Wonder, Silence, and Human Flourishing Finn Thorbjørn Hansen, Solveig Botnen Eide, Carlo Leget, 2023-03-20

Wonder Silence and Human Flourishing Toward a Rehumanization of Health Education and Welfare approaches humanization and the process of re enchantment in a radical new way For more than a decade the call for rehumanization in education care and welfare has been heard and discussed primarily in critical thinking political theory and sociological discourses This critique is mainly based on a social constructivist and naturalistic worldview that keeps the discussion in an anthropocentric perspective By focusing on the phenomenology and ethics of wonder as an ontological and even spiritual event and by listening to the silence that follows this contemplative wonder the contributors offer an existential phenomenological and hermeneutic way of understanding humanization Edited by Finn Thorbjørn Hansen Solveig Eide Botnen and Carlo Leget the book shows from various perspectives that the force of wonder and the silence that follows from it can nurture our ability to be receptive to and present in human relations and in resonance with the meaning giving life phenomena that surround us Language Education Today Georgeta Rață, 2009-12-14 Language Education Today Between Theory and Practice is a collection of essays that appeal to teachers of modern languages almost exclusively English regardless of the level of instruction The essays deal with three main aspects of the opposition Linguistic Identity vs Multilingualism language education mother tongue Turkish Kurdish and Serbian contact linguistics the impact of Slavic and of German on modern Romanian the opposition L1 vs L2 Arabic Farsi Urdu and Serbian vs English and contrastive studies German and Macedonian English language teaching and learning English as a Foreign or Second Language taught to Serbian and Ruthenian students English for Specific Purposes Business English Information Technology English the English of hotel terminology and the English of business media taught to Romanian students English language teaching and assessing methods to Thai Italian Malaysian and Croatian students and the profile of the language teacher in the universities of the FYR of Macedonia and of Romania and linguistic issues with focus on some English word histories and on some English modal verbs on French spelling and on some French verbs of animal communication and on the Latin Plesiosauria Nomenclature

Shakespearean Ethics in Extremity James Kearney, 2025-02-27 Shakespearean Ethics in Extremity addresses forms of ethical experience on the Shakespearean stage Early modern theater traffics in the vicarious experience of ethics often ethics in some extreme or impossible circumstance It does so not by parading concepts across the stage or ventriloquizing ideas from the philosophical tradition but by bringing to life stories and characters and worlds by crafting scenes and moments of great emotional and cognitive intensity What does it feel like to be enjoined to avenge your father's murder What is it like to banish your daughter or disavow your community To murder James Kearney contends that Shakespearean theater fundamentally oriented to the experiential invites its audiences to entertain and to be entertained by what the philosopher Bernard Williams calls a phenomenology of the ethical life The early modern world inherited and developed rhetorical and philosophical practices geared toward the creation of immersive virtual experience These phenomenological arts share underlying assumptions about the cultivation and management of the self as well as a straightforward orientation toward ethics Taking up key concepts from the long history of moral philosophy recognition obligation decision luck Shakespearean Ethics in Extremity brings together a discursive history of ideas and the more phenomenological realms of body and affect environment and world In Shakespearean theater we encounter or witness or simply have our attention called to the ethical problem of other minds the obligation to neighbor and community the mysteries of decision the moral quandaries posed by epistemological uncertainty the risk of ethico affective relations and the vagaries of luck Each of these concepts points to an elemental aspect of ethical life and they all have long and rich histories ancient and modern With a concentrated focus on formally inventive plays written in the later part of Shakespeare s theatrical career King Lear Timon of Athens Macbeth Pericles The Tempest and The Winter s Tale Kearney explores Shakespearean theater as an arena or lab in which the experience of ethics in extremis is simulated or reverse engineered counterfeited or created A Language for the Soul Stuart C. Devenish, 2024-10-24 This volume offers Christian spiritual instructors a language for the soul uncovered from the storehouses of Christianity s ancient living spiritual tradition That language describes the deep soul movements that unfold in the interior life of believers in response to the Divine invitation It presents an accessible language of the soul for use in today s professional educational ministerial and everyday life situations The end product is an experiential dictionary comprised of sixty word concepts which name and explore the inward human reactions to the whispering of God s Spirit Those reactions result from inward desires that lead to the embrace of faith the quest for consecration and the journey of discipleship Nurturing these intra personal choices and commitments is the central task of Christian ministry but many faith instructors remain unaware of these critical inner life processes More than other resources available today this experiential dictionary informs enriches and intensifies the spiritual journeys of genuine disciples and seekers The volume is tailored for seminaries churches schools and community settings It has application to the training of ministry leaders the instruction of believers and in supporting the growing number of secular mystics who are open to merging their journeys of self discovery with the quest for Christ discovery Echo's Voice Mary Noonan, 2017-07-05 Helene Cixous 1937 distinguished not least as a playwright herself told Le Monde in 1977 that she no longer went to the theatre it presented women only as reflections of men used for their visual effect The theatre she wanted would stress the auditory giving voice to ways of being that had previously been silenced She was by no means alone in this Cixous s plays along with those of Nathalie Sarraute 1900 99 Marguerite Duras 1914 96 and Noelle Renaude 1949 among others have proved potent in drawing participants into a dynamic space of the voice If as psychoanalysis suggests voice represents a transitional condition between body and language such plays may draw their audiences in to understandings previously never spoken In this ground breaking study Noonan explores the rich possibilities of this new audio vocal form of theatre and what it can reveal of the auditory self

