Parshall, 2003-04-01 A heart wrenching and perplexing look at the dark world of Muslim women Muslim Women in America Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, Jane I. Smith, Kathleen M. Moore, 2006-03-02 The treatment and role of women are among the most discussed and controversial aspects of Islam The rights of Muslim women have become part of the Western political agenda often perpetuating a stereotype of universal oppression Muslim women living in America continue to be marginalized and misunderstood since the 9 11 terrorist attacks Yet their contributions are changing the face of Islam as it is seen both within Muslim communities in the West and by non Muslims In their public and private lives Muslim women are actively negotiating what it means to be a woman and a Muslim in an American context Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad Jane I Smith and Kathleen M Moore offer a much needed survey of the situation of Muslim American women focusing on how Muslim views about and experiences of gender are changing in the Western diaspora Centering on Muslims in America the book investigates Muslim attempts to form a new American Islam Such specific issues as dress marriage childrearing conversion and workplace discrimination are addressed The authors also look at the ways in which American Muslim women have tried to create new paradigms of Islamic womanhood and are reinterpreting the traditions apart from the males who control the mosque institutions A final chapter asks whether 9 11 will prove to have been a watershed moment for Muslim women in America This groundbreaking work presents the diversity of Muslim American women and demonstrates the complexity of the issues Impeccably researched and accessible it broadens our understanding of Islam in the West and encourages further exploration into how Muslim women are shaping the future of American Islam Shattering the Stereotypes Fawzia Afzal-Khan,2005 In the wake of September 11th Muslim women in the West found themselves more marginalized than ever by a panicked discourse that did little to promote a true understanding of Islam or the Islamic world Here in this ambitious volume that includes essays poetry fiction memoir plays and artwork Muslim women speak for themselves revealing a complexity of experience and thought that escapes most Western portrayals Islam is as editor Fawzia Afzal Khan puts it only one spoke in the wheel of our lives In Shattering the Stereotypes essays by such writers as Ayesha Jalal the Pakistani American historian poems by award winning poets including Suheir Hammad and Nathalie Handal and a selection of short fiction and plays that are not just ethnically but attitudinally diverse together make a more rounded portrait of what it is to be a Muslim woman in the 21st century Muslim Women in America Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad,Jane I. Smith,Kathleen M. Moore,2006-03-02 The treatment and role of women are among the most discussed and controversial aspects of Islam The rights of Muslim women have become part of the Western political agenda often perpetuating a stereotype of universal oppression Muslim women living in America continue to be marginalized and misunderstood since the 9 11 terrorist attacks Yet their contributions are changing the face of Islam as it is seen both within Muslim communities in the West and by non Muslims In their public and private lives Muslim women are actively negotiating what it means to be a woman and a Muslim in an American context Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad Jane I Smith and Kathleen M Moore offer a much needed survey of the situation of Muslim American women focusing on how Muslim views about and experiences of gender are changing in the Western diaspora Centering on Muslims in America the book investigates Muslim attempts to form a new American Islam Such specific issues as dress marriage childrearing conversion and workplace discrimination are addressed The authors also look at the ways in which American Muslim women have tried to create new paradigms of Islamic womanhood and are reinterpreting the traditions apart from the males who control the mosque institutions A final chapter asks whether 9 11 will prove to have been a watershed moment for Muslim women in America This groundbreaking work presents the diversity of Muslim American women and demonstrates the complexity of the issues Impeccably researched and accessible it broadens our understanding of Islam in the West and encourages further exploration into how Muslim women are shaping the future of American Islam Encyclopedia of Women & Islamic Cultures Suad Joseph,Afsāna Naǧmābādī,2003 Family Body Sexuality and Health is Volume III of the Encyclopedia of Women Islamic Cultures In almost 200 well written entries it covers the broad field of family body sexuality and health and Islamic cultures Believing Women in Islam Asma Barlas,2019-01-16 Does Islam call for the oppression of women Non Muslims point to the subjugation of women that occurs in many Muslim countries especially those that claim to be Islamic while many Muslims read the Qur'an in ways that seem to justify sexual oppression inequality and patriarchy Taking a wholly different view Asma Barlas develops a believer's reading of the Qur'an that demonstrates the radically egalitarian and antipatriarchal nature of its teachings Beginning with a historical analysis of religious authority and knowledge Barlas shows how Muslims came to read inequality and patriarchy into the Qur'an to justify existing religious and social structures and demonstrates that the patriarchal meanings ascribed to the Qur'an are a function of who has read it how and in what contexts She goes on to reread the Qur'an's position on a variety of issues in order to argue that its teachings do not support patriarchy To the contrary Barlas convincingly asserts that the Qur'an affirms the complete equality of the sexes thereby offering an opportunity to theorize radical sexual equality from within the framework of its teachings This new view takes readers into the heart of Islamic teachings on women gender and patriarchy allowing them to understand Islam through its most sacred scripture rather than through Muslim cultural practices or Western media stereotypes For this revised edition of Believing Women in Islam Asma Barlas has written two new chapters Abraham's Sacrifice in the Qur'an and Secular Feminism and the Qur'an as well as a new preface an extended discussion of the Qur'an's wife beating verse and of men's presumed role as women's guardians and other updates throughout the book

