Mission On The Way Issues In Mission Theology:

Mission on the Way Charles Edward van Engen, 2007 For the past thirty years mission theology has taken a backseat to mission practice Recently however people of all theological stripes have begun to reexamine the theological presuppositions that underlie the mission enterprise In Mission on the Way Charles Van Engen masterfully articulates the contours of mission theology The result is a complete investigation of evangelical mission theology as it relates to 1 biblical and narrative theology 2 cultural context 3 ecclesiology 4 world councils 5 religious pluralism 6 interaction with competing theologies and 7 the overall task of ministry

Mission on the Way Charles E. Van Engen, 1996-12-01 An evangelical authority on church mission encounters the issues and content of tomorrow's missions theology in a series of essays Evaluating the Church Growth Movement Zondervan, 2010-06-01 What exactly is the Church Growth movement This timely volume in the Counterpoints series addresses the history of the movement that has become such an enormous shaping force on the Western church today and it explores in a roundtable forum of leading voices five main perspectives on the classic Church Growth movement Effective Evangelism View presented by Elmer Towns Gospel in Our Culture View presented by Craig Van Gelder Centrist View presented by Charles Van Engen Reformist View presented by Gailyn Van Rheen Renewal View presented by Howard Snyder Each view is first presented by its proponent then critiqued by the co contributors The interactive and fair minded format allows the reader to consider the strengths and weaknesses of each view and draw informed personal conclusions Evaluating the Church Growth Movement concludes with reflections by three seasoned pastors who have grappled with the practical implications of Church Growth The Counterpoints series presents a comparison and critique of scholarly views on topics important to Christians that are both fair minded and respectful of the biblical text Each volume is a one stop reference that allows readers to evaluate the different positions on a specific issue and form their own educated opinion

The State of Missiology Today Charles E. Van Engen, 2016-10-02 The 2015 Missiology Lectures at Fuller Theological Seminary marked the fiftieth anniversary of the School of Intercultural Studies The papers from that conference explore the developments and transformations in the study and practice of mission as contributors chart the current shape of mission studies and its prospects in the twenty first century Controversies in Mission Rochelle Cathcart Scheuermann, Edward L. Smither, 2016-09-15 Crossing social cultural and religious barriers and making disciples of all nations has probably never been without some level of controversy This book is an attempt to hit the pause button on this rapid paced world and to reflect on how we do mission especially in light of the new layers of complexity that globalization brings While the contributors engage in new aspects of mission and cultural encounter unique to the twenty first century the underlying issues of each chapter are age old topics that have reared their heads at various times throughout history priorities in mission power struggles perspectives on cultural others and contextualization With that in mind our aims are twofold 1 to carefully consider issues causing tension and contention within current mission thought practice and strategy and then 2 to engage in serious but charitable dialogue for the sake of God's mission and the salvation of all peoples

Contemporary Mission Theology Gallagher, Rogert L., Hertig, Paul, 2017-02-16 A resource for the classroom that specifically addresses the missiological issues of the twenty first century this collection in honor of Charles E Van Engen features contributions from practically all the leading lights of the missiology world Scholars including Stephen Bevans Roger Schroeder van Thanh Nguyen Mary Motte Gerald Anderson Scott Sunquist and many others offer their insights and reflections focusing on the impact of cultural and demographic changes on the nature and purpose of Christian mission

Publisher Communicating God's Word in a Complex World Robert Daniel Shaw, Charles Edward van Engen, 2003 The authors say that contemporary proclaimers of God's word can model their approach after that of the writers of scripture who reinterpreted and restated their received texts for their audiences Doing Diaspora Missiology Toward "Diaspora Mission Church" Luther Jeom Ok Kim, 2016-01-05 In U S Population Projections 2005 2050 Pew Research Center reported that The nation's population will rise to 438 million in 2050 from 296 million in 2005 and fully 82% of the growth during this period will be due to immigrants arriving from 2005 to 2050 and their descendants This shows that it is essential to study and understand how our mission especially in the context of the USA called the nation of immigrants will respond to this huge mobility of immigrant diaspora So far there has been emphasis on doing diaspora missiology however there is no practical implications and application in local church setting Now mission is next door which implies that the ministry of the local church should be emphasized for 21st contemporary mission This book provides detailed frameworks and methods of diaspora missiology within local churches called diaspora mission church According to the Bible all human beings are theologically and spiritually diaspora irrespective of ethnicity because they were banished from the Garden of Eden and scattered around the world in God's judgment Now they walk toward the encounter with Jesus Christ preach the gospel as the seed of Kingdom and finally move toward heaven Global Migration and Christian Faith M. Daniel Carroll