Finitude's Wounded Praise Philip John Paul Gonzales, Joseph Micah McMeans, 2023-11-07 The late Jean Louis Chretien's responsorial and polyphonic style of thinking is nothing less than a performance of gratitude which manifests the many ways and manners that our wounded finitude is graced and blessed along the peregrine path of human existence Finitude's Wounded Praise Responses to Jean Louis Chretien is a receptive celebratory response to the immense fecundity and potential of Chretien's thank you of gratitude This volume gathers leading Chretien scholars and thinkers to explicate explore think with and commemorate his thought The essays in the volume engage Chretien's work from three primary fields: phenomenological, literary, poetic and theological Finitude's Wounded Praise is a diverse exploratory and impressive testament to the expansive and enduring richness of Chretien's oeuvre

Stanley Cavell and the Potencies of the Voice Adam Gonya, 2019-04-04 Stanley Cavell was one of the most influential American philosophers of the past several decades Yet because he is often read in connection with Wittgenstein there has been little consideration of his work against the background of the larger German philosophical tradition Stanley Cavell and the Potencies of the Voice brings Cavell into dialogue with Schopenhauer and Nietzsche on the question of how we make ourselves intelligible opening up a new way of looking at central themes in Cavell's philosophy

Phenomenology of Practice Max Van Manen, 2016-09-16 Max van Manen offers an extensive exploration of phenomenological traditions and methods for the human sciences It is his first comprehensive statement of phenomenological thought and research in over a decade Phenomenology of practice refers to the meaning and practice of phenomenology in professional contexts such as psychology, education and health care as well as to the practice of phenomenological methods in contexts of everyday living Van Manen presents a detailed description of key phenomenological ideas as they have evolved over the past century he then thoughtfully works through the methodological issues of phenomenological reflection, empirical methods and writing that a phenomenology of practice offers to the researcher Van Manen's comprehensive work will be of great interest to all concerned with the interrelationship between being and acting in human sciences research and in everyday life Max van Manen is the editor of the series Phenomenology of Practice <https://www.routledge.com/series/PPVM>

