Making Contact Leston Havens, 1988-10-15 Since 1955 moving from early work in psychopharmacology to studies of clinical method and the psychiatric schools Leston Havens has been working toward a general theory of therapy It often seems that twentieth century psychiatry sect ridden is a Tower of Babel as Havens once characterized it This book is the distillation of long years of thought and practice a bold yet modest attempt to delineate an integrated psychotherapy The boldness of this effort lies in its author's willingness to recognize the best that each school has to offer to describe it cogently and to integrate it into a full response to today's new kind of patient Descriptive or medical psychiatry psychoanalysis interpersonal or behavioristic psychiatry empathic or existential therapy viewed in metaphors respectively of perceiving thinking managing feeling all have useful contributions to make to contemporary methods of treatment But how Havens's modest answer is through appropriate language and he demonstrates exactly what he means when to ask questions when to direct or draw back when to sympathize Practitioners now must deal with less dramatic but more stubborn problems of character and situation lack of purpose isolation submissiveness invasiveness deep yet vague dissatisfaction Some kind of human presence must be discovered in the patient and Havens gives concrete absorbing examples of ways of speaking to absence of making contact The emphasis is on verbal technique but the underlying broad humane intent is everywhere evident It is no less than to transform passivity by means of disciplined therapeutic concern into a state of being Human

The Bible's First History Robert B. Coote, David Robert Ord, 2018-01-04 This is a book about an ancient writer the J writer the Yahwist who produced a work of political imagination This work is embedded mainly in the first four books of the Bible best known for some of the most popular and influential biblical stories in Genesis and Exodus The purpose of the book is to represent the whole of the original story with attention to its own meaning without the influence of the other literary strands with which it was later supplemented Therefore the work includes a fresh complete translation of the text of the J writer who produced the Bible's first history The translation itself helps to establish more clearly than ever the integrity of the J writer The concern here is WHEN and WHY this history was written especially in light of the concerns for justice and prosperity Throughout it is demonstrated HOW and WHY this history comes from the court of David it is a royal history of David's subjects as though they were descended from pastoral nomads such as Abram Isaac and Jacob It is argued that the intended audience of the history was probably those Bedouin who regularly visited the court of David in Hebron and Jerusalem Here is a bold and brilliant representation of the J writer's composition perhaps as it was originally intended to be read or heard This ancient tour de force takes on new life in the hands of these skilled interpreters

Foucault's Critical Philosophy of History Adam Takács, 2023-12-18 Foucault's Critical Philosophy of History Unfolding the Present provides a comprehensive interpretation of Foucault's work by focusing on its methodological procedural and epistemological elements Adam Takács argues that despite all its thematic and analytical diversity Foucault's procedure can be understood within a unified framework based on the historical problematization of the present This procedure triggered by current social issues and aiming at a diagnostic screening of the present through a constructive exploration of the past thus sets in motion not only a specific philosophical vision of history and a research practice often related to the procedures of historiography but also new ways of critical analysis of social phenomena This book subjects all these elements to a systematic analysis demonstrating that within this framework Foucault's often debated views on historical realism and constructivism his methodological choices and ontological commitments take on a coherent profile culminating in a timely social critical project of liberation of knowledge and political subjectivation
