Presenting New Zealand A Nations Heritage:

New Zealand And The World: Past, Present And Future Robert G Patman,Iati Iati,Balazs Kiglics,2017-12-28 The aim of this book is to provide the reader with an overview of New Zealand s international relations It is a country that has often shown an international presence that is out of proportion to the modest spectrum of national economic military and diplomatic capabilities at its disposal In this volume the editors have called upon a range of specialists representing a range of views drawn from the worlds of academia policy making and civil society It is an attempt to present a rounded picture of New Zealand s place in the world one that does not rely exclusively on any particular perspective The book does not claim to be exhaustive But it does seek to present a more wide ranging treatment of New Zealand s foreign relations than has generally been the case in the past Five broad themes help shape and organize the contributions to the text Aotearoa New Zealand in the Global Theatre Marketplace James Wenley,2020-10-18 Aotearoa New Zealand in the Global Theatre Marketplace offers a case study of how the theatre of Aotearoa has toured represented and marketed itself on the global stage How has New Zealand work attempted to stand out differentiate itself and get seen by audiences internationally This book examines the journeys of a dynamic range of culturally and theatrically innovative works created by Aotearoa New Zealand theatre makers that have toured and been performed across time place and theatrical space from Moana Oceania to the Edinburgh Festival Fringe from a M ori Shakespeare adaptation to an immersive zombie theatre experience Drawing on postcolonialism transnationalism cosmopolitanism and globality to understand how Aotearoa New Zealand has imagined and conceived of itself through drama the author investigates how these representations might be read and received by audiences around the world variously reinforcing and complicating conceptions of New Zealand national identity Developing concepts of theatrical mobility portability and the market this study engages with the whole theatrical enterprise as a play travels from concept and scripting through to funding marketing performance and the critical response by reviewers and commentators This book will be of global interest to academics producers and theatre artists as a significant resource for the theory and practice of theatre touring and cross cultural performance and reception Presenting New Zealand Philip Temple,2001 Lavishly illustrated with over 200 full colour and black and white historical and contemporary photographs artworks and regional maps Presenting New Zealand is a quintessential visual and informative account of how the country has developed in relative isolation into the independent nation that the rest of the world recognises today Starting with the huge rifts of prehistoric times that tore it apart from the mass of Gondwanaland the book traces the arrival of the first Polynesian canoes the exploration and subsequent settlement by Europeans and goes on to outline the conflict engendered by the ensuing cross cultural encounters The country s modern day social economic and political achievements are then analysed in Philip Temple s lively account of the growth of this remarkable country Opera Indigene: Re/presenting First Nations and Indigenous Cultures Pamela Karantonis,Dylan Robinson,2016-05-13 The representation of non Western cultures

in opera has long been a focus of critical inquiry Within this field the diverse relationships between opera and First Nations and Indigenous cultures however have received far less attention Opera Indigene takes this subject as its focus addressing the changing historical depictions of Indigenous cultures in opera and the more contemporary practices of Indigenous and First Nations artists The use of re presenting in the title signals an important distinction between how representations of Indigenous identity have been constructed in operatic history and how Indigenous artists have more recently utilized opera as an interface to present and develop their cultural practices This volume explores how operas on Indigenous subjects reflect the evolving relationships between Indigenous peoples the colonizing forces of imperial power and forms of internal colonization in developing nation states Drawing upon postcolonial theory ethnomusicology cultural geography and critical discourses on nationalism and multiculturalism the collection brings together experts on opera and music in Canada the Americas and Australia in a stimulating comparative study of operatic re presentation

Art and Cultural Heritage

Barbara T. Hoffman, 2006 Art and Cultural Heritage is appropriately but not solely about national and international law respecting cultural heritage It is a bubbling cauldron of law mixed with ethics philosophy politics and working principles looking at how cultural heritage law policy and practice should be sculpted from the past as the present becomes the future Art and cultural heritage are two pillars on which a society builds its identity its values its sense of community and the individual The authors explore these demanding concerns untangle basic values and look critically at the conflicts and contradictions in existing art and cultural heritage law and policy in its diverse sectors The rich and provocative contributions collectively provide a reasoned discussion of the issues from a multiplicity of views to permit the reader to understand the theoretical and philosophical underpinnings of the cultural heritage debate

