Daniele Lippi,2021-07-04 Alfred is a normal lad who lives in his very normal tomorrow maybe our tomorrow A world that has changed much perhaps without really changing Looking for social redemption he accepts a proposal that will take him far from home for a long time When he comes back he slowly realizes that things aren t exactly the way he expected them A surprise that in spite of all will urge him to look for answers Alfred is a normal lad who lives in his very normal tomorrow where technology has made giant strides even if these strides have been used by the few who have then distributed it to the many like crumbs to the hungry A society where much has changed perhaps without really changing Alfred like every lad like every man like every human being hopes at least for himself for a better future and that s what he pursues with tenacity and conviction devoured by anguish and desire for redemption When in this uncertain future he s offered such a chance he ll seize it embracing every single aspect and consequence such is his desire to believe in it with all of himself But evry medal time out of mind always has two sides and Alfred will have to decide whether or not to face the side that s hidden from him embarking on a quest and investigation fighting against time that he has no more or to accept things as they are and convince himself that everything is actually normal The Mark of Gnosis Tom Kane,2001-11 The Value of Drawing

Instruction in the Visual Arts and Across Curricula Seymour Simmons III,2021-03-29 By applying philosophical and historical perspectives to drawing instruction this volume demonstrates how diverse teaching methods contribute to cognitive and holistic development applicable within and beyond the visual arts Offering a new perspective on the art and science of drawing this text reveals the often unrecognized benefits that drawing can have on the human mind and thus argues for the importance of drawing instruction despite and even due to contemporary digitalization Given the predominance of visual information and digital media visual thinking in and through drawing may be an essential skill for the future As such the book counters recent declines in drawing instruction to propose five Paradigms for teaching drawing as design as seeing as experience and experiment as expression and as a visual language with exemplary curricula for pre K12 art and general education pre professional programs across the visual arts and continuing education With the aid of instructional examples this volume dispels the misconception of drawing as a talent reserved for the artistically gifted and posits it as a teachable skill that can be learned by all This text will be of primary interest to researchers scholars and doctoral students with interests in drawing theory and practice cognition in the arts positive psychology creativity theory as well as the philosophy and history of arts education Aligning with contemporary trends such as Design Thinking STEAM and Graphicacy the text will also have appeal to visual arts educators at all levels and other educators involved in arts integration
