Racism Essential Readings:

Racism Ellis Cashmore, Ernest Cashmore, James Jennings, 2001 Chronological anthology of 38 essays that demonstrate the long and complex intellectual history of racism as an idea and show how powerful groups have utilized racism to advance social economic or cultural interests Race and Racialization Tania Das Gupta, 2007 This provocative volume will influence the way people think of race and racialization It provides a thorough examination of these complex and intriguing subjects with historical comparative and international contributions Edited as a theoretically strong cohesive whole this book unites a remarkable ensemble of academic thinkers and writers from a diversity of backgrounds Themes of ethnocentrism cultural genocide conquest and colonization disease and pandemics slavery and the social construction of racism run throughout Racist Victimization Georgios Antonopoulos, 2016-04-08 This book investigates the phenomenon of racist victimization in a number of countries uncovering and analyzing its historical roots its relation to the legal system in a particular national context its extent and the response to it Through the international comparative approach adopted and the broad geographical range of studies presented including national settings which have so far been largely ignored by the literature on racist victimization the volume offers a truly international perspective on an important social political and academic issue As such Racist Victimization International Reflections and Perspectives will constitute essential reading not only for sociologists and socio legal scholars but for anyone working in the field of race and ethnicity crime and justice criminology victimology or policing Essential Readings in Management Learning Christopher Grey, Elena P.

Antonacopoulou, 2004-10-18 This collection provides readings grouped under six key headings organizational learning and learning organizations individual learning learning and new technology critical approaches to management education pedagogical practice and globalization and management learning Race and Society Tina Patel, 2016-11-26 Race and Society is a thoughtful and critically engaging exploration of some of the key issues around race and racialisation which have arisen in what is considered to be a highly diverse and complex society With a progressive approach emphasising the social construction of race issues within a post racial era moving away from essentialist and polarized explanations of raced interaction Tina Patel Introduces the main concepts and key theories including their post developments Focuses on the processes and impact of racial categorisation in contemporary society Highlights the intersectional and multifaceted nature of race and related conceptualizations Illustrates how race has morphed into newer forms of categorizations Race and Society is packed with topical examples and international case studies to engage students along with chapter summaries study questions and further reading It is a highly readable and thought provoking guide to the study of race and racialisation processes for students of sociology criminology and related disciplines Encyclopedia of Race and Ethnic Studies Ellis Cashmore, 2004-03 The book comprises essays each highlighting a particular word or term germane to the study of race and ethnic studies Racisms in a Multicultural Canada Augie Fleras, 2014-04-29 In acknowledging the possibility that as the world changes so too does racism this book argues that racism is not disappearing despite claims of living in a post racial and multicultural world To the contrary racisms persist by transforming into different forms whose intent or effects remain the same to deny and disallow as well as to exclude and exploit Racisms in a Multicultural Canada is organized around the assumption that race is not simply a set of categories and that racism is not just a collection of individuals with bad attitudes Rather racism is as much a matter of interests as of attitudes of property as of prejudice of structural advantage as of personal failing of whiteness as of the other of discourse as of discrimination and of unequal power relations as of bigotry This multi dimensionality of racism complicates the challenge of formulating anti racism and anti colonialist strategies capable of addressing it Employing a critical framework that puts politics and power at the centre of analysis this book focuses on why racisms proliferate how they work in contemporary societies and how the way we think and talk about racism changes over time Specifically it examines the working of contemporary racisms in a multicultural Canada that claims to abide by principles of multiculturalism and a commitment to a post racial society

Captivating Technology Ruha Benjamin, 2019-06-07 The contributors to Captivating Technology examine how carceral technologies such as electronic ankle monitors and predictive policing algorithms are being deployed to classify and coerce specific populations and whether these innovations can be appropriated and reimaged for more liberatory ends

Sport and Sociology Dominic Malcolm, 2012-03-15 Offering a state of the art review of the sociology of sport and investigating those areas where sport has come to influence the sociological mainstream this book examines how sociology has impacted upon the consciousness of sports fans administrators and even politicians As the first book to provide a history of the sociology of sport and to clearly locate the contemporary discipline in the wider currents of sociological discourse Sport and Sociology is important reading for all students and scholars interested in the relationship between sport and society whether they are working in sport studies or in the sociological mainstream

