Latham Diaries Mark Latham, 2011-04-01 Here are the political diaries of one of Australia s most promising national leaders published within twelve months of his resignation from office an historic first The Latham Diaries are searingly honest bulletins from the front line of Labor politics They provide a unique view into the life of a man the Party and the nation at a crucial time in Australian history Mark Latham resigned from parliament in January 2005 after only fourteen months as Leader of the Opposition amid bitter post election recrimination and his own ill health From the beginning of his career he was viewed by many observers as the ALP s resident intellectual and larrikin the great hope of a new generation with the drive and talent to become prime minister So why did his career end so abruptly As The Latham Diaries reveal the rising tide of public cynicism about politics the cult of celebrity the dangerous liaison between politics and the media and the sickness at the heart of the Labor machine all played their part As did Latham s own errors as he candidly records in these diaries This is a riveting chronicle of life inside politics the backroom deals the frontroom conniving the bitter defeat of idealism and the triumph of opportunism The Latham Diaries is not just the story of the Labor Party in the last years of the twentieth century and the early twenty first century but a sobering account of the state of Australian democracy 100 years after Federation home buyers Asia Today ,1993 African Witchcraft and Global Asylum-Seeking Katherine Luongo,2023-04-17 This book analyzes how over the last two decades immigration regimes in three primary refugee receiving states in the Global North Canada Australia and the United Kingdom have engaged with allegations about witchcraft driven violence made by asylum seekers coming from Anglophone countries across the African continent The work intervenes at the nexus of anthropological historical legal developmental and human rights literatures to offer fresh insights into extrajudicial violence and global migration Taking witchcraft based asylum cases as its focal point it argues that the recent dramatic expansion in claims to refugee protection under the particular social group category of the 1951 UN Refugee Convention reflects immigration authorities increasing willingness to consider how legally recognizable persecution can derive from cultural practices and beliefs Reflecting critically on such cases it advances understandings of how witchcraft beliefs and practices have persisted as significant engines of violence in the contemporary world It sheds light both on the limits of legal pluralism and cultural relativism in asylum adjudication and on how social scientific expertise contributes not simply to the flow of ideas but also to the channelling of people across national cultural and epistemological boundaries The book will be essential

 Coco is a vivacious and enthusiastic romantic on a determined search for the one true love of her life At about two times the age of a regular princess or even more she fearlessly pursues her fairy tale ending by embracing the paradoxes and age defying opportunities offered by the modern age Bolstered by the notions that fifty is the new forty and divorced is the new single she ventures into the medium of the internet a space where all things old are excitingly renewed to search for the one The fairyland of online dating proves to be populated by characters very much akin to those found in fairy tales of old There are some trolls and other downright dastardly types and others of beastly appearance who turn out to be kindly There are also some wily witches who try to trap and ensnare Fortunately the fairy godmothers BFFs mentored Coco through the Black Forest So will she find the dashing Prince Charming and live happily ever after Read on and see Australia's Forgotten Frontier Chris Viner-Smith,2007 The author describes his life as a Patrol Officer in the 1960s in primitive areas of Papua New Guinea Some of the duties included supervising the building of roads bridges houses airstrips wharves and hospitals