Heritage Language

Policies around the World Corinne A. Seals, Sheena Shah, 2017-09-18 Heritage language policies define the context in which heritage languages are maintained or abandoned by communities and this volume describes and analyzes international policy strategies as well as the implications for the actual heritage language speakers This volume brings together heritage language policy case studies from around the world foregrounding globalization by covering five regions the Americas Europe Africa Asia and Australasia The countries profiled include the United States Canada Argentina Norway Sweden Ireland Uganda Namibia Morocco Japan South Korea Singapore New Zealand Australia and Fiji This volume also highlights an expanded definition of heritage language choosing to focus on individual and community identities and therefore including both Indigenous and immigrant languages Focusing specifically on language policy relating to heritage languages the chapters address key questions such as Are heritage languages included or excluded from the national language policy discourse What are the successes and shortcomings of efforts to establish heritage language policies What is the definition of heritage language in official usage by the local regional government and stakeholders How are these language policies perceived by the actual heritage language communities

A Companion to Museum Studies Sharon

Macdonald, 2011-08-24 A Companion to Museum Studies captures the multidisciplinary approach to the study of the development roles and significance of museums in contemporary society. Collects first rate original essays by leading figures from a range of disciplines and theoretical stances including anthropology art history history literature sociology cultural studies and museum studies. Examines the complexity of the museum from cultural political curatorial historical and representational perspectives. Covers traditional subjects such as space display buildings objects and collecting and more contemporary challenges such as visiting commerce community and experimental exhibition forms South Pacific Museums Chris Healy, Andrea Witcomb, 2006 South Pacific Museums Experiments in Culture is a collection of outstanding analyses of museums in the South Pacific written by cultural museum and architectural critics and historians. A series of snapshots introduce the reader to key museums in the region and longer essays explore these museums in broad terms. Over the last 50 years museums have been regarded by many scholars and cultural critics as archaic institutions far from the cutting edge of cultural innovation. This judgement is being proved wrong across the globe with innovative museums staking out new territory. Nowhere is this more striking than in the South Pacific where new and redeveloped institutions have included the Museum of New Zealand Te Papa Tongarewa the National Museum of Australia the Melbourne Museum the Australian Centre for the Moving Image the Museum of Sydney the Gab Titui Cultural Centre in the Torres Strait the Auckland Museum the Centre Culturel Tjibaou and the Vanuatu Cultural Centre. South Pacific Museums make sense of these museums as part of the complex field of heritage where national economies meet global tourism cities brand themselves and indigeneity articulates with colonialism. The effect is one of cultural experimentation. Part One New Museums introduces three different museums in distinctive national contexts: Te Papa the Centre Culturel Tjibaou and the National Museum of Australia. Essays in this part grapple with the role of these museums in the nation at particular historical moments under specific political pressures. Part Two New Knowledges documents practices and exhibitions at the point of tension between indigenous and non indigenous interests in the museum. Part three New Experiences explores the ways in which museums in the South Pacific are producing that ineffable cultural phenomenon experience The Politics of Heritage Jo Littler, Roshi Naidoo, 2005 This collection explores how the heritage industry and cultural policy have responded to questions of nation and national identity International Relations and Heritage Rodrigo Christofolletti, Maria Leonor Botelho, 2021-08-30 Patchwork in times of plurality encompasses the multitude of actions as a revealing symbol of ethos actors organisms and manifestations of preservation and dialogue frontiers. This plural metaphor almost like a patchwork aggregates and yet segregates conforms but disfigures and boosts the meanings which represent this new field that international relations have been recently crossing. Just like the mirror metaphor that reflects everything to all and sometimes intervenes in distortions the patchwork analogy allowed the book to take responsibility for the disclosure of preservation actions on a global scale. The book has a pioneering role insofar since it is the only publication with such characteristics concerns and coverage. The work

studies the interconnection between cultural properties and international relations by understanding them as a mosaic before the bridges that intertwine people and borders The main goal of this work is to illustrate in what way intergovernmental relations have been privileging heritage and culture as acting fields for its broader needs Therefore the book addresses topics related to the international agenda focusing on its less debated themes Two examples of these undervalued matters are the link between actors preservationist actions and the universe of world cultural heritage The book also pursues a critical dialogue between interdisciplinary fields that narrow heritage frontiers in search to contribute with a spectrum of academic perspectives and inter national study cases To serve distinct economic social or political purposes institutionalized heritage embodied by different values becomes instrumentalized in a top down direction In a development frame when we perceive culture as indispensable to human life the past is transformed into exchange currency Through the creation of alternative fields of action usually in a bottom up logic the present builds new heritage connections Digital heritage s preservation dissemination and appreciation have been representing these same nets

