Skepticism in Classical Islam Paul L. Heck, 2013-11-20. The first major treatment of skepticism in Islam, this book explores the critical role of skeptical thinking in the development of theology in Islam. It examines the way key thinkers in classical Islam faced perplexing questions about the nature of God and his relation to the world, all the while walking a fine line between belief in God's message as revealed in the Qur'an and the power of the mind to discover truths on its own. Skepticism in Classical Islam reveals how doubt was actually an integral part of scholarly life at this time. Skepticism is by no means synonymous with atheism. It is rather the admission that one cannot convincingly demonstrate a truth claim with certainty, and Islam's scholars like their counterparts elsewhere acknowledged such impasses only to be inspired to find new ways to resolve the conundrums they faced. Whilst their conundrums were unique, their admission of the limits of knowledge shares much with other scholarly traditions. Seeking to put Islam on the map of the broader study of the history of scepticism, this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Religion, History and Philosophy.

Islam in the Modern World Jeffrey T. Kenney,Ebrahim Moosa,2013-08-15 This comprehensive introduction explores the landscape of contemporary Islam Written by a distinguished team of scholars it provides broad overviews of the developments events people and movements that have defined Islam in the three majority Muslim regions traces the connections between traditional Islamic institutions and concerns and their modern manifestations and transformations How are medieval ideas policies and practices refashioned to address modern circumstances investigates new themes and trends that are shaping the modern Muslim experience such as gender fundamentalism the media and secularisation offers case studies of Muslims and Islam in dynamic interaction with different societies Islam in the Modern World includes illustrations summaries discussion points and suggestions for further reading that will aid understanding and revision Additional resources are provided via a companion website Holy Scriptures in Judaism, Christianity and Islam ,2023-09-20 One of the prime issues that needs to be addressed in dialogical encounter between the three monotheistic faiths of the world is that concerning the authority and interpretation of Holy Writ since Jews Christians and Muslims alike consider their Scriptures to be divine revelation It is incumbent upon each of these religions to apprise itself of the hermeneutical approach employed by the others in ascribing current meaning to ancient scriptural texts This is not only important as a means for the enhancement of inter religious understanding but is also of great interest to society at large What role does the Jewish Bible the Christian Bible and the Qu ran play in the thinking and the lives of contemporary Jews Christians and Muslims How are these Holy Scriptures interpreted in terms of present day circumstances How much room do the three religions allow for bringing their basic messages and biblical theological traditions into rapport with constantly changing social political and economic conditions Is the concept of hermeneutical space acceptable to these religions If so in what sense and at what level Is it possible to identify the scopus of a text and then reconstitute it textually as it were in light of the social and ethical questions thrown up by new contextual developments Can interpretive adjustments be made without jeopardizing the core message of the text involved And do the three monotheistic religions stand open to one another for influence in this regard Has one or another of them taken hermeneutical cues from the others Is there room for mutual learning within the hermeneutical space mentioned above or is this a sacred space closed to all influence from other traditions These are among the central questions raised and dealt with in this interreligious collection of essays perhaps the only dialogical symposium to date to deal exclusively with the doctrine and hermeneutics of Holy Scripture in Judaism Christianity and Islam     Attaining Inner Peace in Islam Zuleyha Keskin,2021-08-20 This book discusses inner peace from an Islamic theological and spiritual perspective the writings of Said Nursi a twentieth century Muslim scholar Inner peace is a topic of great interest in the world at present While happiness and mental health have been extensively discussed from a psychological and sociological perspective and while inner peace has been written about from various religious viewpoints there is very little scholarly work on inner peace from an Islamic theological and spiritual perspective This book addresses this significant gap With Islam being the second largest religion in the world this book provides an important contribution to the literature on a faith tradition which is followed by so many In addressing the intersection between Islam spirituality and psychology this book makes an original contribution to the literature on modern Islamic thinkers like Nursi and to the broader fields of Islamic studies and theology philosophy and well being studies     The Preaching of Islam Thomas Walker Arnold,1896     Holy Scriptures in Judaism, Christianity and Islam H.
