Race For Timbuktu In Search Of Africa's City Of Gold:

The Race for Timbuktu Frank T. Kryza, 2006-12-26 In the first decades of the nineteenth century no place burned more brightly in the imagination of European geographers and fortune hunters than the lost city of Timbuktu Africa's legendary City of Gold not visited by Europeans since the Middle Ages held the promise of wealth and fame for the first explorer to make it there In 1824 the French Geographical Society offered a cash prize to the first expedition from any nation to visit Timbuktu and return to tell the tale One of the contenders was Major Alexander Gordon Laing a thirty year old army officer Handsome and confident Laing was convinced that Timbuktu was his destiny and his ticket to glory In July 1825 after a whirlwind romance with Emma Warrington daughter of the British consul at Tripoli Laing left the Mediterranean coast to cross the Sahara His 2 000 mile journey took on an added urgency when Hugh Clapperton a more experienced explorer set out to beat him Apprised of each other's mission by overseers in London who hoped the two would cooperate Clapperton instead became Laing's rival spurring him on across a hostile wilderness An emotionally charged action packed utterly gripping read The Race for Timbuktu offers a close personal look at the extraordinary people and pivotal events of nineteenth century African exploration that changed the course of history and the shape of the modern world The Readers' Advisory Guide to Nonfiction Neal Wyatt, 2007-05-14 Navigating what at she calls the extravagantly rich world of nonfiction renowned readers advisor RA Wyatt builds readers advisory bridges from fiction to compelling and increasingly popular nonfiction to encompass the library's entire collection She focuses on eight popular categories history true crime true adventure science memoir food cooking travel and sports Within each she explains the scope popularity style major authors and works and the subject's position in readers advisory interviews Wyatt addresses who is reading nonfiction and why while providing RAs with the tools and language to incorporate nonfiction into discussions that point readers to what to read next In easy to follow steps Wyatt Explains the hows and whys of offering fiction and nonfiction suggestions together Illustrates ways to get up to speed fast in nonfiction Shows how to lead readers to a variety of books using her read around and reading map strategies Provides tools to build nonfiction subject guides for the collection This hands on guide includes nonfiction bibliography key authors benchmark books with annotations and core collections It is destined to become the nonfiction bible for readers advisory and collection development helping librarians library workers and patrons select great reading from the entire library collection Timbuktu Marq De Villiers, Sheila Hirtle, 2012-11-13 The first book for general readers about the storied past of one of the world's most fabled cities Timbuktu the name still evokes an exotic faraway place even though the city's glory days are long gone Unspooling its history and legends resolving myth with reality Marq de Villiers and Sheila Hirtle have captured the splendour and decay of one of humankind's treasures Founded in the early 1100s by Tuareg nomads who called their camp Tin Buktu it became within two centuries a wealthy metropolis and a nexus of the trans Saharan trade Salt from the deep Sahara gold from Ghana and money from slave markets made it rich In part because of its wealth Timbuktu also became a centre of Islamic learning and religion boasting impressive schools and libraries that attracted scholars from Alexandria Baghdad Mecca and Marrakech The arts flourished and Timbuktu gained near mythic stature around the world capturing the imagination of outsiders and ultimately attracting the attention of hostile sovereigns who sacked the city three times and plundered it half a dozen more The ancient city was invaded by a Moroccan army in 1600 beginning its long decline since then it has been seized by Tuareg nomads and a variety of jihadists in addition to enduring a terrible earthquake several epidemics and numerous famines Perhaps no other city in the world has been as golden and as deeply tarnished as Timbuktu Using sources dating deep into Timbuktu's fabled past alongside interviews with Tuareg nomads and city residents and officials today de Villiers and Hirtle have produced a spectacular portrait that brings the city back to life

Timbuktu Unbound Rachel Ama Asaa Engmann, 2023 Timbuktu Unbound Islamic Texts Textual Traditions and Heritage in West Africa is a cutting edge collection offering a reconsideration of manuscripts in Muslim West Africa The contributors give voice to the dynamic ways in which textuality operates through technological innovations ongoing habituated practices and how the workings of power and authority within these communities inform these texts and their roles To that end this book explores a number of interrelated themes the social value of texts as objects personal libraries as forms of investment legacy social practices involved in the exchange movement and gifting of certain kinds of manuscripts hierarchies and evaluative treatments of manuscripts and quasi market forces The recent destruction and subsequent salvage operations to protect the Timbuktu manuscript libraries has highlighted their role as the quintessential exemplar of manuscript heritage in newly historicized Africa Yet these events also underscore the prevalent narrative about Muslim West African cultural heritage embodied in the form of manuscripts archives and documents as under dramatic and existential threat This volume seeks to diverge from this dominant salvific starting point of heritage discourse namely that such objects are things of intrinsic value to be saved in order to examine the more nuanced activities of diverse actors engaged in the study preservation acquisition movement and in some cases destruction and disposal of the wide range of materials that constitutes the textual heritage of these societies Rachel Ama Asaa Engmann is an Associate Professor at the Africa Institute Sharjah United Arab Emirates