Good Practices for Disaster Risk Management of Cultural Heritage Rohit Jigyasu,Dowon Kim,Lata Shakya,2023-06-27 This book is a selection of case studies undertaken by cultural heritage and disaster risk management professionals across the world demonstrating good practices for disaster risk management of cultural heritage The readers will learn about the practical application of various methodologies tools and techniques for disaster risk assessment mitigation preparedness response and recovery of cultural heritage They will also learn about the application of traditional knowledge and engagement of communities for disaster risk management of cultural heritage This will help relevant organisations and professionals to develop and implement projects in this field The intended audience for this book are Practitioners or site managers of cultural heritage sites and museums Also researchers and students studying disaster risk management of cultural heritage The book will also be of interest to disaster risk management institutions at the urban regional or national level cultural heritage management institutions at the urban regional or national level city administration municipalities urban local bodies and planning departments educational and research institutions which have specialised programmes in engineering planning disaster risk management and conservation of cultural heritage

Education, Values and Ethics in International Heritage Jeanette Atkinson,2016-04-29 The changing and evolving relationship between museums and communities Indigenous ethnic and marginalized has been a primary point of discussion in the heritage sector in recent years Questions of official and unofficial heritage whose artefacts to collect and exhibit and why have informed and influenced museum practice Developing from this a key issue is whether it is possible to raise awareness of differing cultural perspectives values and beliefs and incorporate this into the education and training of heritage professionals with the aim of making cultural awareness an integrated and sustainable core part of future heritage training and practice This book discusses perceptions of values and ethics authenticity and significance and documents the historical heritage and education context in North America Scandinavia and the United Kingdom with a particular emphasis on Aotearoa New Zealand The author explores whether it is possible to learn respect for differing cultural perspectives through the undertaking of educational programmes identifies various approaches that could complement the development of students and professionals in the cultural heritage and preservation sectors and offers a means of actively engaging with cultural and professional values through a Taxonomy for Respecting Heritage and Values

Museums, Heritage and Indigenous Voice Bryony Onciul, 2015-07-03 Current discourse on Indigenous engagement in museum studies is often dominated by curatorial and academic perspectives in which community voice viewpoints and reflections on their collaborations can be under represented This book provides a unique look at Indigenous perspectives on museum community engagement and the process of self representation specifically how the First Nations Elders of the Blackfoot Confederacy have worked with museums and heritage sites in Alberta Canada to represent their own culture and history Situated in a post colonial context the case study sites are places of contention a politicized environment that highlights commonly hidden issues and naturalized inequalities built into current approaches to community engagement Data from participant observation archives and in depth interviewing with participants brings Blackfoot community voice into the text and provides an alternative understanding of self and cross cultural representation Focusing on the experiences of museum professionals and Blackfoot Elders who have worked with a number of museums and heritage sites Indigenous Voices in Cultural Institutions unpicks the power and politics of engagement on a micro level and how it can be applied more broadly by exposing the limits and challenges of cross cultural engagement and community self representation The result is a volume that provides readers with an in depth understanding of the nuances of self representation and decolonization

For the Sake of Present and Future Generations Suzannah Linton, Gerry Simpson, William A. Schabas, 2015-07-14 Professor Roger Stenson Clark has played a pivotal role in developing International Criminal Law and the movement against nuclear weapons He was one of the intellectual and moral fathers of the International Criminal Court This Festschrift brings together forty one appreciative friends to honour his remarkable contribution The distinguished contributors provide incisive contributions ranging from the reform of the Security Council to rule of law and international justice in Africa to New Zealand cultural heritage to customary international law in US courts and more Threaded through these richly diverse contributions is one common feature a belief in values and morality in human conduct and a passion for transformative use of law for the sake of present and future generations

Heritage Conservation and Japan's Cultural Diplomacy Natsuko Akagawa, 2014-07-25 Japan's heritage conservation policy and practice as deployed through its foreign aid programs has become one of the main means through which post World War II Japan has sought to mark its presence in the international arena both globally and regionally Heritage conservation has been intimately linked to Japan's sense of national identity in addition to its self portrayal as a responsible global and regional citizen This book explores the concepts of heritage nationalism and Japanese national identity in the context of Japanese and international history since the second half of the nineteenth century In doing so it shows how Japan has built on its distinctive approach to conservation to develop a heritage based strategy which has been used as part of its cultural diplomacy designed to increase its soft power both globally and within the Asian region More broadly Natsuko Akagawa underlines the theoretical nexus between the politics of heritage conservation cultural diplomacy and national interest and in turn highlights how issues of heritage conservation practice and policy are crucial to a comprehensive understanding of geo politics Heritage Conservation and Japan s Cultural Diplomacy will be of great interest to students scholars and professionals working in the fields of heritage and museum studies heritage conservation international relations and Asian Japanese studies

