Deep Splendor Robert P. Vande Kappelle, 2021-12-02 People concerned with spirituality are seekers instead of possessing truth they seek to be possessed by it Thus a fully spiritual person is forever learning and growing William Blake the seminal mystic poet who worked to bring about change both in the social order and in common ways of thinking taught that all we need to do is cleanse the doors of perception and we shall see things as they are infinite And nothing cleanses and enlarges the doors of perception like great literature Whether it be poetry a short story a novel historical fiction fantasy literature or biographical writing the literary experience is slightly beyond a reader's horizon of understanding When literature enhances spirituality as is true of the dozen or more selections examined in Deep Splendor each literary moment confounds in order to keep us forever enthralled forever longing The authors and works examined in this study explore timeless spiritual themes such as coming of age relationships self integration the struggle of good versus evil the nature of change and the corruptive aspects of power When we think about great literature it is easy to focus objectively on the literature itself on what makes literature bad or good However another essential distinction involves the reader replacing the category good book with that of good reader As master teacher C S Lewis wrote a quality of good readers is that they seek an enlargement of their being Deep Splendor will teach you how to read great literature and how to be a good reader

Let There Be Light Doug Irmen, 2021-05-21 The potentially catastrophic problems we face in the world today are the result of a massive spiritual failure Too many of us appear to have forgotten the real purpose we were born for in the first place which at its most basic level is to love and nurture ourselves and the earth But we re not really loving and nurturing when we cause the environment to decline and the climate to become inhospitable when we keep wasting money and resources by amassing petrifying weapons to fight horrific wars when we fail to take care of the weak and when we demonize each other with so much vitriol that nothing effective seems to get done We are out of control as a species Let There Be Light Saving Ourselves and Our Planet Through a Global Social Compact proposes that we tame the savageness of man by using the internet to adopt a universal Social Compact a grass roots spiritual and political movement that would operate as a Light Network to connect like minded people around the world in an urgent crusade to reverse the course their governments and societies have put them on Our Social Compact will funnel the core goodness we all have within us into a metaphorical ball of Light that beams out the conscience of mankind A conscience that says NO MORE to our current failure to get along and cooperate A conscience that will overwhelm our governments and societies with the message that NOW IS THE TIME for us to truly achieve the universal desire of mankind which is first of all to survive and then to come together to love and respect all life on earth The Light Network website www.lightnetwork.me is now under construction Although the Light Network will not be a formal legal entity its work will nonetheless be continuously felt throughout the world It will be a relentless force that tracks the issues that threaten our world and then shines its spiritual message onto the efforts that will be essential if we are to take back control of our destiny King Arthur in America Alan Lupack, Barbara Tapa Lupack, 1999 King Arthur in America analyzes the tremendous appeal of the Arthurian legends in America by examining the ways that Americans have found to democratize the Matter of Britain and to incorporate aspects of it not only into America's own mythologies but also into literature film social history and popular culture
