Preventing Self Destruction A Manual For School Crisis Response Teams:

Preventing Self Destruction William Steele,1992-01-01 Handbook of Diversity in Parent Education Marvin J. Fine,Steven W. Lee,2000-10-09 Traditionally books on parent education have focused on techniques from a certain tradition either behavioral or humanistic that could be applied to any problem of parenting or child behavior change These books have used a cook book approach that is frequently oblivious to environmental conditions that influence behavior or take into account the individual differences of the children or families involved This book highlights the complexity of our society and times by exploring the problems faced by diverse types of parents children and parenting situations Moreover the sensitive issues of parenting in unique populations are handled in a caring straight forward way with an emphasis on research based parent education programs along with tips and strategies for everyday use Premier text on parent education in diverse populations Features tips strategies websites and support for parents Based upon cutting edge research in parent education Models for developing problem specific parenting programs Step by step parent education programs for low incidence problems Features violence and crisis prevention and intervention skills for families Adolescent Psychiatry, V. 23 Aaron H. Esman,2013-05-13 Launched in 1971 Adolescent Psychiatry in the words of founding coeditors Sherman C Feinstein Peter L Giovacchini and Arthur A Miller promised to explore adolescence as a process to enter challenging and exciting areas that may have profound effects on our basic concepts Further they promised a series that will provide a forum for the expression of ideas and problems that plague and excite so many of us working in this enigmatic but fascinating field For over two decades Adolescent Psychiatry has fulfilled this promise The repository of a wealth of original studies by preeminent clinicians developmental researchers and social scientists specializing in this stage of life the series has become an essential resource for all mental health practitioners working with youth Volume 23 of The Annals begins with the late Richard Marohn s reexamination of Peter Blos s concept of prolonged adolescence followed by contributions on the developmental roots of adolescent disturbances the role of family interactions in adolescent depression the establishment of a therapeutic alliance with adolescents and the treatment of narcissistically disordered adolescents The assessment and treatment of adolescent substance abuse and of psychosomatic and depressive symptoms in adolescence receive timely consideration In a concluding section on School Based and Preventive Programs contributors address a range of important issues from adolescent sex and AIDS to the provision of mental health services in public and private schools to the need for school based suicide postvention programs In summary volume 23 shows adolescent psychiatry to be as vital as ever building on the clinical wisdom of the past while responding to the urgent challenges of the day Burnout in Families Charles R. Figley,1997-12-29 Sleeplessness depression anxiety these are common symptoms of the burnout that often accompanies living with a loved one who has experienced some kind of traumatic stress It s well known that the loss of a child a life threatening injury sexual assault or combat experience can affect the victim in traumatic ways but what s often overlooked is how this trauma affects those closest to the victim the family Burnout in Families focuses on the emotional vulnerability of families exposed to the chronic or acute stress of one of its members Editor Charles R Figley brings together seven psychologists from around the United States to take a closer look at what's now known as secondary traumatic stress disorder the burnout that occurs when family members care for or just live with other family members who have undergone a traumatic life event The authors provide a comprehensive review of the available literature and offer solutions for treating and preventing family burnout and the marital and family discord that inevitably follows Burnout in Families is an ideal text for university level psychology family therapy and social work courses Living With Grief Kenneth J. Doka, 2014-01-14 First published in 1996 This book was produced as a companion to the Hospice Foundation of America's third annual teleconference The Foundation begun in 1982 is a nonprofit organization dedicated to providing leadership in the development of hospice and its philosophy of care for terminally ill people The Foundation conducts educational programs related to hospice sponsors research on ethical questions as well as the economics of health care at the end of life and serves as a philanthropic presence within the national hospice community Close to 90 percent of hospices in the United States reach beyond their own patients and families to become in a variety of ways a community resource on grief and bereavement That is part of the hospice mission and an important service which the Hospice Foundation of America encourages and tries to support Our annual teleconference is a major part of our effort and it like all of our projects is largely underwritten by contributions from individuals The Hospice Foundation of America is a member of the Combined Federal Campaign through Health Charities of America's The Hospice Foundation of America is a member of the Combined Federal Campaign through Health Charities of America Secondary Trauma Robert W. Motta, 2023-11-20 This book focuses on secondary trauma as distinct from other forms of psychological trauma and PTSD While PTSD has garnered considerable attention in the literature secondary trauma afflicts a far greater number of people Secondary trauma refers to the spread of negative emotional and cognitive states from those who are traumatized to those who have close contact with these individuals While PTSD and other forms of primary trauma can negatively alter one's self perception and result in a fearful distrust of one's environment secondary trauma taxes and drains one emotionally but often does not cause a weary distrust of the environment and negative self view The book delineates how when and where secondary trauma occurs and provides the latest information on treatments it is noted that unlike primary trauma and PTSD which respond to traditional treatments such as cognitive behavioral therapy and exposure therapy secondary traumatization is best addressed with interventions such as targeted social support various exercise interventions mindfulness yoga animal assisted therapy and immersion in natural environments Secondary trauma is a common and commonly ignored stressor whose impact is wide ranging This volume accessibly brings this problem to the fore and is a resource for all of those who deal with silent sufferers and paves the way for further necessary study Sex Without Consent Toby B. Simon, Cathy A. Harris, 1993 Sexual assault in the high school community is now at epidemic proportions This manual provides information as to how educators and trainers can raise awareness about sexual violence and how they can educate boys and girls in high school about this epidemic The guide draws on the Sexual Assault Peer Education SAPE program it is believed that peer educators afford one of the more appropriate ways to inform students The SAPE program outlines every step of the peer process from recruiting students to actual workshops The training program serves two purposes 1 It prepares peer educators for their workshops and 2 It opens dialogue among peers about sexual assault The manual is presented in two parts Part 1 A Peer Education Program presents ways to start and sustain a peer program Included is information on organizational meetings the logical presentation of peer sessions post training workshops and some parting thoughts The second part Activities for Classroom Teachers presents five different activities that teachers can use to heighten students awareness of sexual assault Fifteen appendices provide bibliographic information policy statements sample recruiting and radio ads rape statistics worksheets tips on facilitating meetings and other helpful information RJM School-Based Multisystemic Interventions For Mass Trauma Avigdor Klingman, Esther Cohen, 2004-04-30 Presented into two clear and understandable sections theoretical empirical and intervention programs Both authors have immense experience dealing with disaster and mass trauma both in Israel and in the United States Serves as both a reference tool and as a toolkit that can be used by all important players involved which include mental health personnel teachers and parents School Crisis Intervention , Creating Effective Schools Wilbur B. Brookover, Fritz J. Erickson, Alan W. McEvoy, 1996 American Journal of Health Behavior ,1999 Incest Adele Mayer, 1993 Answering the Cry for Help David A.