R., Vincent E. Bacote, 2021-12-29 Human history is the history of migration Never before however have the numbers of people on the move been so large nor the movement as global as it is today How should Christians respond biblically theologically and missiologically to the myriad of daunting challenges triggered by this new worldwide reality This volume brings together significant scholars from a variety of fields to offer fresh insights into how to engage migration What makes this book especially unique is that the authors come from across Christian traditions and from different backgrounds and experiences each of whom makes an important contribution to current debates How has the Christian church responded to migration in the past How might the Bible orient our thinking What new insights about God and faith surface with migration and what new demands are placed now upon God's people in a world in so much need Global Migration and Christian Faith points in the right direction to grapple with those questions and move forward in constructive ways Cross-Cultural Missional

Partnership Joshua Bowman, 2023-03-28 Cross cultural partnerships in today's global environment are both challenging and

necessary Misunderstanding and miscommunication often lead to conflict between culturally diverse groups Christians must understand and evaluate their own culture the culture of others and the text of Scripture itself while remaining faithful to Scripture and relevant to culture Unmediated tensions combined with relational isolation lead to a myriad of problems This study proposes cross cultural missional partnership as a relationship that mediates these tensions thereby encouraging mutual faithful engagement in the mission of God Cross cultural tensions may never disappear but within a healthy partnership partners can assist one another in understanding and responding faithfully to Scripture Partners help one another more faithfully interpret and apply Scripture leading to obedience to God s will and engagement in God s mission within unique and diverse contexts The Revelation of God Among the Unevangelized Christopher R. Little,2000 Who Do the Ngimurok Say That They Are? Kevin P. Lines,2018-04-12 How do missiologists describe the cosmologies of those that Christianity encounters around the world Our descriptions often end up filtered through our own Western religious categories Furthermore indigenous Christians adopt these Western religious categories This presents the problem of local Christianities described by Kwame Bediako as those that have not known how to relate to their traditional culture in terms other than those of denunciation or of separateness Kevin Lines s phenomenological study of local religious specialists in Turkana Kenya not only challenges our Western categories by revealing a more authentic complexity of the issues for local Christians and Western missionaries but also provides a model for continued use of phenomenology as a valued research method in larger missiological studies Additionally this study points to the ways that local Christians and traditional religious practitioners interpret Western missionaries through local religious categories Clearly missionaries missiologists anthropologists and religious studies scholars need to do a much more careful job of studying and describing the contextually specific phenomena of traditional religious specialists before relying on meta categories that come out of our Western theology or older overly simplified ethnographies The research from this current study of Turkana religious specialists begins that process in the Turkana context and offers a model for future studies in contexts where traditional religion and Christianity intersect Practicing Witness Benjamin T. Conner,2011-07-06 How might a church infused with missional theology change the way it approaches Christian practices Interacting both with the missional theology of George Hunsberger and Darrell Guder and with the theology of Christian practices laid out by Craig Dykstra and Dorothy Bass Benjamin T Conner argues that allowing these two disciplines to inform one another can enhance the nature of the church s witness its congregational discipleship and its theological education Framing his work with real world narratives and applications inspired by his work as a minister to adolescents with special needs Conner shows how a practical missional mindset can redefine and reinvigorate the spirit and purpose of a congregation Converging Destinies Stuart Dauermann,2017-03-14 While all have reason to celebrate the greening of Christian Jewish relations since the Shoah and the promulgation of Nostra Aetate 4 few will deny that much work remains to be done by Christians and Jews seeking the best way forward that they might best serve God's purposes in the world the mission of God This book addresses that need by first surveying how each community has historically conceived of its own mission and from that stance assigned an identity to the other The text illuminates how such construals have often impeded progress and therefore need to be upgraded and supplemented But how shall this be done Converging Destinies proposes an eschatological vision and practical suggestions to summon Jews and Christians to prepare for that day when each will be both commended and reproved by the judge of all sounding a call for more determined action greater humility and cooperative effort as together Jews and Christians serve the mission of God accountable to him for how they have served him and each other in the world that he has created according to his will

