Northern Ireland and the crisis of anti-racism Chris Gilligan, 2018-09-25 Racism and sectarianism makes an important contribution to the discussion on the crisis of anti racism in the United Kingdom The book looks at two phenomena that are rarely examined together racism and sectarianism The author argues that thinking critically about sectarianism and other racisms in Northern Ireland helps to clear up some confusions regarding race and ethnicity Many of the prominent themes in debates on racism and anti racism in the UK today the role of religion racism and terrorism community cohesion were central to discussions on sectarianism in Northern Ireland during the conflict and peace process The book provides a sustained critique of the Race Relations paradigm that dominates official anti racism and sketches out some elements of an emancipatory anti racism

Against the Odds Benjamin P. Bowser, Louis Kushnick, Paul Grant, 2004-01-01 Scholarly writing on racism is collected here with contributions from W E B Du Bois John Hope John Glover John Henrik Kenneth B Clarke and others

Forensic Psychiatry, Race and Culture Dr Suman Fernando, Suman Fernando, David Ndegwa, Melba Wilson, 2005-08-08 Forensic psychiatry is the discipline which distinguishes the mad from the bad but are its values inherently racist Why are individuals from non Western backgrounds over represented statistically in those diagnosed with schizophrenia and other serious illnesses The authors argue that the values on which psychiatry is based are firmly rooted in ethnocentric Western culture with profound implications for individual diagnosis and systems of care Through detailed exploration of the history of psychiatry current clinical issues and present public policy this powerful book traces the growth of a system in which non conformity to the prevailing cultural norms risks alienation and diagnosis of mental disorder

Multiracism Alastair Bonnett, 2021-11-25 Racism is a world problem From Morocco to China Brazil to Indonesia racism is being debated and contested Multiracism broadens the horizon on this global challenge showing that racism has a diverse history with multiple roots and routes Drawing on examples of racism from across the globe with particular focus on cases from Asia and Africa Alastair Bonnett rethinks the origins of racism and the connections between racism and modernity Arguing that plural modernities are interwoven with plural racisms he explores the relationship of racism to history religion politics and nationalism as well as to anti Black prejudice and discourses of whiteness Empirically rich with numerous in depth case studies Multiracism equips readers to understand racism in a multipolar world where power is no longer the sole possession of the West It provides and provokes a new international and post Western vision of racism for the twenty first century

Reshaping the University Rauna Kuokkanen, 2011-11-01 In the past few decades the narrow intellectual foundations of the university have come under serious scrutiny Previously marginalized groups have called for improved access to the institution and full inclusion in the curriculum Reshaping the University is a timely thorough and original interrogation of academic practices It moves beyond current analyses of cultural conflicts and discrimination in academic institutions to provide an indigenous postcolonial critique of the modern university Rauna Kuokkanen argues that attempts by universities to be inclusive are unsuccessful because they do not embrace indigenous worldviews Programs established to act as bridges between mainstream and indigenous cultures ignore their ontological and epistemic differences and while offering support and assistance place the responsibility of adapting wholly on the student Indigenous students and staff are expected to leave behind their cultural perspectives and epistemes in order to adopt Western values Reshaping the University advocates a radical shift in the approach to cultural conflicts within the academy and proposes a new logic grounded in principles central to indigenous philosophies
