No Road Leading Back Chris Heath, 2024-09-03 This by turns shattering and hope giving account of prisoners who dug their way to freedom from the Nazis is both a stunning escape narrative and an object lesson in the ways we remember and continually forget the particulars of the Holocaust No Road Leading Back is the remarkable story of a dozen prisoners who escaped from the site where more than 70 000 Jews were shot in the Lithuanian forest of Ponar after the Nazi invasion of Eastern Europe in 1941 Anxious to hide the incriminating evidence of the murders the S S later in the war enslaved a group of Jews to exhume every one of the bodies and incinerate them all in a months long labor an episode whose specifics are staggering and disturbing even within the context of the Holocaust From within that dire circumstance emerges the improbable escape made by some of the men who dug a tunnel with bare hands and spoons while they were trapped and guarded day and night an act not just of bravery and desperation but of awesome imagination Based on first person accounts of the escapees and on each scrap of evidence that has been documented repressed or amplified since this book resurrects their lives while also providing a complex urgent analysis of why their story has rarely been told and never accurately Heath explores the cultural use and misuse of Holocaust testimony and the need for us to face it and all uncomfortable historical truths with honesty and accuracy

The Palgrave Handbook of Holocaust Literature and Culture Victoria Aarons, Phyllis Lassner, 2020-01-24 The Palgrave Handbook of Holocaust Literature and Culture reflects current approaches to Holocaust literature that open up future thinking on Holocaust representation The chapters consider diverse generational perspectives survivor writing second and third generation and genres memoirs poetry novels graphic narratives films video testimonies and other forms of literary and cultural expression In turn these perspectives create interactions among generations genres temporalities and cultural contexts The volume also participates in the ongoing project of responding to and talking through moments of rupture and incompleteness that represent an opportunity to contribute to the making of meaning through the continuation of narratives of the past As such the chapters in this volume pose options for reading Holocaust texts offering openings for further discussion and exploration The inquiring body of interpretive scholarship responding to the Shoah becomes itself a story a narrative that materially extends our inquiry into that history

Conversations with Families of Children with Disabilities Victoria I. Puig, Susan L. Recchia, 2020-06-03 Conversations with Families of Children with Disabilities creates a space for diverse families of children with disabilities to share their stories with pre service and in service teachers Specifically designed for professionals preparing to work with families of children with disabilities this text invites the reader to listen in as families reflect on their personal journeys in conversation with the authors This powerful book helps educators develop a deeper understanding of families and enhance their capacity for authentic partnerships

Parenting Representations Ofra Mayseless, 2006-04-10 The study of parents from their own perspective not just as socializing agents of their children has been long neglected This book summarizes and presents the new and surging literature on parenting representations namely parents views emotions and internal world regarding their parenting Within this area several prominent researchers typically coming from the attachment tradition suggested various ways of assessing parenting representations mostly by way of semi structured interviews This book presents their conceptualizations and includes detailed descriptions of their interviews and their coding schemes In addition a review and summary of the growing number of findings in this domain and an integrated conceptualization that serves a theoretical base for future research are presented Finally the clinical implications of the study of parenting representations are discussed at large Clinical notions and conceptualizations regarding parenting representations are presented and thoroughly discussed including detailed case studies that demonstrate among other things intergenerational transmission of representations

Empowerment Erica Abrams Locklear,2011-11-19 In many parts of Appalachia family ties run deep constituting an important part of an individual s sense of self In some cases when Appalachian learners seek new forms of knowledge those family ties can be challenged by the accusation that they have gotten above their raisings a charge that can have a lasting impact on family and community acceptance Those who advocate literacy sometimes ignore an important fact although empowering newly acquired literacies can create identity conflicts for learners especially Appalachian women In Negotiating a Perilous Empowerment Erica Abrams Locklear explores these literacy initiated conflicts analyzing how authors from the region portray them in their fiction and creative nonfiction Abrams Locklear blends literacy studies with literary criticism to analyze the central female characters in the works of Harriette Simpson Arnow Linda Scott DeRosier Denise Giardina and Lee Smith She shows how these authors deftly overturn stereotypes of an illiterate Appalachia by creating highly literate characters women who not only cherish the power of words but also push the boundaries of what literacy means Negotiating a Perilous Empowerment includes in depth interviews with Linda Scott DeRosier and Lee Smith making this an insightful study of an important literary genre

The Designer People Gail Daley, 1900 Even with the help of the best private eye on Vensoog these are difficult cases for a rookie cop Lucinda was a designer child Given genius level intelligence in an embryonic Thieves Guild lab she learned survival in a harsh world At twelve she was rescued and adopted into a loving family As an adult Lucinda chose to fight her former masters by joining the police force She works hard to earn her place among Vensoog s law enforcement community On her first assignment compassion impelled her to protect an alien mother and daughter fleeing off planet bounty hunters To ensure their safety she must defeat a deadly Soturi warrior in hand to hand combat Then she rescues a designer child who is a younger double for herself from a sex trafficking ring To solve this case and rescue the other children trapped by those same criminals she must capture a vicious Thieves Guild assassin

Ethnic Subjectivity in Intergenerational Memory Narratives Mónica Fodor, 2019-11-05 In this interdisciplinary study M nika Fodor explores how intergenerational memory narratives embedded in the speaker s own stories impact ethnic subjectivity construction Working with thematically selected life experiences from interviews conducted with second and late generation European Americans Fodor demonstrates how the storytellers position themselves in a range of social cultural and political discourses to claim or disclaim ethnicity as part of their subjectivity Tying narrative content structural and performance analysis to the sociological and sociolinguistic concepts of symbolic capital and investment Fodor unpacks the changing levels of identifying with one s ancestral ethnic heritage and its potential to carry meaning for late generation descendants In doing so she reveals the shared features of identification among individuals through narrative meaning making which may be the basis of real or imagined heterolocal discourse community formation and sustained ethnic subjectivity The narrative analysis demonstrates how the cohesive force among members of the community is the shared knowledge of story frames and the personalized retelling of these Ethnic Subjectivity in Intergenerational Memory Narratives draws on inherited often moving personal experiences that offers new insights into the so far largely unexplored terrain of the narrative structure of intergenerationally transferred memory retellings that will be of great interest to students and scholars of ethnic studies migration and identity studies

The Truth Shall Be Revealed Evon Davison, 2014-07-22 The Truth Shall Be Revealed is the continuing saga of criminal life on the streets of Seattle Washington Twists and turns abound as greed and manipulation take a front seat to the true meaning of life love and friendship The desire to rule the seedy underworld will uncover secrets lies and unbridled passions souls will be sacrificed to expose the holes in the ethical backbone of truth and justice Lives will transform and unfold on the pathway to unlawful street supremacy love will be lost and friendships will be questioned before the truth is revealed
