Racial and Ethnic Diversity in Higher Education Caroline Sotello Viernes Turner, 1996 The Crisis of Race in Higher Education William F. Tate IV, Nancy Staudt, Ashley Macrander, 2016-12-22 The compendium of writings in this edited volume sheds light on the event Race Ethnicity A Day of Discovery and Dialogue at Washington University in St Louis and the work current students faculty and staff are doing to improve inclusivity on campus and in St Louis Compelling Interest Mitchell J. Chang, Daria Witt, James Jones, Kenji Hakuta, 2003-03-12 In recent years American colleges and universities have become the locus of impassioned debates about race conscious social policies as conflicting theories clash over the ways to distribute the advantages of higher education in a fair and just manner Just below the surface of these policy debates lies a complex tangle of ideologies histories grievances and emotions that interfere with a rational analysis of the issues involved As never before the need for empirical research on the significance of race in American society seems essential to solving the manifest problems of this highly politicized and emotionally charged aspect of American higher education The research evidence presented in this book has a direct relevance to those court cases that challenge race conscious admission policies of colleges and universities Though many questions still need to be addressed by future research the empirical data collected to date makes it clear that affirmative action policies do work and are still very much needed in American higher education This book also provides a framework for examining the evidence pertaining to issues of fairness merit and the benefits of diversity in an effort to assist courts and the public in organizing beliefs about race and opportunity Racial and Ethnic Diversity in Higher Education Shaun R. Harper, Ryan J. Davis, Sylvia Hurtado, 2010-10 Fifty Four readings in this 3rd edition collectively show how race has influenced and continues to affect all aspects of American higher education This volume offers a comprehensive selection of seminal and contemporary publications that are situated across various postsecondary contexts. It is organized around six focal areas of study in the field of higher education: 1 History, 2 Students, 3 Faculty, 4 Curriculum Teaching and Learning, 5 Organizations Leadership and Governance, and 6 Policy Finance and Economics. Also included is a seventh section devoted entirely to critical race perspectives on higher education.

What Makes Racial Diversity Work in Higher Education Frank W. Hale, 2023-07-03. A unique reference describing successful diversity initiatives in higher education. Higher education like the nation is facing major demographic changes. Our colleges and universities recognize they not only have to be more inclusive but that they have to provide an environment that will effectively retain and develop the growing population of ethnically and racially diverse students. How ready are they and what should they be doing? Frank W. Hale Jr., known as the Dean of Diversity for his pioneering efforts in establishing Ohio State as one of the institutions graduating the most Black Ph.D.s, has gathered twenty-two leading scholars and administrators from around the country who describe the successful diversity programs they have developed. Recognizing the importance of diversity as a means of embracing the experiences, perspectives, and expertise of other cultures, this book shares what has been most effective in helping institutions to create an atmosphere and a campus culture that not only admits students, faculty, and staff of color but accepts and welcomes their presence and participation. This is a landmark reference for every institution concerned with inclusivity and diversity. The successes it presents offer academic leaders much they can learn from and ideas and procedures they can adapt as they discuss and develop their own campus policies and initiatives.

The Racial Crisis in American Higher Education William A. Smith, Philip G. Altbach, Kofi Lomotey, 2012-02-01. Why is it that as we enter the twenty-first century the nation's predominantly white colleges and universities continue to be settings where people of color feel unwelcome and marginalized? The contributors to this volume dissect a variety of structural and attitudinal factors that are prevalent in the higher education community: organizational constructs and value orientations which seem to hark more to the past than to the future. They comment on the political, social, and economic factors that have shaped academic culture and buttressed its quietly efficient maintenance of racially discriminatory practices. The American system of higher education is often regarded as the best in the world. Smith, Altbach, and Lomotey have edited a volume that implicitly asks how much better still it could be if it embraced people of color and provided them with a supportive and nurturing environment, one which encouraged them to reach their fullest creative and intellectual potential. Indeed, this will probably be the most significant challenge that the academy faces in the twenty-first century.
