Six Dramatists in Search of a Language Andrew K. Kennedy,1975-01-23 In this penetrating study Andrew Kennedy sets out to analyse the modern movement in drama through the theatrical language of six key figures writing in English Shaw Eliot Beckett Pinter Osborne and Arden Dr Kennedy argues that a study of theatrical language should be an exercise in practical criticism and not merely narrowly linguistic The whole range of theatrical expressiveness must be examined in detail from play text and performance alike and the conclusions correlated with the author s known intentions if a full evaluative judgement is to be attempted Dr Kennedy shows how the modern movement in drama reveals a growing difficulty in creating any type of fully expressive dramatic language He has written a work with an unusual breadth of reference which should prove of value to all students of modern drama modern English and European literature and to the theatre going public

Modern Language Teaching ,1906 A New Model of the Universe P.D. Ouspensky,2023-01-29 In A New Model of the Universe written in 1914 and now published for the first time in French P D Ouspensky describes his own quest for a form of truth concerning questions as fundamental as the place of man in the universe the unknown the invisible world starting from the idea always that true civilization only exists in esotericism and that modern Western civilization suffers from a profound barbarism due to the absence of esoteric thought Calling on Christianity Judaism Eastern philosophies the symbolism of the Tarot experimental mysticism the study of dreams hypnotism yoga but also the sciences and in particular ancient physics and modern the author attempts to answer the following questions what form does the world have Is the world a chaos or a system Does the universe exist by accident or was it created according to a plan A new model of the Universe responds to a growing need in late 20th century man to question his origins and the meaning of his existence by having recourse to ancient beliefs and traditions
