Scholars of British America generally conclude that the early eighteenth century Anglo American empire was commercial in economics liberal in politics and parochial in policy somnambulant in an era of salutary neglect but Stephen Saunders Webb here demonstrates that the American provinces under the spur of war became capitalist coercive and aggressive owing to the vigorous leadership of career army officers trained and nominated to American government by the captain general of the allied armies the first duke of Marlborough and that his influence and that of his legates prevailed through the entire century in America Webb's work follows the duke whom an eloquent enemy described as the greatest statesman and the greatest general that this country or any other country has produced his staff and soldiers through the ten campaigns which by defanging France made the union with Scotland possible and made Great Britain preeminent in the Atlantic world Then Webb demonstrates that the duke's legates transformed American colonies into provinces of empire Marlborough's America fifty years in the making is the fourth volume of The Governors General Married Men Exemption Drafting of Fathers United States. Colonel John Pelham William W. Hassler, 2000-11-09 Even before the end of the Civil War Colonel John Pelham had become a legendary figure of the Confederacy General Lee called him the gallant Pelham and on seeing the young artilleryman employ but a single gun to hold up the advance of three Union divisions and over a hundred guns at Fredericksburg he exclaimed It is glorious to see such courage in one so young Stonewall Jackson who relied implicitly on Pelham in tight situations said It is really extraordinary to find such nerve and genius in a mere boy With a Pelham on each flank I believe I could whip the world Jeb Stuart the dashing cavalry chief claimed that John Pelham exhibited a skill and courage which I have never seen surpassed I loved him as a brother Major John Esten Cooke a fellow officer and tent mate wrote He is the bravest human being I ever saw in my life And one of Pelham's veteran gunners asserted We knew him we trusted him we would have followed him anywhere and did Shortly after the outbreak of hostilities in the spring of 1861 Cadet Pelham slipped away from West Point to join the Confederacy Following the fierce Battle of First Manassas in which he fought side by side with Stonewall Jackson Pelham was assigned to Jeb Stuart's command with orders to organize the Stuart Horse Artillery This mounted unit dashing from action to action on the battlefield provided General Lee's army with invaluable mobile firepower which saved many desperate situations In over sixty battles Pelham's blazing guns saw furious action against Union infantry cavalry artillery gunboats and even locomotives Although he fought against tremendous odds Pelham never lost an artillery duel or a single gun Colonel Pelham was an outstanding figure on the battlefield and off The modest
