Longing Selected Poems:

The Art of Longing Robert A. Neimeyer, 2009-10-03 The Art of Longing represents a creative collaboration between poet and psychologist Robert A. Neimeyer and an international group of artists whose painting collage photography and sculpture resonate with the verse to evoke a deep meditation on the human condition Exploring our connection to the natural world and to one another propitious pairings of poetry and imagery lay bare the irony of yearning for permanent attachment in an impermanent world along with the possibilities for tragedy and occasional transcendence that this implies The result is a scintillating mix of verbal and visual media that spark fresh insight and appreciation of the nuances of loss and grief while hinting at the role of memory and meaning making in sustaining us along the way All You Ask For is Longing Sean Thomas Dougherty, 2014-04-21 For over twenty years Sean Thomas Dougherty has negotiated between modernist and avant garde writing and more populist traditions that extend back to Walt Whitman His subject matter ranges from basketball to Bjork from blue collar workers to Biggie Smalls from Luciano Pavarotti to women waiting at a diner outside a prison in Upstate New York Selecting from the best of eight previous collections this New and Selected reveals the powerful arc and development of Dougherty's writing and establishes him as a voice of dissent for the future A former Fulbright fellow Sean Thomas Dougherty works at Gold Crown Billiards in Erie Pennsylvania City of Memory and Other Poems Jose Emilio Pacheco, 1997-04 The leading poet of his generation Jose Emilio Pacheco is one of Mexico's most esteemed and beloved writers City of Memory and Other Poems presents two of his finest poetry collections accompanied by beautifully rendered translations The first City of Memory touches on Pacheco's major literary obsessions the destructive effects of time the essential egotism and cruelty of the natural world with humankind at its violent center and the capacity of the human spirit to achieve transcendence The second I watch the Earth is an emotional catharsis the poet's mediation on the tragic earthquake that devastated his native Mexico City in 1985 Together these poems paint a vivid picture of the noble beauty and uncontrollable tragedy that is Mexico and the world today Jose Emilio Pacheco is the winner of the Jose Asuncion Silva Award for the best book of poetry to appear in Spanish from 1990 to 1995 Novelist poet essayist and translator he lives in Mexico City Cynthia Steele is the author of Politics Gender and the Mexican Novel 1968 1988 Beyond the Pyramid and the translator of Underground River and Other Stories by Ines Arredondo David Lauer is a poet and translator who lives in Chihuahua Mexico Book of Longing Leonard Cohen, 2008-11-19 Leonard Cohen is one of the great writers performers and most consistently daring artists of our time Book of Longing is Cohen's eagerly awaited new collection of poems following his highly acclaimed 1984 title Book of Mercy and his hugely successful 1993 publication Stranger Music a Globe and Mail national bestseller Book of Longing contains erotic playful and provocative line drawings and artwork on every page by the author which interact in exciting and unexpected ways on the page with poetry that is timeless meditative and at times darkly humorous The book brings together all the elements that have brought Leonard Cohen's artistry with language home for their work In her own words We had very early cherished the dream of one day becoming authors Anne Bronte author of AGNES GREY often used autobiographical elements in her poems giving us a hints of the struggles and turmoil of her life These poems offer glimpses of the joys and sorrows of the Brontes and are a beautifully compelling introduction to their writing and lives The Monstrous and the Marvelous Rikki Ducornet,1999-08 Contains fourteen essays in which author Rikki Ducornet surveys the monstrous and the marvelous in literature art and film Longing Jaime Gil de Biedma,1993-07-01 The poetry of Jaime Gil de Biedma the most original and influential Spanish poet since the civil war is finally after years of censorship under Generalissimo Franco reaching a huge audience in Spain His poems capture the mood of post civil war Selected Poems of Christina G. Rossetti Christina Georgina Rossetti,1913 Fado and the Place of Longing Richard Elliott,2017-07-05 Fado often described as urban folk music emerged from the streets of Lisbon in the mid nineteenth century and went on to become Portugal s national music during the twentieth It is known for its strong emphasis on loss memory and nostalgia within its song texts which often refer to absent people and places One of the main lyrical themes of fado is the city itself Fado music has played a significant role in the interlacing of mythology history memory and regionalism in Portugal in the second half of the twentieth century Richard Elliott considers the ways in which fado songs bear witness to the city of Lisbon in relation to the construction and maintenance of the local Elliott explores the ways in which fado acts as a cultural product reaffirming local identity via recourse to social memory and an imagined community while also providing a distinctive cultural export for the dissemination of a remembered Portugal on the global stage

Select Poems of Matthew Arnold Matthew Arnold,1908 America Besieged Michael Parenti,1998-05 America Besieged deals with the underlying forces within U S society that deeply affect our lives Showing how we are being misled and harmed by those who profess to have our interests at heart Michael Parenti writes We are indeed a nation besieged not from without but from within not subverted from below but from above the moneyed power exercises a near monopoly influence over our political life over the economy the state and the media Some Americans are astonished to hear of it Others have had their suspicions although they may not be quite sure how it all adds up This book invites the reader to stop blaming the powerless and poor and in that good old American phrase start following the money That is the first and most important step toward lifting the siege and bringing democracy back to life Michael Parenti one of America s most astute and entertaining political analysts is the author of Against Empire Dirty Truths Blackshirts and Reds Rational Fascism and the Overthrow of Communism Democracy for the Few Land of Idols Political Mythology in America and many other books

Blues and the Poetic Spirit Paul Garon,1996-07 This is an inquiry into the blues and the mind a study of the blues as thought The subconscious power of the blues is examined from a poetic and psychological perspective illuminating the blues deepest creative sources and exploring its far reaching influence and appeal Like Surrealist poetry in particular blues communicate through highly charged symbols of aggression and desire eros crime magic night and drugs among others An analysis of classic blues lyrics along with source material from Freud and James Frazer to Breton and Marcuse conveys the blues major poetic function of spiritual revolt against repression Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers Fantasies of the Master Race Ward Churchill, 1998 Chosen an Outstanding Book on the Subject of Human Rights in the United States by the Gustavus Myers Center for the Study of Human Rights In this volume of incisive essays Ward Churchill looks at representations of American Indians in literature and film delineating a history of cultural propaganda that has served to support the continued colonization of Native America During each phase of the genocide of American Indians the media has played a critical role in creating easily digestible stereotypes of Indians for popular consumption Literature about Indians was first written and published in order to provoke and sanctify warfare against them Later the focus changed to enlisting public support for civilizing the savages stripping them of their culture and assimilating them into the dominant society Now in the final stages of cultural genocide it is the appropriation and stereotyping of Native culture that establishes control over knowledge and truth The primary means by which this is accomplished is through the powerful publishing and film industries Whether they are the tragically doomed noble savages walking into the sunset of Dances With Wolves or Carlos Castaneda's Don Juan the exotic mythical Indians constitute no threat to the established order Literature and art crafted by the dominant culture are an insidious political force disinforming people who might otherwise develop a clearer understanding of indigenous struggles for justice and freedom This book is offered to counter that deception and to move people to take action on issues confronting American Indians today Front Lines Jack Hirschman, 2002-08 In the activist verse of this poetic warrior always committed the actual world is never out of mind even in his most intimate poems Kabbalist populist and communist Hirschman has published over sixty books of his own poetry and this representative selection is a cross section of his poetic output spanning many years and mutations When he reads aloud the words take fire and on the page they crackle and spark Jack Hirschman is a San Francisco poet translator and editor His powerfully eloquent voice set the tone for political poetry in this country many years ago He is the author of numerous books of poetry plus some forty five translations from a half a dozen languages as well the editor of anthologies and journals
