Boutilier, 1978 Mission, Church, and Sect in Oceania Association for Social Anthropology in Oceania, 1984 This volume co published with the Association for Social Anthropology in Oceania highlights the enormous complexity of the missionizing process in Oceania in the 19th and 20th centuries The Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions, Volume IV Jehu J. Hanciles, 2019-03-07 The five volume Oxford History of Protestant Dissenting Traditions series is governed by a motif of migration out of England It first traces organized church traditions that arose in England as Dissenters distanced themselves from a state church defined by diocesan episcopacy the Book of Common Prayer the Thirty Nine Articles and royal supremacy but then follows those traditions as they spread beyond England and also traces newer traditions that emerged downstream in other parts of the world from earlier forms of Dissent Secondly it does the same for the doctrines church practices stances toward state and society attitudes toward Scripture and characteristic patterns of organization that also originated in earlier English Dissent but that have often defined a trajectory of influence independent ecclesiastical organizations Volume IV examines the globalization of dissenting traditions in the twentieth century During this period Protestant Dissent achieved not only its widest geographical reach but also the greatest genealogical distance from its point of origin Covering Africa Asia the Middle East America Europe Latin America and the Pacific this collection provides detailed examination of Protestant Dissent as a globalizing movement Contributors probe the radical shifts and complex reconstruction that took place as dissenting traditions encountered diverse cultures and took root in a multitude of contexts many of which were experiencing major historical change at the same time This authoritative overview unambiguously reveals that Dissent was transformed as it travelled The Anthropology of Morality in Melanesia and Beyond John Barker, 2016-04-01 The Anthropology of Morality in Melanesia and Beyond examines how Melanesians experience and deal with moral dilemmas and challenges Taking Kenelm Burridge s seminal work as their starting point the contributors focus upon public situations and types of people that exemplify key ethical contradictions for members of moral communities While returning to some classical concerns such as the roles of big men and sorcerers the book opens new territory with richly textured ethnographic studies and theoretical reviews that explore the interface between the values associated with indigenous village life and the ethical orientations associated with Christianity the state the marketplace and other facets of modernity A major contribution to the emerging field of the anthropology of morality the volume includes some of the most prominent scholars working in the discipline today including Bruce Knauft Joel Robbins F G Bailey Deborah Gewertz and Frederick Errington The Austronesians Peter Bellwood, James J. Fox, Darrell Tryon, 2006-09-01 The Austronesian speaking population of the world are estimated to number more than 270 million people living in a broad swathe around half the globe from Madagascar to Easter Island and from Taiwan to New Zealand The seventeen papers in this volume provide a general survey of these diverse populations focusing on their common origins and historical transformations The papers examine current ideas on the linguistics prehistory anthropology and recorded history of the Austronesians The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church Andrew Louth,2022-02-17 Uniquely authoritative and wide ranging in its scope The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church is the indispensable reference work on all aspects of the Christian Church It contains over 6 500 cross referenced A Z entries and offers unrivalled coverage of all aspects of this vast and often complex subject from theology churches and denominations patristic scholarship and the bible to the church calendar and its organization popes archbishops other church leaders saints and mystics In this new edition great efforts have been made to increase and strengthen coverage of non Anglican denominations for example non Western European Christianity as well as broadening the focus on Christianity and the history of churches in areas beyond Western Europe In particular there have been extensive additions with regards to the Christian Church in Asia Africa Latin America North America and Australasia Significant updates have also been included on topics such as liturgy Canon Law recent international developments non Anglican missionary activity and the increasingly important area of moral and pastoral theology among many others Since its first appearance in 1957 the ODCC has established itself as an essential resource for ordinands clergy and members of religious orders and an invaluable tool for academics teachers and students of church history and theology as well as for the general reader

Mimesis and Pacific Transcultural Encounters Jeannette Mageo,Elfriede Hermann,2017-10-01 How do images circulating in Pacific cultures and exchanged between them and their many visitors transform meanings for all involved This fascinating collection explores how through mimesis wayfarers and locales alike borrow images from one another to expand their cultural repertoire of meanings or borrow images from their own past to validate their identities

