Merchant Vessels of the United States... United States. Coast Guard,1977      Merchant Vessels of the United States ,1969      American Tantalus Andrew Warnes,2014-10-23 American Tantalus argues that modern US fictions often grow preoccupied by tantalisation This keyword might seem commonplace thesauruses certainly often lump it in with tease and torment in their general inventories of desire Such lists however mislead Just as most US dictionaries have in fact long recognised tantalise s origins in The Odyssey so they have defined it as the unique desire we feel for objects that like the fruit and water once cruelly placed before Tantalus lie within our reach yet withdraw from our attempts to touch them On these terms American Tantalus shows tantalise not only describes a particular kind of thwarted desire but also one that dominates modern US fiction to a remarkable extent For this term specifically evokes the yearning to touch alienated or virginal objects that we find examined by F Scott Fitzgerald Toni Cade Bambara Richard Wright and Toni Morrison and it also indicates the insatiable pursuit of the horizon so important to Willa Cather and Edith Wharton among others This eclectic canon indeed prefers the dictionary to the thesaurus unreachable destinations and untouched commodities here indeed tantalise inviting gestures of inquiry from which they then recoil This focus while lodging cycles of tantalisation at the very heart of American myth holds profound implications for our understanding of modernity and in particular of the cultural genesis of the commodity as a form      The New Cambridge Companion to Herman Melville Robert S. Levine,2014 This new collection offers timely critical essays specially commissioned to provide a comprehensive overview of Melville s career      The Billboard Encyclopedia of Music ,1946      Glimpses of God Paul O. Ingram,2022-05-05 Glimpses of God And Other Essays is a collection of theological reflections on seventeen interrelated subjects written by a historian of religion inspired by the work of Alfred North Whitehead and the process theological vision of John B Cobb Jr Each essay has its own distinctive topic while being interdependent with the other seventeen essays      Faith as Remembering Paul O. Ingram,2017-11-06 Memories seldom happen in straight lines with chronological precision but occur most often in spirals Paul Ingram s essays collected in Faith as Remembering were created from memories These memories often in unpredictable ways pushed him to new insights about the nature of Christian faith insights often not desired always unexpected and always toward new directions of theological reflection Theologians all too often write with an unintentional and sometimes intentional universalism Ingram does not intend to write this way These essays reflect his memories and are the sources of the theological conclusions he draws as a historian of religions who now finds himself a practicing process theologian As a process theologian Ingram does not even argue that the conclusions drawn here will be ones he will affirm in the future All human knowledge is incomplete and there are always new surprises for anyone practicing the art of theological reflection But Ingram s hope is that the essays gathered together in Faith as Remembering will inspire readers to engage their memories as the foundation for drawing their own unique conclusions      Apocalyptic Rhetoric and the Black Protest Movement Aaron

Pride,2023-12-06 Apocalyptic Rhetoric and the Black Protest Movement offers a challenging new formulation of African American religious culture by asserting that African American Christianity produced a militant millennialist movement that invoked the apocalypse the kingdom of God and the end of the world to compel Black people to oppose racial injustice in the early twentieth century In this account of the Black civil rights movement in Boston in the early twentieth century Aaron Pride argues that the apocalyptic rhetoric and millennial imagery disseminated from the Boston Guardian by William Monroe Trotter cast Booker T Washington and other opponents of Black protest as false prophets biblical villains and harbingers of the end times By placing Black Christianity at the center of Black civil rights activism in the early twentieth century this book provides a seminal interpretation of the emancipatory capacity of religion as cultural and intellectual force in social and political movements This book will be of interest to scholars of cultural history Black studies and the history of religion

Active Speech Úna Kealy,Kate McCarthy,2025-04-07 Active Speech is a groundbreaking collection of scholarly essays and practitioner interviews focused on the work of Irish playwright Teresa Deevy Acts of recovery in the 1980s and 1990s challenged Deevy s exclusion from the literary canon reclaiming her contributions as significant to Irish drama and theatre The recent resurgence of scholarship and productions evidences that as a deafened woman and Irish playwright Deevy s creative power continues to disrupt and tilt the canon of Irish drama theatre and performance Essays within the collection explore how Deevy s work interrogates early to mid twentieth century Irish social norms and ideologies and provide a rich context for understanding her plays The collection highlights the interdisciplinary nature of research on Deevy and offers insights on her work through archival research literary analysis and practitioner perspectives from Deaf and hearing theatremakers One of the collection s strengths lies in its collaborative and inclusive approach showcasing diverse methodologies and rigorous scholarship The chapters on archival research and practitioner perspectives offer compelling models and avenues for future studies This volume is an essential resource for scholars educators and theatremakers alike