Resonances of Slavery in Race/Gender Relations J. Flax, 2010-11-14 Jane Flax argues that a reciprocal relationship exists between unconscious processes and race gender domination and that unless we attend to these unconscious processes no adequate remedy for the malignant consequences of our current race gender practices and relations can be devised Flax supports her arguments using a variety of sources

Global Perspectives on Orchestras Tina K. The Psychology of Prejudice and Discrimination Jean Lau Chin, 2009-11-12 An updated and condensed version of the landmark work on the psychological impact of prejudice and discrimination Spanning four volumes the first edition of The Psychology of Prejudice and Discrimination provided a much needed cornerstone work on one of the most crucial issues in the United States today This updated and condensed edition of the award winning set is a streamlined yet rich and insightful look at the mechanisms of prejudice and discrimination in practice Editor Jean Chin and contributors from across the nation offer insight into how discrimination in American society is rationalized and enacted as well as how it is experienced by diverse groups Coverage goes beyond racism to include sexism and the plight of LGBTQ youths as well as people with disabilities Updates include a new introduction and conclusion presenting developments successes and failures in fighting prejudice and discrimination since the original set was published

Unhooking from Whiteness, 2021-05-25 What does it look like to let go of Whiteness Whiteness promotes a form of hegemonic thinking which influences not only thought processes but also behavior within the academy Working to dismantle the racism and whiteness that continue to keep oppressed people powerless and immobilized in academe requires sharing power opportunity and access Removing barriers to the knowledge created in higher education is an essential part of this process The process of unhooking oneself from institutionalized whiteness certainly requires fighting hegemonic modes of thought and patriarchal views that persistently keep marginalized groups of academics in their station or at their institution In the explosive Unhooking from Whiteness: Resisting the Esprit de Corps editors Hartlep and Hayes continued the conversation they began in 2013 with Unhooking from Whiteness: The Key to Dismantling Racism in the United States This third and final volume focuses on the writers processes to let go of the pathology of Whiteness The contributors in this book have once again come from an intersection of races ethnicities sexual identities and gender identities and includes conversations across these multiple intersections The editors move from prepared pr cis es on multicultural education toward actionable conversations that drive social justice agendas and have the power to eliminate educational inequities

Race and Society: The Essentials Kathleen J. Fitzgerald, 2020-11-29 Race and Society: The Essentials explains the basic theories and concepts related to the sociology of race and ethnicity covering topics such as prejudice and discrimination immigration and assimilation structural and institutional racism privilege intersectionality color blind racism interracial relationships multiracial families biracial multiracial identities and indigeneity It is designed to provide a foundation for students so they can have productive and necessary discussions about race racism and privilege and understand how to move towards a more racially just society Unlike many texts for this course it does not contain chapters on individual racial and ethnic minorities or on race within the context of social institutions Perfect for instructors who assign other kinds of materials for their race ethnicity courses research monographs journals articles published anthologies scholarly and trade books or for shorter courses this text will provide students with a solid theoretical and conceptual grounding in the field

Racisms Steve Garner, 2009-11-25 A very clear and engaging introduction to a contemporary analysis of race and racism s This text effectively combines key theoretical perspectives with vivid contemporary examples Dr Rebecca Barnes University of Derby Fantastic book for helping students get past the stuntedness of the term racism to understand the way in which racisms are part of our social practices and institutions Dr Lucy Michael Hull University This is a solid text covering the topic in a thoughtful manner Studying and teaching racism is a complex issue and this book is a very good resource Dr Sanjay Sharma Brunel University We hear much about race and racism in public discourse but the terms are frequently used without clear definitions or practical examples of how these phenomena work Racisms An Introduction introduces practical methods which enable students to think coherently and sociologically about this complex feature of the global landscape Steve Garner argues that there is no single monolithic object of analysis but rather a plural set of ideas and practices that result in the introduction of race into social relations This differs over time and from one place to another Focussing on the basics this book Defines race racism institutional racism and racialization Provides examples of how these function in fields like the natural sciences and asylum Clearly sets out theoretical arguments around collective identities race class gender nation religion Uses empirical case studies including some drawn from the author s own fieldwork Points students toward sources of further web and text based information Engaging and accessible this book provides a signposted route into key elements of contemporary debates It is an ideal introduction for undergraduates studying race and ethnicity social divisions and stratification

