Modern Political Analysis Foundations Of Modern Political Science Series:

Modern Political Analysis Robert A. Dahl, 1965 Modern Political Analysis Robert Alan Dahl, 1963 Eric Voegelin and the Foundations of Modern Political Science Barry Cooper, Eric Voegelin, 1999

Annotation This important new work is a major analysis of the foundation of Eric Voegelin's political science. Barry Cooper maintains that the writings Voegelin undertook in the 1940s provide the groundwork for the brilliant book that is one of his best known, The New Science of Politics. At the time of that book's publication, however, few were aware of the enormous knowledge and accomplished scholarship that lay behind its illuminating, although sometimes baffling, formulations. By focusing on several of the key chapters in Voegelin's eight-volume History of Political Ideas, especially the studies of Bodin, Vico, and Schelling, Cooper shows how those studies provide the basis for Voegelin's thought. Investigating Voegelin's study of Oriental influences on Western political ideas, especially Mongol constitutional law, and his study of Toynbee, Cooper seeks to demonstrate the vast range of materials Voegelin used. Cooper contends that, as with other great thinkers, political crisis specifically the world war of 1939-1945 stimulated Voegelin's intellectual and spiritual achievement. He provides an analysis of Voegelin's immediate concern with the course of World War II, his ability to understand those dramatic events in a large context, and his ability to provide an insightful account of the causes, the significance, and the consequences of the spiritual and political disorder that was evident all around him. In Eric Voegelin and the Foundations of Modern Political Science, Cooper makes the connection between Voegelin's political writings of the 1940s and the meditative interpretations that began to appear with the publication of Anamnesis and with the later volumes of Order and History, much more intelligible than does any existing discussion of Voegelin. Scholars in intellectual history and political science will benefit enormously from this valuable new addition to Voegelin studies.

Readings in Modern Political Analysis Deane E. Neubauer, 1974-01-01 Modern Political Analysis Robert A. Dahl, 1972 Modern Political Analysis Robert A. Dahl, 1976

The aim of this series is to provide a group of books that will integrate the major aspects of modern political science. Guided by the highest standards of contemporary scholarship and a concern for the major historic problems of politics, the series will make available the fruits of the most recent empirical and theoretical studies.

Includes Part 1 Number 1 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals January-June Armed Organizations and Political Elites in Civil Wars Erwin van Veen, 2024-06-03

This book analyses under what conditions and with what developmental effects armed organizations shift their coercive profile during civil wars, with a focus on the recent conflicts in Syria and Iraq. The work begins with an operationalisation of the term political settlement, focusing on how power is organized in fragile and conflict-affected countries, and then uses this operationalization to analyse the political settlements of contemporary Syria and Iraq, including their breakdown and transformation during recent civil wars of 2011 today in Syria and 2014-17 in Iraq. It subsequently examines why and how elite factions have used armed organizations in times of conflict. This approach links an understanding of the broad evolution of power relations at the national level with the specific effects of the use of armed organizations on such relations. It argues for a shift from assigning fixed labels to armed organizations during civil wars to studying their coercive profile in a dynamic fashion, i.e. how armed organizations behave in terms of their use of threats and coercive force. The book introduces five profiles of coercive behaviour that demonstrate how the same organization can behave very differently at various points in time. One of these, the hybrid coercive profile, fills a gap in the existing civil war typology of organized armed violence by opening up the possibility of elite factions deliberately combining collaborative and competitive modes of behaviour. As an evidence base, the book provides in-depth analysis of the origins, evolution, and operations of four armed organizations that have acted under a hybrid coercive profile during the Syrian and Iraqi civil wars: the Syrian Kurdish People's Defence Forces, the Eagles of the Whirlwind of the Syrian Social Nationalist Party, the Iraqi Kurdish Peshmerga, and the Badr Organization. By connecting the concepts of political settlement and civil war and applying them to specific armed organizations operating in Syria and Iraq, the book offers new insights into this nexus. This book will be of much interest to students of civil wars, conflict studies, Middle Eastern Studies, and International Relations.
