Race And Ethnicity Comparative And Theoretical Approaches:

Race and Ethnicity Warren I. Cohen, 2003-03-07 This course reader collects the essential texts necessary for a comparative and theoretically informed approach to the study of race and ethnicity The introduction gives an account of race and ethnicity in contemporary society Racism and Ethnicity Ian Law, 2013-09-05 Racism and Ethnicity Global Debates Dilemmas Directions examines in detail the theories histories and principal debates of race racism and ethnicity within a global context The text offers critical evaluation of the work of major figures from Du Bois to Goldberg and presents new research on pre modern racisms contemporary scientific racisms racist violence racism reduction ethnicity in the UK and European patterns of exclusion and discrimination Richly illustrated throughout with examples and case studies drawn from across the world and time the book also offers a range of in text features to aid study including chapter summaries key concept boxes chapter activities and further reading Racism and Ethnicity Global Debates Dilemmas Directions will be core reading for students at all levels across the social sciences and the humanities ranging from history and cultural studies through sociology to political and policy analysis It will also be of significant interest to researchers and policy makers in a range of fields The Routledge Companion to Race and Ethnicity Stephen M. Caliendo, Charlton D.

McIlwain, 2020-10-27 The second edition of The Routledge Companion to Race and Ethnicity offers readers a broad overview of scholarly exploration of the ways that humans have organized themselves and have been organized according to racial and ethnic divisions More than 80 scholars from around the world and representing multiple academic traditions contribute entries to this accessible yet sophisticated volume that addresses contemporary issues in historical context The first half of the book challenges readers to grapple with some of the most controversial aspects of categorization prejudice and discrimination through focused chapters ranging from the notion of Whiteness to the supposed biological rationale for racial categorization The second half is comprised of 70 shorter entries on specialized concepts persons and groups that are crucial to understanding these issues Taken as a whole this volume provides a broad multi disciplinary and global overview of issues that continue to provide challenges to notions of equality and justice An Introduction to the Sociology of Religion Inger Furseth, Pål Repstad, 2017-03-02 Is it true that religion is weakening in modern times or are we facing religious resurgence What is fundamentalism How does it emerge and grow What role does religion play in ethnic and national conflicts Is religion a fundamental driving force or do political leaders use religion for their own purposes Do all religions oppress women These are some of the questions addressed in this book An Introduction to the Sociology of Religion provides an overview of sociological theories of contemporary religious life Some chapters are organized according to topic Others offer brief presentations of classical and contemporary sociologists from Karl Marx to Zygmunt Bauman and their perspectives on social life including religion Throughout the book illustrations and examples are taken from several religious traditions Jesus and Identity Markus Cromhout, 2007-05-15 New Testament scholarship lacks an overall interpretive framework to understand Judean identity This lack of interpretive framework is quite acute in scholarship on the historical Jesus where the issue of Judeanness Jewishness is most strongly debated A socio cultural model of Judean ethnicity is developed being a synthesis of 1 Sanders notion of covenantal nomism 2 Berger and Luckmann s theories on the sociology of knowledge 3 Dunn s four pillars of Second Temple Judaism and his new perspective on Paul 4 cultural or social anthropology in the form of modern ethnicity theory and lastly 5 Duling s Socio Cultural Model of Ethnicity The proposed model is termed Covenantal Nomism It is a pictorial representation of the Judean symbolic universe which as an ethnic identity is proposed to be essentially primordialist The model is given appropriate content by investigating what would have been typical of first century Judean ethnic identity It is also argued that there existed a fundamental continuity between Judea and Galilee as Galileans were ethnic Judeans themselves and they lived on the ancestral land of Israel Attention is lastly focused on the matter of ethnic identity in Q The Q people were given an eschatological Judean identity based on their commitment to Jesus and the requirements of the kingdom reign of God K C edited this down for the back cover Leave the longer synopsis for the website

Walking in Their Sandals Markus Cromhout, 2010-06-01 This volume invites readers to walk in Israelite sandals that is to take a journey of the imagination and to immerse themselves in the identity values and institutions of first century CE Israelites with the help of contemporary social scientific studies and theories What emerges is that the Israelites did not practice a religion Rather they were an ethnos or as this book describes it an ethnic identity who lived out a particular way of life and culture the customs of the fathers It is to belong to a people who obtained their collective identity honor and sense of worth from their socialization and membership in Israel and from the social convention of loyalty to their rich cultural tradition It was to belong to a world or having a perspective on the world with its own quality of knowledge which among other things preferred collectivism over individualism and orthopraxy over orthodoxy

