Reflections on the Extreme Right in Western Europe, 1990-2008 Christopher Husbans,2020-05-26 During the last three decades or so there has been a significant growth of extreme right voter support in Europe and elsewhere in the world The chapters in this book look at an earlier period before most of this increase Comprising eight previously published articles or book chapters and two hitherto unpublished studies this book gives extended accounts of the major extreme right political parties or movements in a number of west European countries looking both at their antecedents and also at their support and significance in the 1980s and early 1990s The countries covered in detail are France the Federal Republic of Germany old and new regions the Netherlands Belgium Switzerland and Austria During the last three decades some earlier parties of the extreme right in these west European countries have disappeared into oblivion to be superseded by replacements others have survived and flourished Given the date when most of these chapters were written they are now to be regarded as contributions to a modern history about the status and relevance of the respective parties or movements The book also includes an introductory essay that discusses issues arising from the disputed labelling terminology used to describe such parties and identifies themes that feature in the more recent literature about the subsequent and current state of the extreme right in Europe The book will be of particular interest to researchers on the contemporary politics of the extreme right in Europe as well as being a valuable resource for those teaching courses on this topic or on general political sociology The Politics of Multiculturalism in the New Europe Tariq Modood, Pnina Werbner, 1997-08 On multiculturalism

Racism Postcolonialism Europe Graham Huggan, Ian Law, 2022-04-01 Racism Postcolonialism Europe turns the postcolonial critical gaze that had previously been most likely to train itself on regions other than Europe and sometimes those perceived to be most culturally or geographically distant from Europe back on Europe itself The book argues that racism is alive and dangerously well in Europe and examines this racism through the lens of postcolonial criticism Postcolonial racism can be a racism of reaction based on the perceived threat to traditional social and cultural identities or a racism of false respect based on mainstream liberals desire to hold at arms length different cultures they are anxious not to offend Most of all postcolonial racism at least within the contemporary European context is a racism of surveillance whereby foreigners become aliens protection disguises preference and cultural difference slides into racial stigmatization all in the interests of representing the European people which is a very different entity to the European population as a whole Boasting a broad multidisciplinary approach and a range of distinguished contributors including Philomena Essed Michel Wieviorka and Griselda Pollock Racism Postcolonialism Europe will be required reading for scholars and students of race postcolonial studies sociology European history and literary and cultural studies Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2005 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature Perceptions of Islam in Europe Hakan Yilmaz, Cagla E. Britain France Germany Greece Italy the Netherlands Poland Turkey and other parts of the European Union This study goes beyond the usual dichotomies of clashes of civilizations and cultural conflict to try to understand the numerous diverse and multifaceted ways some conflictual some peaceful in which cultural exchanges have taken place historically and which continue to take place between the Muslim and non Muslim worlds
