Fladmark,2015-11-17 Papers from the 1999 conference by the Museum of Scotland Aims to generate international comparison and debate about interpretation and presentation of heritage assets and to examine the role of museums in shaping national identity     Children's Books for Christmas Presents ,1912     Scotland from the Earliest Times to the Present Century John Mackintosh,1902     Scotland, Stories of ,1896     Child Life ,1911     The Dynamics of Heritage Laurence Gouriévidis,2016-03-23 There has been much academic interest in the role of museums as places where understanding of the past is shaped and legitimised for a wide and increasingly diverse public This book focuses on the museum representations of the Highland Clearances a much neglected aspect of one of the most disputed and politically charged issues in modern Scottish history Drawing together a range of inter disciplinary themes and notions it considers the cultural legacy of the period brings to light the socially and historically conditioned meanings and values encapsulated in museum narratives of the Clearances and shows the significance of collective memory in the negotiations inherent in heritage work Examining both national and local museums in Scotland and concluding with comparisons with Australian museums of migration Dynamics of Heritage contributes to our understanding of the processes of heritage construction and its relationship to issues of memory and other modes of engagement with the past

Building on Batik Michael Hitchcock, Wiendu Nuryanti, 2016-12-05 The word batik is possibly of Malay origin from the word tik meaning to drip or to drop The term is applied to a resist dye technique invented independently in locations as diverse as Ancient Egypt Japan and Turkestan Batik is a remarkably flexible textile technique and is suited to small scale methods of production but demand from the fashion and tourism industries is increasing This volume brings together the experiences and concerns of the international community of batik producers It gives voice to their suggestions for ensuring that the producers of this traditional craft are integrated into its increasingly global production rather than excluded from it Building on the work of batik designers and producers the book discusses the emergence of a global craft consciousness Batik producers report on innovative measures taken both individually and collectively to hold their market position while commercial producers frequently annex and mass produce traditional batik design The book concludes with a discussion of marketing and production innovations and tourism which enable the producers of batik to maintain the integrity of their designs whilst harnessing the benefits of new commercial forms

Mighty Scot, The , Scotland's Future History Stuart McHardy, 2015-04-06 McHardy presents a new approach to history changing our mindset to look at Scotland as the centre of our story Rather than starting from the Mediterranean from the classical Christian bias we have been taught for centuries Rather than being a remote dark land populated by barbaric tribes Perhaps we were the centre of a well organised civilisation around the Orkneys and islands and coasts and rivers with our own priorities community centred locally self sufficient well versed in lore of all kinds Who were are we The great centres of ritual in Orkney Lewis and Kilmartin suggest an indigenous population much more sophisticated in terms of social ritual and communal rule than we have been led to believe In whose interest is it that we accept the classical Christian version of history relayed to us by monks These are some of the questions McHardy addresses in a passionate and accessible style Read and become more Alba centric in terms of what we see as important to research study and understand
