that share forms manifest as waves layers lines or geometries that invest in the idea of the evolution of form and that generate surprisingly kindred responses such as pain pleasure empathy and sympathy Journal of Pre-Raphaelite Studies , 2005 Reading Genesis After Darwin Stephen C. Barton, David Wilkinson (Rev. Dr.), 2009 First the authors explore how the scriptures were interpreted before the time of Darwin Part II presents essays on the real history of the Darwin controversies exploding the myths about this period The final chapter deals with the rise of creationism in its current social context
