really no one he can't inhabit, understand and forgive. In both novels presented in this collection, Gale explores the complex dynamics of family with dead-on observation and generous compassion. A Sweet Obscurity: Dido, a nine-year-old orphan, lives with her aunt Eliza, who adopted the girl after her mother died. A depressed musicologist unable to balance her brilliant academic career with motherhood, Eliza ruined her marriage with an affair. Her estranged husband, Giles, is an opera singer whose girlfriend, Julia, uncovers a shocking secret while concealing one of her own. As Dido shuttles between Eliza's squalid flat and Giles's elegant townhouse, she acts as both tactful diplomat and insightful analyst to the adults who act like children. Until something happens that powerfully impacts her young life. This is arguably Gale's most questioning, troublesome work. It amuses, startles, and occasionally bewilders. A Sweet Obscurity is worth every minute of your time. The Independent. The Cat Sanctuary. Deborah Curtis's husband, a diplomat in an African principality, was killed by a car bomb, and months later she is still recovering from the assassination. Her estranged sister, Judith, an author who lives with her American lover, Joanna, in Cornwall, insists Deborah come to her farmhouse to grieve in peace. But unresolved wounds between the sisters bleed into the present, and a history of abuse comes to light. Forced to confront painful memories, the women's secrets and lies collide in a shattering climax. A dark tale of loss, sex, and mistrust. A sensitive, thoughtful novel with a conclusion that is both unsettling and consistent. Time Out London.

The Black Path Paul Burston, 2016-09-15. An intense, tightly calibrated thriller. The Huffington Post. A dark tale of love, lies, obsession, and betrayal. The Black Path will appeal to fans of domestic noir and anyone who's ever wondered about the secrets people keep. How well do you really know those closest to you? Helen has been holding out for a hero all her life. Her father was a hero, but he was murdered when she was ten. Her husband is a hero, but he's thousands of miles away, fighting a war people say will never be won. Sometimes Helen wonders if Owen isn't the only one living in a war zone. She feels the violence all around her. She reads about it in the papers. It feeds her dreams and fills her days with a sense of dread. Try as she might, she can't escape the feeling that something terrible is about to happen. Then one night, on the troubled streets of her home town, Helen is rescued from a fight by a woman who will change her life forever. Sin is everything Helen isn't: confident, glamorous, fearless. But there's something else about her, a connection that cements their friendship and makes Helen question everything she's ever known. And when her husband returns home, altered in a way she can't understand, she is forced to draw on an inner strength she never knew she had. As bitter truths are uncovered, Helen must finally face her fears and the one place which has haunted her since childhood. The Black Path. LONGLISTED FOR THE GUARDIAN'S NOT THE BOOKER PRIZE. Union University. Andrew Van Vranken Raymond, 1886. Hell's Heroes. John

Gordon, 2021. At the beginning, we had all been sworn to secrecy; this was never to be spoken about outside of the group. After 35 years, I feel I can now tell my story as it happened. This is the first time I or anyone from the ground has spoken about any of the tasks my unit had to endure. What is written here is based on my personal experiences in the armed forces. Some fact, some fiction. Out of my respect for the men I served with, I have kept names accurate and descriptions true to character. After reading my story it is your choice what you believe A veteran s tale exhilarating heart breaking and loyal to the cause This is part one of my story Human Rights and the Arts in Global Asia Theodore W. Goossen, Anindo Hazra, 2014-10-23 This anthology of literary and dramatic works introduces writers from across Asia and the Asian diaspora The landscapes and time periods it describes are rich and varied a fishing village on the Padma River in Bangladesh in the early twentieth century the slums of prewar Tokyo Indonesia during the anti leftist purge of the 1960s and contemporary Tibet Even more varied are the voices these works bring to life which serve as testimony to the lives of those adversely impacted by poverty rapid social change political suppression and armed conflict In the end the works in this anthology convey an attitude of spiritual and communal survival and even of hope This anthology presents the complex dynamic between a diversity of Asian lives and the universalized concept of the individual human entitled to clearly specified rights It also asks us to think about what standards of analysis we should employ when considering a historical period in which universal human rights and civil liberties are considered secondary to the collective good as has so often been the case when nation states are undergoing revolutionary change waging war or championing so called Asian values This book s use of the term Global Asia reflects an interest in rethinking Asia as more than an area determined by national borders and geography Rather this book portrays it as a space of movement and fluidity where societies and individuals respond not only to their local frames of reference but also to broader ideas and ideals Many of the works anthologized here are the subject of scholarly analysis in the companion volume Human Rights and the Arts Perspectives on Global Asia also published by Lexington Books
