

В монографии на основе анализа эволюции социологических подходов уточнены концептуальные представления о спорте как социальном явлении. Спорт рассматривается с позиции институционального подхода. Выделены и рассмотрены универсальные и специфические функции спорта. Среди факторов, влияющих на развитие спорта, исследованы политические, религиозные, социально-психологические, социокультурные, социально-экономические, информационно-коммуникативные. Проанализированы современные тенденции развития спорта: коммерциализация, профессионализация, развитие специализированной системы СФС, появление новых видов спорта, использование принципиально новых видов допинга. Изучена взаимосвязь спорта и качества жизни. Показано, что спорт, с одной стороны, может служить индикатором качества жизни, с другой стороны, - может способствовать преодолению некоторых видов социального неравенства.
