Malcolm Allbrook, Sophie Scott-Brown

Presenting Australia The Making Of A Nation:

Presenting Australia Bruce Elder, 2000 This work portrays Australia's history geography ecology economy and politics Lavishly illustrated the book provides a visual portrait of all aspects of the country including its people wildlife and landscapes spanning from Aboriginal times to the current multicultural climate Australia: the Making of a Nation John Foster Fraser, 1910 John Hirst has drawn on previously unexplored material to write a history of the long sometimes difficult and ultimately sentimental process of Australian Federation published on the eve of the Centenary of Federation The Geographical Journal, 1910 Includes the Proceedings of the Royal geographical society formerly pub separately

Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William Seaver Woods, 1901 White Nation Ghassan Hage, 2012-11-12 Anthropologist and social critic Ghassan Hage explores one of the most complex and troubling of modern phenomena the desire for a white nation The Nation, 1910 Australia United States. Department of Commerce, Augustin William Ferrin, 1922 Immigration Policy from 1970 to the Present Rachel Stevens, 2016-02-19 This book examines national debates on immigration asylum seekers and guest worker programs from 1970 to the present Over the past 45 years contemporary immigration has had a profound impact throughout North America Europe and Australasia yet the admission of ethnically diverse immigrants was far from inevitable In the midst of significant social change policymakers grappled with fundamental questions what is the purpose of immigration in an age of mass mobility Which immigrants should be selected and potentially become citizens and who should be excluded How should immigration be controlled in an era of universal human rights and non discrimination Stevens provides an in depth case study comparison of two settler societies Australia and the United States while drawing parallels with Europe Canada and New Zealand Though contemporary immigration history that focuses on one national setting is well established this book is unique because it actively compares how a number of societies debated vexing immigration policy challenges The book also explores the ideas values and principles that underpin this contentious area of public policy and in doing so permits a broader understanding of contemporary immigration than outlining policies alone The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2001 Sport and the British World, 1900-1930 E. Nielsen, 2014-06-12 This book provides a lively study of the role that Australians and New Zealanders played in defining the British sporting concept of amateurism In doing so they contributed to understandings of wider British identity across the sporting world Pasadena Library and Civic Magazine, 1907 The Athenaeum, 1910

Australia, its history and present condition W. Pridden, 2023-10-04 W Pridden's Australia its history and present condition is a detailed and thorough examination of the history culture and societal structures of Australia Written in a clear and informative style the book provides a comprehensive overview of the country's development from its earliest days to the modern era Pridden's in depth analysis delves into the political economic and social factors that have shaped Australia making it a valuable resource for readers interested in Australian history and culture The book also offers insights into the country's present condition shedding light on current issues and challenges facing Australia Pridden's work reflects his deep knowledge of the subject matter and his dedication to presenting a nuanced and balanced perspective on the country His meticulous research and thoughtful commentary make this book an essential read for anyone seeking to understand Australia's past and present Australia its history and present condition is a must read for students scholars and enthusiasts of Australian studies Fruit World of Australasia ,1928 Joint Volumes of Papers Presented to the Legislative Council and Legislative Assembly New South Wales. Parliament,1913 Includes various departmental reports and reports of commissions Cf Gregory Serial publications of foreign governments 1815 1931 Sketch ,1900 Proceedings of the Parliament of South Australia South Australia. Parliament,1871 Flag and Nation Elizabeth Kwan,2006-05-01 Ambiguity has marked the use of national flags in Australia since Federation The gaps in the documented history of the transition from Union Jack to Australian national flag has left Australians dependent on the views of groups arguing for and against flag change Flag and Nation explains Australians changing relationship to their national flags since 1901 and the perceptions of national identity they represent The New York Times Saturday Review of Books and Art ,1968 Family History and Historians in Australia and New Zealand Malcolm Allbrook,Sophie Scott-Brown,2021-06-27 Since the turn of the twenty first century family history is the place where two great oceans of research are meeting family historians outside the academy with traditionally trained often university employed historians This collection is both a testament to dialogue and an analysis of the dynamics of recent family history that derives from the confluence of professional historians with family historians their common causes and conversations It brings together leading and emerging Australian and New Zealand scholars to consider the relationship between family history and the discipline of history and the potential of family history to extend the scope of historical inquiry even to revitalise the discipline In Anglo Western culture the roots of the discipline's professionalisation lay in efforts to reconstruct history as objective knowledge to extend its subject matter and to enlarge the scale of historical enquiry Family history almost by definition is often inescapably personal and localised How then have historians responded to this resurgence of interest in the personal and the local and how has it influenced the thought and practice of historical enquiry
