Mixed Blessings:

Mixed Blessings Rhoda Berlin, Harriet Cannon, 2013-11 Mixed Blessings introduces cultural concepts that affect relationships and realistic stories to illustrate how couples can solve conflicts This book is a guide book to help manage your cultural inheritance with insight and grace from back cover

Mixed Blessings Barbara Brown Taylor, 1998-01-25 In this new edition of her earliest collection of sermons Barbara Brown Taylor brings her down to earth wisdom and keen perspective to the Bible readings of the lectionary cycle Originally preached for the congregation of All Saints Episcopal Church in downtown Atlanta the topics of these sermons range from conversations with Abraham and Moses in the texts of the Hebrew scriptures to our awareness of the communion of saints and how to recognize a miracle when one comes our way

Mixed Blessing Chandra Crane, 2020-12-15 Chandra Crane has keenly felt the otherness of having a mixed multiethnic and multicultural background But those of us with a mixed heritage have the privilege and potential to serve the Lord through our unique experiences Crane explores what Scripture and history teach us about ethnicity and how we can bring all of ourselves to our sense of identity and calling

Tribal Television Dustin Tahmahkera, 2014-10-30 Native Americans have been a constant fixture on television from the dawn of broadcasting when the iconic Indian head test pattern was frequently used during station sign ons and sign offs to the present In this first comprehensive history of indigenous people in television sitcoms Dustin Tahmahkera examines the way Native people have been represented in the genre Analyzing dozens of television comedies from the United States and Canada Tahmahkera questions assumptions that Native representations on TV are inherently stereotypical and escapist From The Andy Griffith Show and F Troop to The Brady Bunch King of the Hill and the Native produced sitcom Mixed Blessings Tahmahkera argues that sitcoms not only represent Native people as objects of humor but also provide a forum for social and political commentary on indigenous settler relations and competing visions of America Considering indigenous people as actors producers and viewers of sitcoms as well as subjects of comedic portrayals Tribal Television underscores the complexity of Indian representations showing that sitcoms are critical contributors to the formation of contemporary indigenous identities and relationships between Native and non Native people

The Hamlet Fire Bryant Simon, 2020-07-23 For decades the small quiet town of Hamlet North Carolina thrived thanks to the railroad But by the 1970s it had become a postindustrial backwater a magnet for businesses in search of cheap labor and almost no oversight Imperial Food Products was one of those businesses The company set up shop in Hamlet in the 1980s Workers who complained about low pay and hazardous working conditions at the plant were silenced or fired But jobs were scarce in town so workers kept coming back and the company continued to operate with impunity Then on the morning of September 3 1991 the never inspected chicken processing plant a stone s throw from Hamlet s city hall burst into flames Twenty five people perished that day behind the plant s locked and bolted doors It remains one of the deadliest accidents ever in the history of the modern American food industry Eighty years after the Triangle Shirtwaist Fire industrial disasters were supposed to have been a thing of the past in the United States. However, as award-winning historian Bryant Simon shows, the pursuit of cheap food merged with economic decline in small towns across the South and the nation to devalue laborers and create perilous working conditions. The Hamlet fire and its aftermath reveal the social costs of antiunionism, lax regulations, and ongoing racial discrimination. Using oral histories, contemporary news coverage, and state records, Simon has constructed a vivid, potent, and disturbing social autopsy of this town, this factory, and this time that exposes how cheap labor, cheap government, and cheap food came together in a way that was destined to result in tragedy.

Faith to Follow Kate Meadows, 2020-11-24. While her husband pursued a four-year Master of Divinity degree from Concordia Seminary in St. Louis, Kate Meadows wondered how she fit into the process of her husband becoming a pastor. In the Lutheran Church Missouri Synod, only men can be ordained as pastors. The men who come to the seminary have a well-paved road ahead of them. The women who come with those men don't. As women, we ask ourselves: Who am I in this process, and where do I fit? Kate never envisioned herself as a pastor's wife; in fact, she wasn't sure she wanted to be one. Yet if God was leading her husband into the ministry, who was she to say no? And what was it about that term, pastor's wife, that made her uneasy anyway? What did it even mean to be a pastor's wife in the modern day? At the seminary, Kate started talking to other women who had faithfully followed their husbands on the path to ministry. Through a series of more than fifty interviews, she learned that the journey of becoming a pastor's wife is rich with questions, discovery, and joy. Faith to Follow chronicles the woman's experience of preparing to become a pastor's wife. It also may be a springboard for dialogue within churches across America about the importance of encouraging and cultivating future church leaders and raising up strong families in the Christian faith.

Love Wars Mary Irwin, 2025-02-06. This is the first dedicated overview of the international television romantic comedy genre. Mary Irwin builds on the critical work on cinematic romantic comedy to offer a dedicated critical analysis of the romantic comedy on the small screen. Drawing on series from the 1960s to the present day, Irwin presents five themed chapters around the theme of romantic love: from searching for it and finding it to the love wars of the book's title to finding love later in life and in places you didn't expect. Chapters explore the genre's key recurrent themes: evolving attitudes to love, relationships, sex, class, and money; feminism and post-feminism; changes in the nuclear family; dramatised through contrasting romantic relationships and shifting discourses of masculinity, situating them within the specific socio-historic and cultural context in which the series are set. Throughout, Irwin underscores the centrality of women, their friendships, and their personal and professional lives and experiences to the television romantic comedy genre, demonstrating that it is the prominence of female characters and their interests and concerns which have most significantly affected the genre's thematic focus. Crucially, this thematic approach allows for explorations both of similarities in representations to be found in series decades apart and the way in which such representations ebb and flow across time. Additionally, the international nature of the comedies selected also makes possible comparison beyond national boundaries.

The History of Women's Mosques in Chinese Islam Maria Jaschok, Shui Jingjun Shui, 2013-10-11 This is a study of Chinese Hui Muslim women's historic and unrelenting spiritual educational political and gendered drive for an institutional presence in Islamic worship and leadership a mosque of one's own as a unique feature of Chinese Muslim culture The authors place the historical origin of women's segregated religious institutions in the Chinese Islamic diaspora's fight for survival and in their crucial contribution to the cause of ethnic religious minority identity and solidarity Against the presentation of complex historical developments of women's own site of worship and learning the authors open out to contemporary problems of sexual politics within the wider society of socialist China and beyond to the history of Islam in all its cultural diversity
