Present Pasts Patrick Modianos Autobiographica:

Present Pasts Dervila Cooke, 2005 This is the first in depth study of the twelve Modiano texts specifically concerned with life writing in autobiographical and biographical cum historiographical projects The texts covered range from La Place de l toile 1968 through to La Petite Bijou 2001 Close textual analysis is combined with a theoretical approach based on current thinking in autobiography biography and reader response Modiano s use of autofiction and biofiction is analysed in the light of his continuing obsession with both personal trauma and History as well as his problematic relationship with his paternally inherited Jewish links His view of identity of self and other is thus discussed in relation to a particular literary and socio historical context French postmodern post World War II and post Holocaust Consuming Autobiographies Claire Boyle, 2017-12-02 Since 1975 French literary writing has been marked by an autobiographical turn which has seen authors increasingly often tap into the vein of what the French term ecriture de soi This coincides paradoxically with the death of autobiography as these authors self consciously distance themselves and their writings from conventional autobiography founding a nouvelle autobiographie where the very possibility of autobiographical expression is questioned In the first book length study in English to address this phenomenon Claire Boyle sheds a new light on this hostility toward autobiography through a series of ground breaking studies of estrangement in autobiographical works by major post war authors Nathalie Sarraute Georges Perec Jean Genet and Helene Cixous She identifies autobiography as a site of conflict between writer and reader as authors struggle to assert the unknowableness of their identity in the face of a readership resolutely desiring privileged knowledge Autobiography emerges as a deeply troubling genre for authors with the reader as an antagonistic consumer of the autobiographical self The Autobiography Effect Dennis Schep, 2019-07-24 Since the advent of post structuralism various authors have problematized the modern conception of autobiography by questioning the status of authorship and interrogating the relation between language and reality Yet even after making autobiography into a theoretical problem many of these authors ended up writing about themselves This paradox stands at the center of this wide ranging study of the form and function of autobiography in the work of authors who have distanced themselves from its modern instantiation Discussing Roland Barthes Jacques Derrida H l ne Cixous and others this book grapples with the question of what it means to write the self when the self is understood as an effect of writing Combining close reading intellectual history and literary theory The Autobiography Effect traces how precisely its theoretically problematic nature made autobiography into a central scene for the negotiation of philosophical positions and anxieties after structuralism

Patrick Modiano ,2007-01-01 While his preoccupation with the period of the Occupation remains a permanent theme Patrick Modiano is increasingly interested in the exploration of time and memory and the attendant problem of reconstituting the past This volume explores all these features It casts new light on Modiano's earliest novels examines afresh his more recent work including his stories for children situates it in the context of contemporary writing and unravels the intricacies indicates an opening toward the future by attempting to put the past to rest in his fiction The Story of "Me" Marjorie Worthington, 2018-11-01 Autofiction or works in which the eponymous author appears as a fictionalized character represents a significant trend in postwar American literature when it proliferated to become a kind of postmodern clich The Story of Me charts the history and development of this genre analyzing its narratological effects and discussing its cultural implications By tracing autofiction s conceptual issues through case studies and an array of texts Marjorie Worthington sheds light on a number of issues for postwar American writing the maleness of the postmodern canon and anxieties created by the supposed waning of male privilege the relationship between celebrity and authorship the influence of theory the angst stemming from claims of the death of the author and the rise of memoir culture Worthington constructs and contextualizes a bridge between the French literary context from which the term originated and the rise of autofiction among various American literary movements from modernism to New Criticism to New Journalism The Story of Me demonstrates that the burgeoning of autofiction serves as a barometer of American literature from modernist authorial effacement to postmodern literary self Genre Trajectories Garin Dowd, Natalia Rulyova, 2015-08-25 This book provides a fresh interdisciplinary consciousness perspective on genre and identifies developments in genre studies in the early 21st century Genre approaches are applied to examine a fascinating range of texts including ancient Greek poems Holocaust visual and literary texts contemporary Hollywood films selfies melodrama and classroom practices Life Writing and Transcultural Youth in Contemporary France Dervila Cooke, 2024-07-27 This book analyses transcultural works of life writing relating to youth and childhood by Azouz Begag Maryam Madjidi and Laura Alcoba of Algerian Iranian and Argentinian heritage respectively With a strong focus on societal issues in France from the turn of the millennium to early 2024 including the intersections between the postcolonial and the transcultural it analyses the authors relationship with France and the home country and the problematic pull of return Each author uses life writing in a transpersonal manner and expresses multiple cultural belongings Begag displays playful yet compulsive self reinvention Madjidi uses autofiction in a search for authenticity and Alcoba s approach highlights the difficulties of dealing with traumatic personal and national memory A substantial overview is given of each author's uvre along with societal context for the country of origin or descent followed by close textual analysis. This is a companion volume to Dervila Cooke s 2024 monograph on Qu bec Biofiction and Writers' Afterlives Bethany Layne, 2020-06-25 The twelve essays collected in this work explore the afterlives of nineteenth and twentieth century writers in biographical fiction or biofiction and its sister genre the biopic The essays situate these genres in relation to their generic cultural and ideological contexts and are organised into four groups The first locates the origins of biofiction in the historical novel and in Modernist experiments in life writing while the second consists of case studies of biofiction about writers from the long nineteenth century Charlotte Bront Henry James Constance Fenimore Woolson and Rupert Brooke A guest essay by novelist Maggie Gee opens the third group which analyses the fertile sub genre of biographical novels about Woolf while the
