Living Well Now and in the Future Randall Curren, Ellen Metzger, 2018-02-02 A philosopher and a scientist propose that sustainability can be understood as living well together without diminishing opportunity to live well in the future Most people acknowledge the profound importance of sustainability but few can define it We are ethically bound to live sustainably for the sake of future generations but what does that mean In this book Randall Curren a philosopher and Ellen Metzger a scientist clarify normative aspects of sustainability Combining their perspectives they propose that sustainability can be understood as the art of living well together without diminishing opportunity to live well in the future Curren and Metzger lay out the nature and value of sustainability survey the problems catalog the obstacles and identify the kind of efforts needed to overcome them They formulate an ethic of sustainability with lessons for government organizations and individuals and illustrate key ideas with three case studies Curren and Metzger put intergenerational justice at the heart of sustainability discuss the need for fair as opposed to coercive terms of cooperation to create norms institutions and practices conducive to sustainability formulate a framework for a fundamental ethic of sustainability derived from core components of common morality and emphasize the importance of sustainability education The three illustrative case studies focus on the management of energy water and food systems examining the 2010 Gulf of Mexico oil spill Australia's National Water Management System and patterns of food production in the Mekong region of Southeast Asia

Understanding Attitudes to the European Community Miles Hewstone, 2011-04-14 This 1986 study presents an insightful perspective on public attitudes towards the European Community It contains a review of the findings from public opinion surveys of the time on this issue but goes beyond straightforward description to provide a real understanding of European attitudes A variety of social psychological theories are used to test a model of the structure underlying Community attitudes The original data reported in the present study parallel the findings from much larger representative and long term surveys of public opinion Thus Miles Hewstone is able to derive from his research a wide ranging analysis of cross national differences in attitudinal support the Community's impact on its citizens and the likely trends in attitude and voting behaviour At a time when the entry of Spain and Portugal had further expanded the Community's membership such issues were particularly timely and this clear and penetrating study especially welcome

Understanding Girls' Friendships, Fights And Feuds: A Practical Approach To Girls' Bullying Besag, Valerie, 2006-03-01 Girls bullying is more subtle and less physical than that perpetrated by boys however it can be just as powerful and the emotional repercussions of bullying among girls can be more destructive and longer lasting than the effects of more obvious forms of bullying Teachers report that quarrels between girls are far more time consuming and difficult to resolve than the disputes of boys yet not enough information is available to guide them on dealing with girls fighting and unhappiness caused by their relationships with other girls many of whom may have been their closest friends Understanding Girls' Friendships, Fights and Feuds illuminates the issue of girls bullying an issue that can cause a great deal of distress but which is sometimes ignored or dismissed by adults Drawing on close observations of girls behaviour Val Besag provides an in depth understanding of girls bullying exploring the mechanisms and language that girls use to entice some into their groups and exclude others The book offers detailed practical advice for dealing with girls bullying which will help both students and teachers to understand and combat different kinds of bullying as well as comprehensive guidance for preventing or reducing bullying activities among girls including Whole school approaches Programmes for developing emotional literacy and resilience Approaches for dealing with gangs Using methods such as art and drama Developing conflict resolution skills Student parent programmes Peer support programmes This is key reading for teachers trainee teachers educational psychologists and social workers academics and researchers in the field and others who have an interest in creating bully free schools and societies Understanding Early Years Education across the UK

COVID-19 in Manitoba Andrea Rounce,Karine Levasseur,2020-11-26 On 12 March 2020 Manitoba confirmed its first case of COVID 19 One week later a province wide state of emergency was declared ushering in a new sense of urgency and rarely used government powers to protect Manitobans from the devastating global reach of the novel coronavirus The wide ranging impacts of the pandemic have touched every facet of Manitoba society and provincial responsibility including health economic development social services and government operations COVID 19 has challenged the conventional policy making process complicating agenda setting and policy formulation adoption implementation and evaluation while governments have been under pressure to make swift decisions in life and death matters New programs must address urgent and shifting health and economic realities but also anticipate future waves of COVID 19 and potentially significant repercussions for future governments COVID 19 in Manitoba Public Policy Responses to the First Wave seeks to understand how Manitoba fared during the first months of the pandemic with twenty seven chapters that address key aspects of the pandemic and discuss how government policy can help lay the foundation for resiliency in the midst a continuing public health crisis This open access volume is an essential resource for citizens and policy makers alike as it identifies policy gaps and successes of Manitoba s early COVID response and points to strategies to prepare for future waves of the pandemic

Urban Livelihoods Tony Lloyd-Jones, Carole Rakodi, 2014-10-14 One of the most promising approaches to poverty reduction in developing countries is to encourage sustainable livelihoods for the poor This takes account of their opportunities and assets and the sources of their vulnerability Based on recent and extensive research this volume thoroughly assesses the value of the livelihoods approach to urban poverty The book reviews the situation and strategies of the urban poor and identifies the policies and practical programmes that work best Lasting improvements depend not just on economic development but on political commitment and structures that are responsive to the claims and needs of different groups of poor people

Strategic Public Relations Leadership Anne Gregory, Paul Willis, 2013-07-18 Public relations is operating in an increasingly challenging and complex environment Pressures from outside the organisation include new accountabilities empowered stakeholders increased public cynicism and a new communication landscape Internally there are increasing demands to demonstrate a return on investment alongside a requirement to coach and counsel senior managers exposed to these environmental pressures This context requires public relations professionals to be able to clearly articulate and demonstrate their own contribution to organisational effectiveness This textbook provides public relations leaders with a framework to do this as well as a checklist of essential capabilities which they must acquire and exhibit if they are to operate at the highest levels of any organisation This short textbook is suitable for aspiring practitioners MBA and other masters qualifications in public relations especially for those students who wish to pursue a successful career as a professional PR specialist able to operate strategically at the top of successful organisations

Knowledge Discovery in Databases: PKDD 2005 Alípio Jorge, Luís Torgo, Pavel Brazdil, Rui Camacho, João Gama, 2005-09-26 The European Conference on Machine Learning ECML and the European Conference on Principles and Practice of Knowledge Discovery in Databases PKDD were jointly organized this year for the fth time in a row after some years of mutual independence before After Freiburg 2001 Helsinki 2002 Cavtat 2003 and Pisa 2004 Porto received the 16th edition of ECML and the 9th PKDD in October 3 7 Having the two conferences together seems to be working well 585 different paper submissions were received for both events which maintains the high submission standard of last year Of these 335 were submitted to ECML only 220 to PKDD only and 30 to both Such a high volume of scientific work required a tremendous effort from Area Chairs Program Committee members and some additional reviewers On average PC members had 10 papers to evaluate and Area Chairs had 25 papers to decide upon We managed to have 3 highly qualified independent reviews per paper with very few exceptions and one additional overall input from one of the Area Chairs After the authors responses and the online discussions for many of the papers we arrived at the final selection of 40 regular papers for ECML and 35 for PKDD Besides these 32 others were accepted as short papers for ECML and 35 for PKDD This represents a joint acceptance rate of around 13% for regular papers and 25% overall We thank all involved for all the effort with reviewing and selection of papers Besides the core technical program ECML and PKDD had 6 invited speakers 10 workshops 8 tutorials and a Knowledge Discovery Challenge
