American teenagers millions of people between the ages of 13 and 17 have engaged in religious missions or service projects Building on this statistic the authors of TransforMission believe that short term mission is one way God is taking the gospel to the nations and concurrently transforming the lives of these student participants Writing to youth ministers missiologists church leaders adult volunteers and post high school students they assess strategies for further promoting this kind of involvement by exploring several questions What mechanisms is God employing to achieve this advance in mission What is taking place in the lives of believers who are obediently participating in the fulfillment of the Great Commission What are the theological and theoretical foundations for the life transformation that is occurring What is the most effective means of conducting short term mission experiences

Phantom of the Mission Pasquale De Marco, 2025-07-15 In the heart of San Francisco lies the Mission District a vibrant and diverse neighborhood with a rich history and culture From its humble beginnings as a working class enclave to its current status as a trendy destination the Mission has undergone a remarkable transformation This book takes readers on a journey through the Mission exploring its many facets and contradictions From its colorful Victorian houses and lively streets to its hidden alleys and forgotten corners the Mission is a place of contrasts and surprises Readers will meet the people who make the Mission such a special place from longtime residents who have witnessed the neighborhood's evolution to newcomers who are drawn to its unique charm They will also learn about the challenges facing the Mission from gentrification to crime and the efforts that are being made to address these challenges Phantom of the Mission is a comprehensive guide to one of San Francisco's most fascinating neighborhoods It is a must read for anyone who wants to understand the Mission's past present and future About the Author Pasquale De Marco is a writer and journalist who has lived in the Mission District for over 10 years He is passionate about the neighborhood and its people and he is committed to telling their stories If you like this book write a review

Women and Missions Lucia P. Towne, 1934 Networks for Faith Formation Steve Emery-Wright, Ed Mackenzie, 2017-05-19 The spiritual formation of young people can often focus on encouraging their personal spiritual practices and perhaps linking them to a local youth group While both are important Networks for Faith Formation argues that a far wider set of relationships are needed to help faith grow The aim of Networks for Faith Formation is to describe and commend eight key networks relational bonds that nurture and nourish faith The eight networks are bedroom practices personal faith church family friends mentors small groups events and gatherings and mission and service The description of each network draws on biblical studies practical theology and the social sciences and practical ideas for helping young people engage with such networks are included throughout the book In a context where some overlook the complexity of spiritual formation Networks for Faith Formation is an important resource for church leaders youth ministers and parents seeking to help young people grow in faith Since relational bonds are key for people of any age it can also help all within the church understand the need for relationships in spiritual growth

Integrating Mission and Strategy for Nonprofit Organizations James A. Phills Jr., 2005-07-21 This volume helps the leaders of nonprofit organizations apply the principles of general management to the special challenges they face particularly in the areas of mission strategy and execution In addition to helping nonprofit leaders think through important decisions and make concrete choices the book also provides a shared language and a discipline that can serve as the basis for more productive discussions between the individuals who lead nonprofits the business executives who serve on their boards and the philanthropists who support their organizations and programs