Ecomedia Stephen Rust,Salma Monani,Sean Cubitt,2015-09-07 Ecomedia Key Issues is a comprehensive textbook introducing the burgeoning field of ecomedia studies to provide an overview of the interface between environmental issues and the media globally Linking the world of media production distribution and consumption to environmental understandings the book addresses ecological meanings encoded in media texts the environmental impacts of media production and the relationships between media and cultural perceptions of the environment Each chapter introduces a distinct type of media addressing it in a theoretical overview before engaging with specific case studies In this way the book provides an accessible introduction to each form of media as well as a sophisticated analysis of relevant cases The book includes contributions from a combination of new voices and well established media scholars from across the globe who examine the basic concepts and key issues of ecomedia studies The concepts of frames flow and convergence structure a dynamic collection divided into three parts The first part addresses traditional visual texts such as comics photography and film The second part of the book addresses traditional broadcast media such as radio and television and the third part looks at new media such as advertising video games the internet and digital renderings of scientific data In its breadth and scope Ecomedia Key Issues presents a unique survey of rich scholarship at the confluence of Media Studies and Environmental Studies The book is written in an engaging and accessible style with each chapter including case studies discussion questions and suggestions for further reading

Relevance and Application of Heritage in Contemporary Society Pei-Lin Yu,Chen Shen,George Smith,2018-07-06 In the contemporary world unprecedented global events are challenging our ability to protect and enhance cultural heritage for future generations Relevance and Application of Heritage in Contemporary Society examines innovative and flexible approaches to cultural heritage protection Bringing together cultural heritage scholars and activists from across the world the volume showcases a spectrum of exciting new approaches to heritage protection community involvement and strategic utilization of expertise The contributions deal with a range of highly topical issues including armed conflict and non state actors as well as broad questions of public heritage museum roles in society heritage tourism disputed ownership and indigenous and local approaches In so doing the volume builds upon and introduces readers to a new cultural heritage declaration codified during a 2016 workshop at the Royal Ontario Museum Canada Offering a clarion call for an enduring spirit of innovation collaboration education and outreach Relevance and Application of Heritage in Contemporary Society will be important reading for scholars students cultural heritage managers and local community stakeholders A Future for Archaeology Robert Layton,Stephen Shennan,Peter Stone,2016-09-16 Over the last thirty years issues of culture identity and meaning have moved out of the academic sphere to become central to politics and society at all levels from the local to the global Archaeology has been at the forefront of these moves towards a greater engagement with the non academic world often in an extremely practical and direct way for example in the disputes about the repatriation of human burials Such disputes have been central to the recognition that previously marginalized groups have rights in their own past that are important for their future The essays in this book look back at some of the most important events where a role for an archaeology concerned with the past in the present first emerged and look forward to the practical and theoretical issues now central to a socially engaged discipline and shaping its future This book is published in honor of Professor Peter Ucko who has played an unparalleled role in promoting awareness of the core issues in this volume among archaeologists Encyclopedia of Leisure and Outdoor Recreation John Jenkins,John Pigram,2004-08-02 Edited by leading authorities this key reference reflects the multidisciplinary nature of its subject It is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent study and a solid starting point for wider subject exploration Asia's Heritage Trend Jongil Kim,Minjae Zoh,2023-09-20 Kim and Zoh bring together a team of contributors to analyse the role of heritage studies across Asia and its impact on Asia and its constituent countries Is there such a thing as Asian heritage Is it more helpful to understand Asia as a single unit or as a set of sub regions What can we learn about Asia s present through its archaeology and heritage Covering a wide range of countries including Afghanistan Cambodia China Korea Laos Myanmar Japan Taiwan Thailand and Vietnam the contributors to this book address these key questions In doing so they look at a number of critical issues such as UNESCO World Heritage status cultural propaganda cultural erasure and difficult heritage While addressing Asia s past they also observe key issues within present day Asia further providing conceptual and practical insights into the methods that are being applied to the study of Asia s heritage today A valuable resource for scholars and students of Asian history and culture archaeology heritage studies anthropology and religious studies