The Aesthetics of Toni Morrison Connor, Marc C., 2010-01-06 Nobel laureate Toni Morrison's novels have almost exclusively been examined as sagas illuminating history, race, culture and gender politics This gathering of eight essays by top scholars probes Morrison's novels and her growing body of nonfiction and critical work for the complex and potent aesthetic elements that have made her a major American novelist of the twentieth century Through traditional aesthetic concepts such as the sublime, the beautiful and the grotesque through issues of form, narrative and language and through questions of affect and reader response the nine essays in this volume bring into relief the dynamic and often overlooked range within Morrison's writing Employing aesthetic ideas that range from the ancient Greeks to contemporary research in the black English oral tradition The Aesthetics of Toni Morrison shows the potency of these ideas for interpreting Morrison's writing This is a force Morrison herself has often suggested in her claims that Greek tragedy bears a striking similarity to Afro American communal structures At the same time each essay attends to the ways in which Morrison also challenges traditional aesthetic concepts establishing the African American and female voices that are essential to her sensibility The result is a series of readings that simultaneously expands our understanding of Morrison s work and also provokes new thinking about an aesthetic tradition that is nearly 2 500 years old These essays offer a rich complement to the dominant approaches in Morrison scholarship by revealing aspects of her work that purely ideological approaches have obscured or about which they have remained oddly silent Each essay focuses particularly on the relations between the aesthetic and the ethical in Morrison s writing and between the artistic production and its role in the world at large These relations show the rich political implications that aesthetic analysis engenders By treating both Morrison s fiction and her nonfiction the essays reveal a mind and imagination that have long been intimately engaged with the questions and traditions of the aesthetic domain The result is a provocative and original contribution to Morrison scholarship and to scholarship in American letters generally JAC ,1999 Voice over LTE Miikka Poikselkä,Harri Holma,Jukka Hongisto,Juha Kallio,Antti Toskala,2012-03-05 Describes the technological solutions and standards which will enable the migration of voice and SMS services over to LTE EPC networks Main drivers for the introduction of Long Term Evolution of UTRAN LTE is to provide far better end user experience for mobile broadband services However service providers also need to have a clear strategy of how to offer voice and messaging services for consumers and enterprises The voice service over LTE is becoming increasingly important when the smartphone penetration is increasing rapidly Smartphones require both good quality voice and high speed broadband data This book provides the exhaustive view to industry approved technologies and standards behind the Voice over LTE VoLTE Whether a decision maker or technology analyst this book explains a topic of substantial global market interest It provides a good introduction to the technology and is useful for operators who may be deploying VoLTE product managers responsible for VoLTE products and those who work in implementation and standardization of related technologies Provides a comprehensive overview of industry approved technologies and standards providing vital information for decision makers and those working on the technology Written by authors working at the cutting edge of mobile communications technology today bringing a mix of standards and product background guaranteeing in depth practical and standards information Covering the technical and practical elements of VoLTE explaining the various approaches for providing voice services over LTE NIVAC Bundle 5: Minor Prophets Gary V. Palimpsests of the Real in Recent French Poetry Glenn W. Fetzer,2021-08-30 The richness and diversity of poetic voices in France since the mid twentieth century sharpen the challenge of charting the poetic landscape in ways that are accessible and cohesive Since poetry in France has long demonstrated a predisposition to philosophical questions Palimpsests of the Real in Recent French Poetry reads the work of six poets through the lens of the Pre Socratics The poets discussed range from the well known Jacques Dupin Andr du Bouchet Eug ne Guillevic to the lesser celebrated Jean Louis Chr tien C line Zins and Emmanuel Hocquard What binds these six together is an interest in the real and a fascination with the ways of sensing one s world of experiencing time unity memory and change For each poet the aesthetic character of the work takes precedence and its presentation is informed by the philosophical groundwork laid by ancient thinkers Written not only for specialists but also for students and all readers with a general interest in literature and poetry this book provides introductory material to each poet considered as well as offers critical readings that never stray far from the poetic texts The Oxford Handbook of Voice Perception Sascha Frühholz, Pascal Belin, 2019 Speech perception has been the focus of innumerable studies over the past decades While our abilities to recognize individuals by their voice state plays a central role in our everyday social interactions limited scientific attention has been devoted to the perceptual and cerebral mechanisms underlying nonverbal information processing in voices The Oxford Handbook of Voice Perception takes a comprehensive look at this emerging field and presents a selection of current research in voice perception The forty chapters summarise the most exciting research from across several disciplines covering acoustical clinical evolutionary cognitive and computational perspectives In particular this handbook offers an invaluable window into the development and evolution of the vocal brain and considers in detail the voice processing abilities of non human animals or human infants By providing a full and unique perspective on the recent developments in this burgeoning area of study this text is an important and interdisciplinary resource for students researchers and scientific journalists interested in voice perception

