Prominent Canadian rabbi John Moscovitz charts the shifts in his views over the years controversial for some exciting for others on the issues that matter most to Jews today. John Moscovitz spent his early twenties as an anti Vietnam War activist. Eventually dubious about the radical left and alive with love for Israel he entered the rabbinical seminary in search of his own people. This set him on a path to becoming as Senator Linda Frum put it one of Toronto's most cherished and effective rabbis. In this book John Moscovitz charts the shifts in his thinking on the charged matters among the Jews today the viability of peace in the Middle East how we misjudge the nature of evil and once having been exposed to the savannahs of East Africa even the relationship between evolution and the Bible. Part memoir part social history this book is a deep examination of a long personal journey one travelled in public as a prominent rabbi. Along the way it captures what unites and divides an ancient people today. B'chol L'avcha: With All Your Heart Rabbi Harvey J.
