Narratives of the European Border R. Robinson, 2007-10-23 Richard Robinson examines the representation of shifting European borders in twentieth century narrative drawing together an unusual grouping of texts from different national canons and comparing the various ways that fictional settings transmute European placelessness into narrative In Search of the Black Fantastic Richard Iton, 2010 Prior to the 1960s when African Americans had little access to formal political power black popular culture was commonly seen as a means of forging community and effecting political change But as Richard Iton shows despite the changes politics black artists have continued to play a significant role in the making of critical social spaces Queer Times, Black Futures Kara Keeling, 2019-04-16 Finalist 2019 Lambda Literary Award in LGBTQ Studies A profound intellectual engagement with Afrofuturism and the philosophical questions of space and time Queer Times Black Futures considers the promises and pitfalls of imagination technology futurity and liberation as they have persisted in and through racial capitalism Kara Keeling explores how the speculative fictions of cinema music and literature that center Black existence provide scenarios wherein we might imagine alternative worlds queer and otherwise In doing so Keeling offers a sustained meditation on contemporary investments in futurity speculation and technology paying particular attention to their significance to queer and Black freedom Keeling reads selected works such as Sun Ra's 1972 film Space is the Place and the 2005 film The Aggressives to juxtapose the Afrofuturist tradition of speculative imagination with the similar speculations of corporate and financial institutions In connecting a queer cinematic reordering of time with the new possibilities technology offers Keeling thinks with and through a vibrant conception of the imagination as a gateway to queer times and Black futures and the previously unimagined spaces that they can conjure White Rebels in Black Priscilla Dionne Layne, 2018-03-13 Analyzing literary texts and films White Rebels in Black shows how German authors have since the 1950s appropriated black popular culture particularly music to distance themselves from the legacy of Nazi Germany authoritarianism and racism and how such appropriation changes over time Priscilla Layne offers a critique of how blackness came to symbolize a positive escape from the hegemonic masculinity of postwar Germany and how black identities have been represented as separate from and in opposition to German identity foreclosing the possibility of being both black and German Citing four autobiographies published by black German authors Hans Jürgen Massaquoi Theodor Michael Günter Kaufmann and Charly Graf Layne considers how black German men have related to hegemonic masculinity since Nazi Germany and concludes with a discussion on the work of black German poet Philipp Khabo Kpsell Beside You in Time Elizabeth Freeman, 2019-09-06 Elizabeth Freeman expands bipolitical and queer theory by outlining a temporal view of the long nineteenth century and showing how time became a social and sensory means by which people resisted disciplinary regimes and assembled into groups in ways that created new forms of sociality      Freud's Memory R. White, 2008-07-24 Rob White reconsiders Freud's controversial theory of inherited memory referring it both to Anglo American commentary and post structuralist work on psychoanalysis White proposes that this theory is evidence of an underlying haunted retrospection in Freudian theorizing which time and again discovers that meaning has been lost      Freud's Drive: Psychoanalysis, Literature and Film Teresa De Lauretis, 2008-04-04 Teresa De Lauretis makes a bold and original argument for the renewed relevance of the Freudian theory of drives through close readings of texts ranging from cinema and literature to psychoanalysis and cultural theory      The Language, Discourse, Society Reader Denise Riley, 2004-08-13 For the last twenty five years Language Discourse Society has been the most intellectually challenging series in English Its titles range across the disciplines from linguistics to biology from literary criticism to law combining vigorous scholarship and theoretical analysis at the service of a broad political engagement This anniversary reader brings together a fascinating group of thinkers from both sides of the Atlantic with an introductory overview from the editors which considers the development of theory and scholarship over the past two decades      Race, Ralph Ellison and American Cold War Intellectual Culture R. Purcell, 2013-10-31 While the arms race of the post war period has been widely discussed Purcell explores the under acknowledged but critical role another kind of race that is race as a biological and sociological concept played within the global and cultural Cold War      A Fractured Landscape of Modernity J. Wilkes, 2014-01-21 This book uses the contradictions fractures and coincidences of a twentieth century rural landscape to explore