Moccasin Goalie:

The Moccasin Goalie William Roy Brownridge, 2001 In this story a young boy is disappointed that he doesn't make the town hockey team. But when the regular goalie is injured, Danny has a chance to prove himself a winner. Cf Our choice 1996 1997 The Moccasin Goalie William Roy Brownridge, 2013-10 Danny and his friends Anita, Petou, and Marcel are typical youngsters. Hockey mad. Danny's disability means that he can't wear skates, but his leather moccasins work just fine and earn him the name Moccasin Danny. When a town team is formed, the friends are overjoyed, but only Marcel is picked for the team. Will Danny get the chance to prove that even though he can't wear a pair of skates, he can still play the game? Originally released over a decade ago, The Moccasin Goalie is the first of three books in a well-loved series that includes The Final Game and Victory at Paradise Hill.

Great Books About Things Kids Love Kathleen Odean, 2008-12-18 BOOKS THAT TURN CHILDREN INTO LIFE LONG READERS Most children want to read a book because it's about something they love or are curious about: dinosaurs, magic tricks, ballerinas, sports, secret codes, and a host of other topics. Now with this unique book, Kathleen Odean, current chair of the Newberry Award committee and author of Great Books for Girls and Great Books for Boys, makes it easy for parents and teachers to satisfy a child's individual cravings for good reading on any subject. Inside you'll discover more than 750 books divided into 55 categories, from Airplanes to Zoos. Professional appraisals that are balanced, intelligent, and fun to read. Stimulating book-related activities and helpful tips for parents. Whether the format is picture book, poetry, fiction, or nonfiction, here are wonderful selections like Why Does the Cat Do That? and Exploring the Titanic, tried and true characters from the beloved aardvarks Arthur and D.W. to the hilarious Junie B. Jones and the courageous Harry Potter, new heroes and heroines to cheer for such as Katherine Paterson's Princess Miranda from The Wide Awake Princess and the exciting Jack Black from Jack Black and the Ship of Thieves by Carol Hughes. Great Books About Things Kids Love creates a book-rich environment in which the habit of reading can take hold and flourish for a lifetime. From the Trade Paperback edition.

Windows and Words Susan-Ann Cooper, Aida Hudson, 2003 Windows and Words is a collection of seventeen essays that confirm and celebrate the artistry of Canadian children's literature. There are essays that survey a wealth of English language fiction from the internationally acclaimed work of Lucy Maud Montgomery, the aboriginal adolescent novel, to the increasingly multi-cultural character of children's books. Others examine book illustration, visual literacy, and the creative partnership seen in the picture book and its art design. With contributions by two Governor General's Award-winning authors, Janet Lunn and Tim Wynne Jones, and a final commentary by Elizabeth Waterson, the heart of this collection offers a unique perspective on the artistry of writing for children and claims a rightful place for Canadian children's literature as literature.

books in educating a diverse society This collection of original essays explores how preservice teachers from faculties of education across Canada engage with issues of diversity and national identity as represented in children's picture books Based on research drawn from education courses and student teaching experiences the book illustrates new and culturally relevant approaches to curricula that meet the needs of increasingly diverse student bodies The volume focuses on picture books as a central body of texts drawing on recent reading theory and exploring the implications of bringing the works into school classrooms Together the essays offer a unique cross Canada perspective on how picture books can help students and teachers explore identities uncover personal and national histories and locate a sense of place The Storymakers Canadian Children's Book Centre, 1999 This valuable resource features the colourful biographies of 72 illustrators and artists whose works are considered among the best in the world Told in the artists own words these biographies offer fascinating insights into their lives and feature a sample illustration from one of their favourite books Discover how these fantastic artists work what their favourite books are who influenced them and how they came to illustrate children's books Reading

Practices, Postcolonial Literature, and Cultural Mediation in the Classroom Ingrid Johnston, Jyoti Mangat, 2012-03-24 In this book Johnston and Mangat consider ways in which particular postcolonial and multicultural literary texts are able to provide a space of cultural mediation for readers from various backgrounds The studies described in the five chapters of the book explore the spaces of convergence of identity culture and literature with students and teachers in high school contexts and undergraduates in university settings In each study readers are responding to texts that are culturally distant from their own literary and experiential histories An objective of each study was to consider the nature of the cultural locations of the reader and the text and the interstitial spaces between these locations The book interrogates readers attempts to negotiate cultural difference in literary contexts and questions how this negotiation requires reading practices traditionally ignored in North American classrooms The book will offer educators at the secondary and post secondary levels rich material to draw upon for a rethinking of the school curriculum and will be of interest to scholars of postcolonial and literary studies
