Visual Computing Toshiyasu L. Kunii, 2013-04-17 This volume presents the proceedings of the 10th International Conference of the Computer Graphics Society CG International 92 Visual Computing Integrating Computer Graphics with Computer Vision held at Kogakuin University Tokyo in Japan from June 22-26, 1992. Since its foundation in 1983, this conference has continued to attract high quality research articles in all aspects of computer graphics and its applications. Previous conferences in this series were held in Japan 1983, 1987, in Switzerland 1988, in the United Kingdom 1989, in Singapore 1990, and in the United States of America 1991. Future CG International conferences are planned in Switzerland 1993, in Australia 1994, and in the United Kingdom 1995. It has been the editor's dream to research the integration of computer graphics with computer vision through data structures. The conference the editor put together in Los Angeles in 1975 involving the UCLA and IEEE Computer Societies had to spell out these three areas explicitly in the conference title: computer graphics, pattern recognition, and data structures, as well as in the title of the proceedings published by IEEE Computer Society Press. In 1985, the editor gave the name visual computer to machines having all the three functionalities as seen in the journal under that name from Springer. Finally, the research in integrating visual information processing has now reached reality as seen in this proceedings of CG International 92. Chapters on virtual reality and on tools and environments provide examples.

The Woman with the German Accent Anita Gertrude Roesch Plutte, 2011 Many East Germans illegally escaped through Berlin before the wall was built. Freedom was possible if one could convince the guards there was a good reason to enter the Western side. Anita Plutte was one of those who found a way. It was December 1955 and I had just said a long, tearful, fearful good-bye to my sister Renate. I found myself walking across the Berlin bridge with Frau Fischer. I hoped I was doing the right thing. When we got about halfway across, a young guard stopped us by holding up his hand and blocking our path. "Where are you going? How long will you be there? What is the purpose of your visit?" The blonde guard on the bridge on the East Berlin side was probably only 20 years old, just a little younger than I was at the time. My mouth was dry from the nervousness I was feeling. My throat was closed; I could not answer. My heart was pounding so hard I could feel it pushing against my chest. My clothes were sticking to my back from the nervous sweat. I just looked down; I could not meet his eye. What I was about to do was so against my nature yet from somewhere within I was determined to try. ABOUT THE AUTHOR Anita Plutte resides in Southeastern Pennsylvania at a cozy retirement community. Writing has become one of her passionate hobbies. She grew up in Germany during WWII and escaped from East Germany as a young adult searching for peace and happiness. The rosy life she imagined she would have in the United States never became a reality. As a result of trials and disappointments, she realized that true happiness could only be found in knowing God and Jesus Christ