new methods of writing place beyond new nature writing In doing so it opens up new ways of reading modernist artists and writers such as Vanessa Bell Mary Butts and Paul Nash      The Writing of Anxiety L. Stonebridge, 2007-07-12 This study suggests that it was the representation of anxiety rather than trauma and memory that emerged most forcefully in mid century wartime culture Thinking about anxiety Lyndsey Stonebridge argues was a way of imagining how it might be possible to stay within a history that frequently undermined a sense of self and agency      Encounters between Analytic and Continental Philosophy A. Vrahimis, 2013-05-29 This book examines the encounters between leading analytic and continental philosophers Frege and Husserl Carnap and Heidegger Merleau Ponty Bataille and Ayer the Royaumont colloquium and Derrida with Searle      Literature and Film, Dispositioned Alice Gavin, 2014-09-23 Literature and Film Dispositioned looks to twentieth century literature's encounter with film as a means to thinking about the locations of thought in literature and literature's location in the world It includes readings of works by James Joyce Henry James and Samuel Beckett whose Film 1965 forms a concluding focus      The Force of Language D. Riley, J. Lecercle, 2004-10-20 The Force of Language illustrates how the philosophy of Language if differently conceived can directly incorporate questions of political thought and of emotionality and offers the practical case of defensive strategies against the abusive speech This follows a broad consideration of the inner voice or inner speech as a test case for a new approach to language in particular as a way of radically rethinking the usual contrast between inner and outer through furnishing an account of how we internalize speech The book's core offers a substantial critique of orthodox approaches to the philosophy of language from Chomsky and others drawing on European political thought from Marx to Deleuze it will move beyond this inheritance to explain and demonstrate its fresh conception of language at work The Witch's Flight Kara Keeling, 2007-11-05 Through an analysis of filmic representations of Black femininity and the Black Femme in particular this book highlights the ways the cinematic structures both racist and sexist portrayals and their potential undoing Sound Clash Kara Keeling, Josh Kun, 2012-05-07 Race sex and gender The Contemporary Deathbed John Anthony Tercier, 2005-04-15 How do we picture ourselves dying A death with dignity the darkened room and a few murmured farewells Or in the lights flashing siren wailing chest pumping maelstrom of the back of an ambulance hurtling towards an ER Over the last decade the two most robust vehicles of popular culture film and television have opted for the latter scenario This book examines the hi tech death of the twenty first century as enacted in our hospitals and as portrayed on our TV screens Black Film British Cinema II Clive Nwonka, Anamik Saha, 2021-03-02 The politics of race in British screen culture over the last 30 years vis a vis the institutional textual cultural and political shifts that have occurred during this period Black Film British Cinema II considers the politics of blackness in contemporary British cinema and visual practice This second iteration of Black Film British Cinema marking over 30 years since the ground breaking ICA Documents 7 publication in 1988 continues this investigation by offering a crucial contemporary consideration of the textual institutional cultural and political shifts that have occurred from this period It focuses on the practices values and networks of collaborations that have shaped the development of black film culture and representation But what is black British film How do such films however defined produce meaning through visual culture and what are the political social and aesthetic motivations and effects How are the new forms of black British film facilitating new modes of representation authorship and exhibition Explored in the context of film aesthetics curatorship exhibition and arts practice and the politics of diversity policy Black Film British Cinema II provides the platform for new scholars thinkers and practitioners to coalesce on these central questions It is explicitly interdisciplinary operating at the intersections of film studies media and communications sociology politics and cultural studies Through a diverse range of perspectives and theoretical interventions that offer a combination of traditional chapters long form essays shorter think pieces and critical dialogues Black Film British Cinema II is a comprehensive sustained wide ranging collection that offers new framework for understanding contemporary black film practices and the cultural and creative dimensions that shape the making of blackness and race Contributors Bidisha Ashley Clark Shelley Cobb James Harvey Melanie Hoyes Maryam Jameela Kara Keeling Ozlem Koksal Rabz Lansiquot Sarita Malik Richard Martin So Mayer Alessandra Raengo Richard T Rodriguez Tess S Skadeg rd Thorsen Natalie Wreyford
