founded an influential student organization known as the Menorah Association in 1906 and later the Menorah Journal which became a leading voice of Jewish public opinion in the 1920s In response to the idea that the American melting pot would erase all cultural differences the Menorah Association advocated a pluralist America that would accommodate a thriving Jewish culture while bringing Jewishness into mainstream American life     Jewish Currents ,1986     The Reform Advocate ,1921     Jewish Autobiographies and Biographies David S.
