When Jane Richards woke up bound and blindfolded she just knew it had to be a mistake. She was a small town librarian after all. Who'd want to kidnap her? Little did she know that her striking resemblance to Elena, the queen of Vendari, would result in her being whisked away to parts unknown and coerced into acting as Elena's double. Jane's only ally was the majorly sexy Major Lucius McConneghy. But could she trust him? Lucius had sworn to protect Jane no matter what. But with death threats aimed at the real Elena, keeping Jane out of trouble wouldn't be easy. At first, Lucius's promise was professional, but as the mission progressed and his attraction to the surprisingly brave Jane became impossible to ignore, he couldn't prevent it from becoming personal.

The Baptist Home Mission Monthly, 1897      Cases Argued and Decided in the Supreme Court of the United States, 1921      Ministry Makeover Rosario Picardo, 2015-02-16
Ministry Makeover examines the decline within the church, especially the United Methodist Church (UMC), and some causes for this decline. It calls for a reforming of United Methodist structure and polity by drawing more attention to the value of the bi-vocational model of ministry and a re-visitation of the Wesleyan United Brethren view and historical perspective. This book establishes a solid theological foundation upon which to build this shift, and it goes a step beyond typical ecclesiology: the study of the church to identify Trinitarian theology as the basis for the practice of the church. In turn, this text reveals bi-vocational ministry and support of new congregations as not only a viable option but also arguably the model towards which the church is heading. These insights will transform the church and lead to more effective church ministry with respect to resources, structure, and reach in a post-Christendom world context. Picardo uses Embrace Church, Lexington, KY, as a case study and incorporates his experiences into this text in order to show how these implications have played out in a true bi-vocational church plant context.