Black Africans in the British Imagination Cassander L. Smith,2016-12-14 As Spain and England vied for dominance of the Atlantic world during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries mounting political and religious tensions between the two empires raised a troubling specter for contemporary British writers attempting to justify early English imperial efforts Specifically these writers focused on encounters with black Africans throughout the Atlantic world attempting to use these points of contact to articulate and defend England's global ambitions In Black Africans in the British Imagination Cassander L. Smith investigates how the physical presence of black Africans both enabled and disrupted English literary responses to Spanish imperialism By examining the extent to which this population helped to shape early English narratives from political pamphlets to travelogues Smith offers new perspectives on the literary social and political impact of black Africans in the early Atlantic world With detailed analysis of the earliest English language accounts from the Atlantic world including writings by Sir Francis Drake Sir Walter Raleigh and Richard Ligon Smith approaches contact narratives from the perspective of black Africans recovering figures often relegated to the margins This interdisciplinary study explores understandings of race and cross cultural interaction and revises notions of whiteness blackness and indigeneity Smith reveals the extent to which contact with black Africans impeded English efforts to stigmatize the Spanish empire as villainous and to malign Spain s administration of its colonies In addition her study illustrates how black presences influenced the narrative choices of European and later Euro American writers providing a more nuanced understanding of black Africans role in contemporary literary productions of the region

Babel Unbound Lesley Cowling, Carolyn Hamilton, 2020-05-01 In this timely original and sophisticated collection writers from the Global South demonstrate that forms of publicness are multiple mobile and varied The notion that societies mediate issues through certain kinds of engagement is at the heart of imaginings of democracy and often centers on the ideal of the public sphere But this imagined foundation of how we live collectively appears to have suffered a dramatic collapse across the world with many democracies apparently unable to solve problems through talk or even to agree on who speaks in what ways and where In the 10 essays in this timely original and sophisticated collection writers from southern Africa combine theoretical analysis with the examination of historical cases and contemporary developments to demonstrate that forms of publicness are multiple mobile and varied They propose new concepts and methodologies to analyse how public engagements work in society Babel Unbound examines charged examples from the Global South such as the centuries old Timbuktu archive Nelson Mandela as a powerful absent presence in 1960s public life and the challenges to the terms of contemporary debate around the student activism of rhodesmustfall and feesmustfall These show how issues of public discussion span both archive and media verbal debates in formal spaces and visual performances that circulate in unpredictable ways

My Brother, My Enemy Philip Smucker, 2010-09-09 In this kaleidoscopic tour behind the front lines of the war of ideas a veteran investigative journalist examines U S efforts to fight terrorism build nation states and persuade Muslims that Americans to respect their rights and interests

The Black Woods Amy Godine, 2023-11-15 Winner of the Charles A Weyerhaeuser Forest History Society Book Award The Black Woods chronicles the history of Black pioneers in New York s northern wilderness From the late 1840s to the 1860s they migrated to the Adirondacks to build the farms that helped them meet a 250 property requirement imposed on Black New York voters in 1821 Abolitionist Gerrit Smith gifted 120 000 acres to 3 000 landless Black New Yorkers with the support of Frederick Douglass John Brown and other abolitionists His prescient plan enacted affirmative action and distributive justice But when most of his grantees did not move north Smith s interest cooled He would not visit Timbuctoo Freeman s Home or Blacksville The settlers were on their own In The Black Woods Godine revives this history with stirring stories of frontier life and racial justice She puts the vote seeking Black pioneers at the heart of the Adirondack narrative At long last their shaping role has been reclaimed

Trans-Saharan Trade Routes Matt Lang,2017-07-15 Between the sixth and sixteenth centuries trade flourished between sub Saharan Africa and Arab cultures Traders exchanged gold slaves cloth and salt along the trans Saharan routes This trade was directly responsible for seismic shifts in African economies and the foundation of new empires This book explores how this complex trade network shaped the history of Africa the Middle East and Europe

The Politics of Heritage Management in Mali Charlotte L Joy,2016-06-16 The UNESCO World Heritage Site of Djenn in modern day Mali is exalted as an enduring wonder of the ancient African world by archaeologists anthropologists state officials architects and travel writers In this revealing study the author critically examines how the politics of heritage management conservation and authenticity play essential roles in the construction of Djenn's past and its appropriation for contemporary purposes. Despite its great renown, the majority of local residents remain desperately poor. And while most are proud of their cultural heritage, they are often troubled by the limitations it places on their day-to-day living conditions. Joy argues for a more critical understanding of this paradox and urges us all to reconsider the moral and philosophical questions surrounding the ways in which we use the past in the present.
