Mobilizing for Peace Thomas R. Rochon, 2014-07-14 The crusade against nuclear weapons in Great Britain West Germany France and the Netherlands in the early 1980s dwarfed all previous protest movements in Western Europe in the postwar period What produced the demonstrations against NATO's decision in December 1979 to base 572 cruise and Pershing II missiles in five West European countries What generated the widespread support that the demonstrators enjoyed Contrary to the frequent claim that such political movements are a symptom of governmental crisis in the advanced industrial democracies Thomas Rochon develops the idea that they arise from a creative impulse and perform crucial functions of innovative criticism He concludes that the West European peace movement has ignited a public debate in which reduction or elimination of certain categories of nuclear weapons is taken seriously for the first time Among the topics examined are the sources of support for the peace movement in public opinion the types of people who joined or supported the movement and proposals they offered for a nonnuclear defense policy The author discusses the organization of the movement and its choice of tactics its impact on politics and the links between it and other institutions such as churches trade unions and political parties Originally published in 1988 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Mobilizing for Democracy Donatella della Porta, 2014-03-06 Strangely enough while the pictures used to illustrate the most recent wave of protests for democracy in North Africa represent mass protest research on social movements and democratization have rarely interacted This volume aims to fill this gap by looking at episodes of democratization through the lens of social movement studies Without assuming that democratization is always produced from below the author singles out different paths of democratization by looking at the ways in which the masses interact with the elites and protest with bargaining eventful democratization participated pacts and troubled democratization The main focus is on the first of the paths eventful democratization that is cases in which authoritarian regimes break down following often short but intense waves of protest Recognizing the particular power of some transformative events the analysis locates them within the broader mobilization processes including the multitude of less visible but still important protests that surround them Cognitive affective and relational mechanisms are singled out as transforming the contexts in which dissidents act In all three paths mobilization of resources framing processes and appropriation of opportunities will develop in action in different combinations The comparison of different cases within two waves of protests for democracy in Central Eastern Europe in 1989 and in the Middle East and North Africa in 2011 allows the author to theorize about causal mechanisms and conditions as they emerge in mobilizations for democracy

Orr, 2004-07-20 Events in Iraq Afghanistan and the Balkans have proved that failed and defeated states threaten the national security interests of the United States and the stability of entire regions But success in addressing these threats clearly depends on more than military might the post conflict period is equally crucial Case studies in this book examine the U S approach in Kosovo East Timor Sierra Leone Afghanistan and Iraq The book offers policy guidance on how to handle current reconstruction challenges and on building capacity to do a better job when America is inevitably called on to restore failed nations in the future      PEACE AND THE WORLD Dr. LI JIN WEI, 2025-03-14 One common thread ties us all together in the vast tapestry of human existence the yearning for peace This universal aspiration has echoed through the corridors of time resonating with the hearts of individuals across continents cultures and generations Peace and the World seeks to unravel the profound complexities surrounding this timeless pursuit inviting readers to a thought provoking journey traversing the landscapes of history culture and human experience As we delve into the pages of this exploration it becomes imperative to reflect on the very nature of peace What does it mean to us as individuals How does it manifest in the collective consciousness of societies worldwide To embark on this journey we must first acknowledge the multifaceted nature of peace which extends far beyond the absence of conflict Peace is not merely the quietude after a storm but a dynamic force that shapes our interactions societies and the world Our journey commences by peering into the annals of history where the yearning for peace has manifested in the rise and fall of civilizations the ebb and flow of empires and the timeless quest for balance amidst the chaos of existence From the ancient wisdom of sages to the diplomatic endeavours of politicians pursuing peace has been a guiding principle that transcends time limitations In examining history's chapters we find narratives of triumph and tragedy where the consequences of conflict and the dividends of peace stand as a testament to the choices we make as a collective Here in the crucible of our shared past the seeds of understanding are sown providing fertile ground for cultivating a future steeped in harmony As we navigate the contours of human civilization we encounter the rich tapestry of diverse cultures that have flourished across the globe Each culture s unique nuances and traditions contribute to the mosaic of human experience Peace and the World seeks to celebrate this diversity while uncovering the common threads that bind us all Through the lens of culture we explore how different societies have conceptualized and pursued peace discovering the shared values that serve as bridges connecting the human family The examination of culture extends beyond the tangible expressions of art language and customs it delves into the intangible realm of collective consciousness Within the collective psyche of societies notions of peace are shaped and perpetuated Whether through ancient philosophies or contemporary ideologies the stories we tell ourselves about peace influence our perceptions interactions and the trajectory of our shared destiny In contemplating the essence of peace we must confront the myriad challenges that obstruct its realization From entrenched prejudices to systemic injustices our world grapples with obstacles that demand our attention and concerted efforts This book courageously confronts these challenges inviting readers to candidly dialogue about the barriers that hinder the global pursuit of peace The book does not shy away from addressing the complexities of overt and insidious conflict that have plagued humanity throughout its existence By understanding the roots of discord we empower ourselves to cultivate the seeds of peace By exploring conflict resolution mechanisms diplomatic endeavours and grassroots movements we glimpse how individuals and societies strive to transform discord into harmony As we scrutinize the global landscape Peace and the World illuminates the interconnectedness of our shared destiny The challenges we face from climate change to economic inequality underscore the need for collaborative multilateral efforts in crafting a sustainable and peaceful future It is a call to action that echoes through the corridors of international relations urging nations to transcend geopolitical divides and work towards the common goal of global harmony In personal introspection the book encourages readers to embark on a journey of self discovery exploring the inner dimensions of peace From mindfulness practises to cultivating empathy individuals play a pivotal role in shaping the collective consciousness By nurturing inner peace we contribute to the broader tapestry of a harmonious world where compassion and understanding serve as the cornerstones of our interactions To truly grasp the essence of peace one must also explore the transformative power of art and literature Through the ages artists and writers have been harbingers of change using their creative expressions to challenge the status quo and inspire societal introspection This exploration of the arts within the context of peace underscores the notion that creativity has the potential to transcend boundaries fostering a shared understanding that transcends linguistic cultural and ideological divides