Contextualizing Theology in the South Pacific Randall G. Prior,2019-07-10 This book engages with a widespread contemporary dilemma how do we do theology in a context where the cultures of the people are oral and not literate The nations of the South Pacific from their missionary beginnings inherited an approach to theology that was dominated by Western cultural categories The global movement of contextualization began to impact upon Pacific churches in the 1960s and challenged this inherited approach Significant changes have resulted but the dilemma has remained The dominant approach is still one that is defined by and better suited to literate cultures The consequence is that theology remains an alien enterprise distant from the life of the local churches and distant from the hearts and minds of the indigenous people In facing the dilemma this book exposes the fundamental differences between primary oral cultures and primary literate cultures and identifies the key factors that lie at the heart of the theological problem By addressing each of these in turn the author then paves the way ahead He offers a methodology for theology that is rooted within the oral cultural context of the South Pacific and potentially in any context where oral cultures are the norm The consequences for theology and for theological education are profound Rethinking Women's Roles Denise O'Brien, Sharon W. Tiffany, 2023-04-28 This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1984 The Covenant Makers Doug Munro, Andrew Thornley, 1996 Unequal Lives Nicholas A. Bainton, Debra McDougall, Kalissa Alexeyeff, John Cox, 2021-01-18 As we move further into the twenty first century we are witnessing both the global extensification and local intensification of inequality Unequal Lives deals with the particular dilemmas of inequality in the Western Pacific The authors focus on four dimensions of inequality the familiar triad of gender race and class and the often neglected dimension of generation Grounded in meticulous long term ethnographic enquiry and deep awareness of the historical contingency of these configurations of inequality this volume illustrates the multidimensional multiscale and epistemic nature of contemporary inequality This collection is a major contribution to academic and political debates about the perverse effects of inequality which now ranks among the greatest challenges of our time The inspiration for this volume derives from the breadth and depth of Martha Macintyre's remarkable scholarship The contributors celebrate Macintyre's groundbreaking work which exemplifies the explanatory power ethical force and pragmatism that ensures the relevance of anthropological research to the lives of others and to understanding the global condition Unequal Lives is an impressive collection by Melanesianist anthropologists with reputations for theoretical sophistication ethnographic imagination and persuasive writing It brilliantly illuminates all aspects of the multifaceted scholarship of Martha Macintyre whose life and teaching are also highlighted in the commentaries tributes and interview included in the volume Robert J Foster Professor of Anthropology and Visual and Cultural Studies Richard L Turner Professor of Humanities University of Rochester Inspired by Martha Macintyre's work the contributors to Unequal Lives show that to theorise inequality is a measured project one that requires rescaling its exercise over several decades in order to recognise the reality of inequality as it is known in social relations and to document it critically unravelling their own readiness to misjudge what they see from the lives that are lived by the people with whom they have lived and studied This fine volume shows how the ordinariness of everyday work and care can be a chimera wherein the apparent reality of inequality might mislead less critical reports to obscure its very account From reading it we learn that such unrelenting questioning of what makes lives unequal becomes the very analytic for better understanding lives as they are lived Karen M Sykes Professor of Anthropology University of Manchester Pathways to Heaven Holger Jebens, 2006-09-01 How does global Christianity relate to processes of globalisation and modernization and what form does it take in different local settings These questions have lately proved to be of increasing interest to many scholars in the social sciences and humanities This study examines the tensions antagonisms and outright confrontations that can occur within local Christian communities upon the arrival of global versions of fundamentalism and it does so through a rich and in depth ethnographic study of a single case that of Pairundu a small and remote Papua New Guinean village whose population accepted Catholicism after first being contacted in the late 1950s and subsequently participated in a charismatic movement before more and more members of the younger generation started to separate themselves from their respective catholic families and to convert to one of the most radical and fastest growing religious groups not only in contemporary Papua New Guinea but world wide the Seventh Day Adventist Church This case study of local Christianity as a lived religion contributes to an understanding of the social and cultural dynamics that increasingly incite and shape religious conflicts on a global scale Semisi Nau, the Story of My Life