Race Decoded Catherine Bliss, 2012-05-23 In 2000 with the success of the Human Genome Project scientists declared the death of race in biology and medicine But within five years many of these same scientists had reversed course and embarked upon a new hunt for the biological meaning of race Drawing on personal interviews and life stories Race Decoded takes us into the world of elite genome scientists including Francis Collins director of the NIH Craig Venter the first person to create a synthetic genome and Spencer Wells National Geographic Society explorer in residence among others to show how and why they are formulating new ways of thinking about race In this original exploration Catherine Bliss reveals a paradigm shift both at the level of science and society from colorblindness to racial consciousness Scientists have been fighting older understandings of race in biology while simultaneously promoting a new grand scale program of minority inclusion In selecting research topics or considering research design scientists routinely draw upon personal experience of race to push the public to think about race as a biosocial entity and even those of the most privileged racial and social backgrounds incorporate identity politics in the scientific process Though individual scientists may view their positions differently whether as a black civil rights activist

or a white bench scientist all stakeholders in the scientific debates are drawing on memories of racial discrimination to fashion a science based activism to fight for social justice Ethnic and Racial Minorities in Asia Michelle Ann Miller, 2014-02-25 Ethnic and Racial Minorities in Asia explores the relationship between ethnic minority rights and citizenship in Asia Occupying a prominent place on the global map of conflict Asia is one of the most ethnically diverse and racially divided regions in the world It is also the scene of some of the most contrasting state responses to ethnic and racial conflicts ranging from violent military repression and coercion on the one hand to offers of autonomy and other forms of self rule aimed at granting minorities more equal and inclusive citizenship on the other This volume combines conceptual debates about citizenship with case studies of ethnic minorities from across the Asian region with a particular emphasis on Southeast Asia The contributing authors question the nature of citizenship in the broader sense of identity belonging and the rights and responsibilities of ethnic minorities in relation to sovereign nation states They examine a wide range of key issues including minority rights claims ethnic and racial conflict citizenship constructions and representations of identity post colonialism and human security This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies The Bright Nights and Drumbeats from Mama Africa fatha John Patrick Kamau, 2014-10-29 For years war and at times preventable scenarios have taken life maimed others crippled yet others mentally physically and intellectually if not spiritually The T4 program PTSD and all worldwide For the authors generation The 1970 s brought in cholera the 1980 s brought in the AIDs HIV scare and then the unholy beverages not without pioneering conspiracy theories to back them up Mayan illuminati conspiracies Georgia guide stones and all types of fantasy Would there be any survivors The 20th century was dominated by ethnic race political and religious struggles and conflicts the 21st century has vastly inherited the problem with a huge shift in attitude and preference but in all this what is the future for Persons with Disabilities in a world of alternative lifestyles eugenics euthanasia acclaimed United Nations human rights and conventions sequel to The Bright Dark Nights Of The Soul book 2013 script the author a recipient of the Pro Ecclesia gold medal award from the late Saint Pope John Paul II avails for posterity diaries and points for reflections on cultural and humanitarian perspectives impacting on aspects of existential crisis search for meaning and purpose for persons with Disabilities deeper into the 21st century With contributions and insights from Corporate social responsibility initiatives scholars clergy custodians of persons with disabilities persons who lived in the 19th and 20th century in Africa Some who served in the American Peace Corps in 1960 s Africa encounters with so called natives and savages War Veterans and members of the armed forces multicultural religious and missionary icons contemporary peace and outreach initiatives from international religious secular and political leaders Towards this end a case study paper in the United States on a Disabilities outreach project in Africa is availed in Six language translations French Spanish Portuguese English and the Luo and kikuyu African Languages to hopefully stimulate further multicultural reflections and action in the diaspora communities towards persons with disabilities New Horizons in Multicultural Counseling Gerald

Mason, Troy

W. Martin, 2014-03-31 An essential textbook on 1 Peter and 2 Peter for readers of all levels. Scholars engage the best contemporary work on 1 Peter and 2 Peter in this student-oriented book. The first four chapters in this collection on authorship and pseudonymity, literary relationships among the three books, epistolary rhetoric, and apocalyptic elements consider important foundational issues related to all three epistles. These essays lay the groundwork for more focused chapters that examine theology and theory in 1 Peter as well as a stylistic, theological, and thematic overlap in Jude and 2 Peter. Features: A range of theological, literary, and theoretical approaches; Definitions for specialized terminology; Historical and cultural background information; Explanations of methodologies.

Becoming Christian David G. Horrell, 2013-07-04 The first letter of Peter remains a relatively neglected corner of the New Testament; the number of monographs devoted to it is tiny compared with those on the Gospels and Pauline letters. Yet it is a text so this book argues that offers much insight into crucial processes in the development of Christian identity. In particular, 1 Peter illustrates with particular clarity the complex ways in which Christian identity was forged from Jewish traditions and negotiated in the generally hostile Roman empire. As such, studies of this particular letter illuminate central themes in the making of Christianity in the earliest centuries. Becoming Christian is a collection of essays that treat various facets of the first letter of Peter in its social and historical setting, in some cases using new social scientific and postcolonial methods to shed light on the ways in which the letter contributes to the making of Christian identity. At the heart of the book are chapters 5-7 which examine the contribution of 1 Peter to the construction of Christian identity, the persecution and suffering of Christians in Asia Minor, the significance of the name Christian, and the response of the letter to the hostility encountered by Christians in society. There are no recent books which bring together such a wealth of information and analysis of this crucial early Christian text. Becoming Christian has developed out of Horrell's ongoing research for the International Critical Commentary on 1 Peter. Together, these essays will offer a series of significant and original engagements with this letter and a resource for studies of 1 Peter for some time to come.