MissionShift David Hesselgrave, Ed Stetzer, 2010-07-01 Essays on modern missions issues by Charles Van Engen Paul Hiebert and Ralph Winter with responses from other missional leaders edited by David Hesselgrave and Ed Stetzer

Engaging Neighbors and Nations Tim Silberman, 2024-03-27 Evangelical churches are widely known for their commitment to mission locally and to the ends of the earth However in the last century there have been profound theological and sociological changes that have impacted mission practice Church and mission leaders have encouraged Christians to respond to the need for mission locally especially as church decline accelerates in much of the Western world Yet others are concerned that global mission involvement is being neglected in many local churches This study explores the factors influencing local church participation in mission both locally and around the world Through an in depth analysis of the practices and perspectives among evangelical churches in Australia the author identifies a range of theological missiological and organizational influences on mission practice Though beliefs about the church the world and mission are important understanding organizational principles social capital and the power of relational networks provides invaluable insights into church mission practice This book is for those who long to see local churches committed to engaging both their neighbors and the nations in mission growing our understanding of how to encourage helpful church practices for the sake of Christ

African Voices Israel Oluwale Olofinjana, 2017-08-30 Introducing an emerging academic field known as African British Theologies this publication explores the significant presence of African Christianity in Britain Featuring contributions from twelve scholarly African pastors engaged in ministry and theology in Britain this book is a unique expression of theology from African Christians contextualizing the gospel for a multicultural British society Under three key areas of missiology contextual constructive theology and transformative practical theology the contributors interact with topics such as reverse missiology African pneumatology prosperity gospel and urban mission This book rigorously examines new contexts of Christianity and articulates new theological perspectives that are required to understand twenty first century ministry not only in urban Britain but also across the world

Identity in Community Paul Kwong, 2011 The term ContactZone was coined in postcolonial discourse to signify the place where cultures and religions meet It implies that first contact cultural religious exchange and conflict have always been determined by power relations Through making use of communication theories hermeneutics and aesthetics intercultural theology generates new terminologies and theoretical tools to explore these interactions Its scope ranges from issues such as dialogue and syncretism to fundamentalism and ethnicity Perspectives of culture religion race class and gender alike are involved in the necessary multi axial approach ContactZone is going to create a space where a choir of multiple voices is responding to the challenges of the cultural religious pluralism of the 21st century Archbishop Paul Kwong 1950 develops the idea of identity in community as central to the mission and theological agenda of Christians in Hong Kong In a wide ranging multidisciplinary study he analyzes diverse perspectives on the territory s recent history and compares the methodological approaches of local theologians with contextual theologies from other parts of the world He argues that the overlapping cultural and religious identities of Christians in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region SAR of China can empower Hong Kong people to embrace rather than to exclude differences and otherness so that they can accept and live out our their identities in community without having to make a choice for one among the many

Roland Allen II Steven Richard Rutt, 2018-04-25 In Roland Allen A Theology of Mission a companion work with Roland Allen A Missionary Life Steven Richard Rutt completes a portrait of Roland Allen 1868 1947 in this intellectual biography Extensive archival evidence discloses how apostolic principles formed the basis for Allen s missionary theology Although it is well known that Allen s hermeneutical ideas were born of Pauline principles Steven Richard Rutt expounds the ways in which Allen s missionary experiences had profoundly impacted Allen s theological beliefs Allen wrote about his findings in letters sermons articles and books some of which were never published Allen s writings tenaciously challenged the methodology of colonial missionary societies and exposed the causes hindering Church expansion failures occurred in missions due to the imposition of Western missionary paternalism and institutional devolution Allen advocated the empowerment of indigenous churches to apply the principles of self government and self support He asserted the importance of the Pauline concept of Spirit and order which encompasses both the doctrine of the Holy Spirit as well as that of the Church Allen s diagnosis of the missionary situation and the proposed ways to restore apostolic order presented contemporary controversy but since his death we have seen the importance of Allen s ideas in Mission studies grow steadily With an expert evaluation of Allen s theological insight Roland Allen A Theology of Mission also offers a superb contribution to the discipline of historical theology and historical missiology as Rutt delves into a contextual assay into the missionary landscape of the nineteenth and the twentieth centuries

Reaching the Resistant J. Dudley Woodberry, 1998 The lands where Muslims Jews and Christians have encountered each other are littered with the ruins of fortresses Each faith community built barriers to keep out the enemies of their faith The present studies look at the barriers erected by peoples considered resistant to the gospel and the bridges God is using to carry the gospel to them