Whiteness, Pedagogy, Performance Leda M. Cooks, Jennifer S. Simpson, 2008-03-01 Whiteness Pedagogy Performance is unique in bringing together these three important topics in the context of communication teaching and scholarship with an eye toward interdisciplinary perspectives In fourteen chapters the leading whiteness scholars in the field of communication analyze the process of teaching and learning and the complicated intersections of whiteness racial identity and cross racial dialogue Toward these ends these essays offer a variety of theoretical and practical approaches to the analysis of identity construction racial privilege and pedagogies toward equality and social justice Above all for teachers students and anyone interested in these issues this book is a challenge to re think the ways our curricula texts disciplinary boundaries and moreover how our interactions and performances re inscribe racial privileges Chapters provide innovative and accessible analyses of teaching and learning that will appeal to students teachers administrators and anyone interested in how race works

The Routledge International Handbook of Intercultural

Arts Research Pamela Burnard, Elizabeth Mackinlay, Kimberly Powell, 2016-01-08 For artists scholars researchers educators and students of arts theory interested in culture and the arts a proper understanding of the questions surrounding interculturality and the arts requires a full understanding of the creative methodological and interconnected possibilities of theory practice and research The International Handbook of Intercultural Arts Research provides concise and comprehensive reviews and overviews of the convergences and divergences of intercultural arts practice and theory offering a consolidation of the breadth of scholarship practices and the contemporary research methodologies methods and multi disciplinary analyses that are emerging within this new field Cushites in the Hebrew Bible Kevin Burrell, 2020-01-13

Cushites in the Hebrew Bible offers a reassessment of Cushite ethnographic representations in the biblical literature as a counterpoint to misconceptions about Africa and people of African descent which are largely a feature of the modern age Whereas current interpretations have tended to emphasize unfavourable portraits of the people biblical writers called Cushites Kevin Burrell illuminates the biblical perspective through a comparative assessment of ancient and modern forms of identity construction Past and present modes of defining difference betray both similarities and differences to ethnic representations in the Hebrew Bible providing important contexts for understanding the biblical view This book contributes to a clearer understanding of the theological historical and ethnic dynamics underpinning representations of Cushites in the Hebrew Bible Race, Ethnicity & Society Tina Patel, 2023-02-08

Part of the New Approaches to Sociology series Race Ethnicity Society expands on Tina Patel s acclaimed book Race and Society Offering a thoughtful and critically engaging exploration of some of the key issues around race and ethnicity in contemporary society this book provides a nuanced and impactful perspective for students studying sociology With a progressive approach that emphasises the social construction of race issues within a post racial era moving away from essentialist and polarized explanations of raced interaction this book Introduces the main concepts and key theories including their post developments Includes dedicated chapters on theorizing race and historical context Focuses on the processes and impact of racial categorisation in contemporary society Covers contemporary discussions related to BlackLivesMatter and the Covid 19 pandemic Race Ethnicity Society is packed with topical examples and international case studies to engage students along with chapter summaries study questions and further reading It s a highly readable and thought provoking guide to the study of race ethnicity and society for students of sociology criminology and related disciplines Dr Tina G Patel is a Senior Lecturer in Criminology at the University of Salford

Shakespeare, Spectatorship and the Technologies of Performance Pascale Aebischer, 2020-04-30 Shakespeare Spectatorship and the Technologies of Performance examines how rapid changes in performance technologies affect modes of spectatorship for early modern drama It argues that seemingly disparate developments such as the revival of early modern architectural and lighting technologies digital performance technologies and the hybrid medium of theatre broadcast are fundamentally related How spectators experience performances is not only affected in medium specific ways by particular technologies but is also connected to the plays roots in early modern performance environments Aebischer s examples range from the use of candlelight and re imagined early modern architecture to set design performance capture technologies digital video social media hologram projection biotechnologies and theatre broadcasts This book argues that digital and analogue performance technologies alike activate modes of ethical spectatorship requiring audiences to adopt an ethical standpoint as they decide how to look where to look what medium to look through and how to take responsibility for looking
