- 1 In this book firstly the Holy Scriptures are proposed then the teachings of St John Chrysostom And finally reasoning is applied to the common people
- 2 Reasoning is not relied on under any article because there is similar material under other articles and therefore the reader is referred to discussions on other topics
- 3 Vices for all are not vile for everyone such as murder robbery robbery violence adultery fornication and others like them because everyone recognizes them for great vices but they only consider some vices that people especially of this century do not recognize for small or almost completely vices but which no less than the aforementioned ones prevent salvation and there are other serious troubles due to wine such as anger envy extortion love of money slander as you can see below
- 4 It is believed here what Christian duty consists of common and mutual which requires faith hope and love from us also rely the fruits of love that is mercy reconciliation with one s neighbor forgiveness of sins for one s neighbor contempt of the world patience and so on
- 5 In some places only the essence of the teaching of St Chrysostom and not the exact words of the holy teacher rely
- 6 Reasoning is simple and concise simple for better understanding by the common people briefly so that it is not boring for the reader to read more often
- 7 If anyone finds something rude in any reasoning he readily declares that benefit is sought here not pleasure salvation not human pleasures
- 8 If someone with an enlightened mind beyond expectations finds something worthy of correction then this mistake is my poor mind and I ask you to ascribe to my will