Semisi Nau,1996 Tradition and Christianity Ben Burt,2021-09-01 Burt studies the effects of the 19th century labour trade colonial subjugation and the subsequent Christian conversion He examines the anti colonial Maasina Rule movement of the 1940s and finally illustrates the subsequent efforts of Kwara ae leaders to regain their self determination and to reaffirm the values of tradition under Christianity The Kwara ae example of colonialism and Christianity is part of the broader experience of Melanesia and of other peoples in the Third World who once lived a tribal life The detailed local focus based on a year of fieldwork provides valuable evidence essential to a wider comparative analysis of colonial history and the continuing development of indigenous Christianity from an anthropological and a historical perspective Tradition and Christianity explores how and why a Pacific Islands people fiercely attached to the tradition of their ancestors have transformed their society by changing their religion The Mission of Development ,2018-05-29 The Mission of Development interrogates the complex relationships between Christian mission and international development in Asia from the 19th century to the new millennium Through historically and ethnographically grounded case studies contributors examine how missionaries have adapted to and shaped the age of development and processes of technocratisation as well as how mission and development have sometimes come to be cast in opposition The volume takes up an increasingly prominent strand in contemporary research that reverses the prior occlusion of the entanglements between religion and development It breaks new ground through its analysis of the techno politics of both development and mission and by focusing on the importance of engagements and encounters in the field in Asia Mary, the Devil, and Taro Juliana Flinn,2010-01-31

Catholicism like most world religions is patriarchal and its official hierarchies and sacred works too often neglect the lived experiences of women Looking beyond these texts Juliana Flinn reveals how women practice interpret and shape their own Catholicism on Pollap Atoll part of Chuuk State in the Federated States of Micronesia She focuses in particular on how the Pollapese shaping of Mary places value on indigenous notions of mothering that connote strength active participation in food production and the ability to provide for one s family Flinn begins with an overview of the Feast of the Immaculate Conception on Pollap and an introduction to Mary who is celebrated by islanders not as a biologized mother but as a productive one resulting in an image of strength rather than meekness For Pollapese women Mary is a vanquisher of Satan a provider for her children and a producer of critical resources namely taro The Feast of the Immaculate Conception validates and celebrates local notions of motherhood in ways that highlight productive activities The role of women as producers in the community is extolled but the event also provides and sanctions new opportunities for women allowing them to speak publicly exhibit creativity and influence the behavior of others A chapter devoted to the imagery of Mary and its connections to Pollapese notions of motherhood is followed by a conclusion that examines the implications of these for women s ongoing productive roles especially in comparison with Western notions and contexts in which women have been removed or excluded from production Mary the Devil and Taro contributes significantly to the study of women s religion and the appropriation of Christianity in local contexts It will be welcomed by not only anthropologists and other scholars concerned with religion in the Pacific but also those who study change in gender roles and Marian devotions in cross cultural perspectives

Christianity, Islam, and Nationalism in Indonesia Charles E. Farhadian, 2005 As the largest Muslim country in the world Indonesia is marked by an extraordinary diversity in language ancestry culture religion and ways of life Christianity Islam and Nationalism in Indonesia focuses on the Christian Dani of West Papua providing a social and ethnographic history of the most important indigenous population in the troubled province It presents a fascinating overview of the Dani s conversion to Christianity examining the social religious and political uses to which they have put their new religion While its indigenous population is Papuan and its dominant religions are Christianity and animism West Papua contains a growing number of Papuan Muslims Farhadian provides the first study of this highland Papuan group in an urban context which helps distinguish it from the typical highland Papuan ethnography Incorporating cultural and structural approaches the book affords a fascinating insight into the complex relationship between Christianity Islam and nationalism

Tulagi Clive Moore, 2019-09-24 Tulagi was the capital of the British Solomon Islands Protectorate between 1897 and 1942 The British withdrawal from the island during the Pacific War its capture by the Japanese and the American reconquest left the island s facilities damaged beyond repair After the war Britain moved the capital to the American military base on Guadalcanal which became Honiara The Tulagi settlement was an enclave of several small islands the permanent population of which was never more than 600 300 foreigners one third of European origin and most of the remainder Chinese and an equivalent number of Solomon Islanders Thousands of Solomon Islander males also passed through on their way to work on plantations and as boat crews hospital patients and prisoners The history of the Tulagi enclave provides an understanding of the origins of modern Solomon Islands Tulagi was also a significant outpost of the British Empire in the Pacific which enables a close analysis of race sex and class and the process of British colonisation and government in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries
