Look Out Doctor:

Look Out, Doctor! Robert Clifford, 2014-09-25 Doctor Bob lives in Tadchester on the Somerset coast. It's a good little town but like all English country towns it has its fair share of interesting cases. To start with there's young Mr Haggard who has a thing about doctors. Then there's Mr Wood the amorous but underdeveloped photographer with a crush on Amazing Grace the receptionist not forgetting Mrs Short with her secret addiction. Charlie Sloper the local poacher and supermarket shoplifter the accident prone Aubrey Cattermole and last but not least the rugby team from Drake's College who develop a mysterious and embarrassing ailment after an away match at a London night club. And the strangest thing about these cases is they're all true.

The Doctor's Red Lamp Various, 2021-05-19 The Doctor's Red Lamp is a compelling anthology that encapsulates the essence of early 20th century medical practice through a series of poignant narratives and reflections. Composed by various authors, this collection employs a rich blend of realism and episodic storytelling, illuminating the lives of doctors and patients alike amidst the backdrop of evolving medical ethics and societal expectations. The intricate prose not only brings to life the struggles and triumphs within the healing profession but also prompts a critical exploration of the human condition, emphasizing themes of compassion, sacrifice, and duty that resonate profoundly in both historical and contemporary contexts. The authors contributing to this anthology hail from diverse backgrounds, including practicing physicians, medical writers, and literary figures, each bringing their unique perspectives to the narratives. Their lived experiences and professional insights have shaped their vivid portrayals of medical challenges, ethical dilemmas, and the often fraught doctor-patient relationship. This rich tapestry of voices reflects the crucial intersection of literature and medicine, inviting readers into a world where health and humanity intertwine. Readers searching for an intricate exploration of the medical field framed within the authentic human experience will find The Doctor's Red Lamp a compelling read. It serves as both an educational resource and a literary journey, appealing to those interested in the history of medicine, narrative nonfiction, and the complex interplay of narrative and healing. This anthology captures the enduring spirit of medical discourse and its impact on society.

The Doctor's Dilemma Stretton, 2023-08-02 First published in 1872, the story is that of Olivia, who as the curtain opens, has been locked in a room, threatened, and is frantic to escape. She sees her chance, and her escape takes her to the smallest of the Channel Islands, named Sark. There she lives peacefully under an assumed identity until she has an accident and is in need of a doctor. Dr. Martin Dobree comes from the neighboring island to help her and is instantly taken with her. Thus, various circumstances unfold that delve into Olivia's past and what will become of her future.

DR. DOLITTLE Book Series Hugh Lofting, 2023-12-28 The Dr. Dolittle book series, penned by Hugh Lofting, immerses readers in the whimsical adventures of a physician who possesses the extraordinary ability to communicate with animals. Written during the early 20th century, Lofting's prose combines fantasy with a rich imagination, reflecting the socio-political climate of the time. His style showcases a blend of humor and moral insight as Dolittle embarks on journeys that challenge anthropocentrism and explore themes of empathy stewardship and the environment Each volume serves not only as a delightful tale of exploration but also a vehicle for Lofting s subtle critiques of human society s shortcomings vividly brought to life through enchanting narratives and memorable characters Hugh Lofting born in 1886 was influenced by his experiences as a soldier in World War I and a fascination with nature nurtured in his childhood His background in engineering gave him a unique perspective on the intersection of man and machinery which manifested in his portrayal of animals as sentient beings deserving of respect Lofting s dedication to promoting a kinder world coupled with a deep seated belief in the interconnectedness of life invigorated his storytelling resulting in a series that resonates with readers of all ages I highly recommend the Dr Dolittle series for those who cherish imaginative literature that also invites reflection on crucial ethical questions Lofting s engaging narrative style coupled with his ability to breathe life into animal characters makes these books not only entertaining but profoundly educational This beloved series encourages an understanding of our animal companions and the delicate balance of nature making it an essential addition to both children s and adult literature

Registrant Facts ,1981 Museum of Foreign Literature and Science ,1830 Search for Paradise Jens Naumann,2012-08-31 Jens Naumann a typical energetic young man of 17 had just moved out of his parent s home in Northern British Columbia moving into a railway camp as an employee with the British Columbia Railway All goes well as Jens enjoys his new found freedom treasuring his driver s license and its associated freedom of travel Then on a wintry day in 1981 fate rears its ugly head and strikes him blind in his left eye Jens quickly rearranges his life to accommodate his new found fear that of losing his remaining eye now that the true vulnerability of his eyesight is revealed As his life continues onwards despite the initial readjustment he finds ultimate happiness in his new marriage to his young wife Lorri and just when life stands at its threshold of paradise exploring fatherhood along with the beauty of travel and thrill his worst nightmare becomes reality not once but twice in the most bizarre series of unforeseen incidents of bad luck as Jens is totally blinded with no foreseeable chance of seeing again according to the best medical experts Jens tries his best to adjust to this unwanted situation exploring conventional methods of rehabilitation to live with blindness as well as using imaginative totally unheard of activities in order to pass his time in a hope of someday being able to see again despite all the odds stacked against him Close to the turn of the century Jens unexpectedly receives news of an American Medical Device Engineer Dr William H Dobelle inviting blind adults as patients for his newly developed artificial vision system designed to provide limited vision via visual cortex stimulation Dr Dobelle claims that his system has a good chance in functioning based on previous experimenting with volunteers at the same time classifying the surgical procedure as minor The system and its related components is complicated consisting of not only the implants but a series of electrical sockets protruding from the patients head to which an array of computer boxes and stimulator hardware is connected and worn by the patient Jens is determined to be one of the patients regardless of the remoteness of the chance of being one out of literally millions of blind people in the World possibly lining up to have this procedure in hopes of ending their blindness for once and for all To his absolute surprise Jens is accepted as the first patient for this procedure and slowly builds a relationship with Dr Dobelle as Jens overcomes obvious barriers of raising enough money for the very expensive procedure as well as fighting the challenges of relentless forces working against him for his involvement in the Dobelle vision project Armed with preconceived ideas of how a research institute should be run Jens travels overseas for the various stages of the procedure only to find the most astonishing facts of what goes on in the heart of a renowned medical research institute Not only is Jens looking at the workings of the Dobelle Institute from the view of a patient but in short time Jens is hired by the firm as Patient Representative providing further exploration yet on the inner most details concerning a research company and its treatment of the 15 additional implanted patients Throughout the book Jens describes the devastation exhilaration disappointment elation and confusion that attempts at sight recovery medical intervention media propaganda and ethical boundaries conjure in the most illustrative intensity The manner in which the book ends is most indescribable one could view it as the final straw the beginning of a new era the curse of the unforgiven the sadness of a crushing reality the beginning of a good job left unfinished or that of the birth of a new expert compelled to unleash the new found knowledge for the whole World to thrive Just as many questions are answered many more yet are opened and left so far undiscovered Search for Paradise is ce

,1905 At the End of Darwin Road Fiona Kidman, 2011-11-01 An evocative memoir about the emergence of a pre eminent writer in a changing world What I have to tell is largely a personal narrative about how I came to inhabit a fictional world This absorbing memoir explores the first half of writer Fiona Kidman s life notably in Kerikeri amid the sharp citric scent of orange groves bright heat and the shadow of Asia at the end of Darwin Road From the distance of France where Kidman spent time as the Katherine Mansfield Fellow in Menton she reconsiders the past weaving personal reflection and experience with the history of the places where she lived particularly the fascinating northern settlements of Kerikeri and Waipu and further south the cities of Rotorua and Wellington Her story crosses paths with those of numerous different New Zealanders from the Tuhoe prophet Rua Kenana to descendants of the migration from Scotland led by a charismatic Presbyterian minister to other writers and significant friends We learn of Kidman s struggles to establish herself as a writer and to become part of different communities and how each worked their way into her fiction At the End of Darwin Road is a vivid memoir of place and family and of becoming a writer I was certain that I would continue to write if possible every day of my life