The Blue Sapphire of the Mind Douglas E. Christie, 2013 In The Blue Sapphire of the Mind Douglas E. Haggai, Zechariah Mark J. Boda, 2004 The NIV Application Commentary Series The setting Jerusalem Recently returned from Babylonian captivity the Jews are occupied with personal pursuits while the temple of Yahweh lies in ruins To the prophets Haggai and Zechariah falls the task of calling God's people to their forgotten priority rebuilding his house Heeding prophetic admonition the people overcome the obstacles that face them and prosper in their work thanks largely to the vision and encouragement of the prophets The books of Haggai and Zechariah represent a golden period in Old Testament history but they are often overlooked Yet these two minor prophets speak a major message to the church today It is one that calls us as a community of faith to the priority of God's house and inspires us with glimpses of its future glory Exploring the links between the Bible and our own times Mark J Boda shares perspectives on Haggai and Zechariah that reveal their enduring relevance for our twenty first century lives Most Bible commentaries take us on a one way trip from our world to the world of the Bible But they leave us there assuming that we can somehow make the return journey on our own They focus on the original meaning of the passage but don't discuss its contemporary application The information they offer is valuable but the job is only half done The NIV Application Commentary Series helps bring both halves of the interpretive task together This unique award winning series shows readers how to bring an ancient message into our present day context It explains not only what the Bible meant but also how it speaks powerfully today This series promises to become an indispensable tool for every pastor and teacher who seeks to make the Bible's timeless message speak to this generation BILLY GRAHAM Some commentaries build walls that isolate you back in the ancient world The NIV Application Commentary builds bridges that make the Bible come alive with meaning for contemporary life and the series does so concisely clearly and accurately No wasted words or academic detours just solid help and practical truth WARREN W WIEERSBE Introduction to Scientific Psychology Henry D. Jr. Schlinger, Alan

Poling,2013-11-21 We humans are faced with an interesting problem That which we think we understand the most our own behavior we probably understand the least On the eve of a new millennium the planet is beset by a host of problems that are for the most part caused by human behavior Ironically although it seems that the greatest impact of our behavior is on the planet and its other inhabitants we may actually be threatening our own future the most For example we have caused untold harm to the air we breathe to the water we drink and by extension to much of the food we eat More important perhaps we have created a society in which among other things many people are anxious and depressed young women starve themselves and alcohol and cigarette use are responsible for hundreds of thousands of cases of illness and death every year And humans still murder one another at an astounding rate while at the same time continuing to affirm the value of human life At a time when it is critical that our children become educated more and more children are not learning the basic skills they will need to think logically so that they can begin to solve the world's problems The question may be not Can the planet survive but rather Can we humans survive and change our own destructive actions Although many scholars philosophers

Music, Sensation, and Sensuality Linda Phyllis Austern,2013-10-11 Divided into three sections Linda Phyllis Austern collects eighteen cross disciplinary essays written by some of the most important names in the field to look at this stimulating topic The first section focuses on the cultural and scientific ways in which music and the sense of hearing work directly on the mind and body Part Two investigates how music works on the socially constructed representational or sexualized body as a means of healing beautifying and maintaining a balance between the mental and physical Finally the book explores the action of music as it is heard and sensed by wider social units such as the body politic mass communication from print to sound recording and broadcast technologies
