Presumed Innoc:

Presumed Innocent Scott Turow, 1986-12-31 Presumed Innocent launched Scott Turow's career as one of the pre eminent legal thriller writers in America and was later adapted to a major feature film starring Harrison Ford This one will keep you up at nights engrossed and charged with adrenaline People The novel tells the story of Rusty Sabich chief deputy prosecutor in a large Midwestern city With three weeks to go in his boss re election campaign a member of Rusty's staff is found murdered he is charged with finding the killer until his boss loses and incredibly Rusty finds himself accused of the murder

Taming the Presumption of Innocence Richard L. Lippke, 2016 Taming the Presumption of Innocence provides a comprehensive account of the presumption of innocence in criminal law and procedure It maintains that the presumption is a vital component of the proof structure of criminal trials

The Right to a Fair Trial in International Law Amal Clooney, Philippa Webb, 2021-02-11 The Right to a Fair Trial in International Law brings together the diverse sources of international law that define the right to a fair trial in the context of criminal as opposed to civil administrative or other proceedings The book provides a comprehensive explanation of what the right to a fair trial means in practice under international law and focuses on factual scenarios that practitioners and judges may face in court Each of the book's fourteen chapters examines a component of the right to a fair trial as defined in Article 14 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and reviews the case law of regional human rights courts international criminal courts as well as UN human rights bodies Highlighting both consensus and divisions in the international jurisprudence in this area this book provides an invaluable resource to practitioners and scholars dealing with breaches of one of the most fundamental human rights

New York Magazine, 1990-08-06 New York Magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Corruption and Environmental Law Ignatius Adegboye, 2010 Dr Adegboye's work is a rich contribution to the discourse on oil resources and the twin problems of corruption and ecological degradation in Nigeria with lessons for other sub Saharan African countries It is indeed a purposeful scientific work on a theme of substantial contemporary interest both practical and theoretical He presents a compelling case on how to dethrone both problems of corruption and environmental degradation and enthrone a lasting sustainable development in the Niger Delta

The International Library of Essays on Capital Punishment, Volume 1 Peter Hodgkinson, 2016-12-05 This volume provides up to date and nuanced analysis across a wide spectrum of capital punishment issues The essays move beyond the conventional legal approach and propose fresh perspectives including a unique critique of the abolition sector Written by a range of leading experts with diverse geographical methodological and conceptual approaches the essays in this volume challenge received wisdom and embrace a holistic understanding of capital punishment based on practical experience and empirical data This collection is indispensable reading for anyone seeking a comprehensive and detailed understanding of the complexity of the death penalty discourse

The Presumption of Innocence Andrew Stumer, 2010-06-14 The presumption of innocence is universally recognized as a fundamental human right and a core principle in the administration of criminal justice Nonetheless statutes creating criminal offences regularly depart from the presumption of innocence by requiring defendants to prove specific matters in order to avoid conviction Legislatures and courts seek to justify this departure by asserting that the reversal of the burden of proof is necessary to meet the community interest in prosecuting serious crime and maintaining workable criminal sanctions This book investigates the supposed justifications for limitation of the presumption of innocence It does so through a comprehensive analysis of the history rationale and scope of the presumption of innocence It is argued that the values underlying the presumption of innocence are of such fundamental importance to individual liberty that they cannot be sacrificed on the altar of community interest In particular it is argued that a test of proportionality which seeks to weigh individual rights against the community interest is inappropriate in the context of the presumption of innocence and that courts ought instead to focus on whether an impugned measure threatens the values which the presumption is designed to protect The book undertakes a complete and systematic review of the United Kingdom and Strasbourg authority on the presumption of innocence It also draws upon extensive references to comparative material both judicial and academic from the United States Canada and South Africa

Peremptory Norms of General International Law (Jus Cogens) and the Prohibition of Terrorism Aniel Caro de Beer, 2019-02-19 Winner of the 2020 ASIL Lieber prize In Peremptory Norms of International Law and Terrorism Jus Cogens and the Prohibition of Terrorism Aniel de Beer analyses the role of these norms jus cogens norms in the fight against terrorism Jus cogens norms protect fundamental values of the international community are hierarchically superior and non derogable The author argues based on an analysis of the sources of international law that the prohibition of terrorism has become the jus cogens norm of our time She further considers the impact of the status of the prohibition of terrorism as a jus cogens norm on other norms of international law relevant in the fight against terrorism namely the prohibition of torture the right to a fair trial and the prohibition of the inter state use of force