The Face Behind the Veil Donna Gehrke-White, 2007-02 Muslim American women in all their diversity are given the chance to tell their stories in their own voice by award winning journalist Donna Gehrke White The only book of its kind it tells in extraordinarily moving detail the lives of New Traditionalists who wear the veil though their forebears did not Blenders who do not wear the veil but consider themselves spiritual and Converts women from other religious backgrounds who have converted to Islam A rare revealing look into the hearts minds and lives of a misunderstood people Nine Parts of Desire Geraldine Brooks, 1995-12-01 INTERNATIONAL BESTSELLER Pulitzer Prize winning author presents the stories of a wide range of Muslim women in the Middle East As an Australian American and an experienced foreign correspondent Brooks thoughtful analysis attempts to understand the precarious status of women in the wake of Islamic fundamentalism Frank enraging and captivating The New York Times Nine Parts of Desire is the story of Brooks intrepid journey toward an understanding of the women behind the veils and of the often contradictory political religious and cultural forces that shape their lives Defying our stereotypes about the Muslim world Brooks acute analysis of the world's fastest growing religion deftly illustrates how Islam's holiest texts have been misused to justify repression of women and how male pride and power have warped the original message of a once liberating faith As a prizewinning foreign correspondent for The Wall Street Journal Geraldine Brooks spent six years covering the Middle East through wars insurrections and the volcanic upheaval of resurgent fundamentalism Yet for her headline events were only the backdrop to a less obvious but more enduring drama the daily life of Muslim women Muslim Women in India Seema Kazi, 1999-02-01 For centuries India has had Muslim rule and rulers including female Sultans yet with the rise of Hindu fundamentalism India's Muslim history and the Muslim contribution is being obscured and downplayed Against this background the opportunities for Muslim women to raise their concerns over access to education rights and work opportunities or to raise issues within Muslim personal law including marriage divorce and personal freedoms are severely restricted This new Report Muslim Women in India calls for an end to discrimination against Muslims in India and the oppression of Muslim women The author Seema Kazi questions the way in which the rise of the Hindu right wing has led to a tightening of the interpretations of Muslim women s rights and freedoms along with the subordination of Muslim women s concerns to the demands of Muslim communal identity This Report discusses Muslim history in India pre and postindependence and partition Muslim men and women s current position in India Muslim women s involvement in the wider women s movements and has a focus on gender Islam and human rights The Report concludes with an outlook for Muslims and Muslim women in India and with a set of recommendations on some of the key issues to be addressed Please note that the terminology in the fields of minority rights and indigenous peoples rights has changed over time MRG strives to reflect these changes as well as respect the right to self identification on the part of minorities and indigenous peoples At the same time after over 50 years work we know that our archive is of considerable interest to activists and researchers Therefore we make available as much of our back catalogue as possible while being aware that the language used may not reflect current thinking on these issues

Standing Alone Asra Nomani, 2024-05-21 As President Bush is preparing to invade Iraq Wall Street Journal correspondent Asra Nomani embarks on a dangerous journey from Middle America to the Middle East to join more than two million fellow Muslims on the hajj the pilgrimage to Mecca required of all Muslims once in their lifetime Mecca is Islam s most sacred city and strictly off limits to non Muslims On a journey perilous enough for any American reporter Nomani is determined to take along her infant son Shibli living proof that she an unmarried Muslim woman is guilty of zina or illegal sex If she is found out the puritanical Islamic law of the Wahabbis in Saudi Arabia may mete out terrifying punishment But Nomani discovers she is not alone She is following in the four thousand year old footsteps of another single mother Hajar known in the West as Hagar the original pilgrim to Mecca and mother of the Islamic nation Each day of her hajj evokes for Nomani the history of a different Muslim matriarch Eve from whom she learns about sin and redemption Hajar the single mother abandoned in the desert who teaches her about courage Khadijah the first benefactor of Islam and trailblazer for a Muslim woman s right to self determination and Aisha the favorite wife of the Prophet Muhammad and Islam s first female theologian Inspired by these heroic Muslim women Nomani returns to America to confront the sexism and intolerance in her local mosque and to fight for the rights of modern Muslim women who are tired of standing alone against the repressive rules and regulations imposed by reactionary fundamentalists Nomani shows how many of the freedoms enjoyed centuries ago have been erased by the conservative brand of Islam practiced today giving the West a false image of Muslim women as veiled and isolated from the world Standing Alone in Mecca is a personal narrative relating the modern day lives of the author and other Muslim women to the lives of those who came before bringing the changing face of women in Islam into focus through the unique lens of the hajj Interweaving reportage political analysis cultural history and spiritual travelogue this is a modern woman s jihad offering for Westerners a never before seen look inside the heart of Islam and the emerging role of Muslim women

Muslim Women's Choices Camillia Fawzi El-Solh, Judy Mabro, 2020-08-21 This volume counters the prevailing Western views and stereotypes of Muslim women usually projected through male interpretations by presenting a cross cultural perspective of their experiences and choices in contemporary Muslim communities The main theme running through these papers is the manner in which Muslim women consciously as well as unconsciously manipulate religious belief to negotiate their gender roles within the context of their lives

American Muslim Women Jamillah Karim, 2008-12-01 African American Muslims and South Asian Muslim immigrants

are two of the largest ethnic Muslim groups in the U S Yet there are few sites in which African Americans and South Asian immigrants come together and South Asians are often held up as a model minority against African Americans However the American ummah or American Muslim community stands as a unique site for interethnic solidarity in a time of increased tensions between native born Americans and immigrants This ethnographic study of African American and South Asian immigrant Muslims in Chicago and Atlanta explores how Islamic ideals of racial harmony and equality create hopeful possibilities in an American society that remains challenged by race and class inequalities The volume focuses on women who due to gender inequalities are sometimes more likely to move outside of their ethnic Muslim spaces and interact with other Muslim ethnic groups in search of gender justice American Muslim Women explores the relationships and sometimes alliances between African Americans and South Asian immigrants drawing on interviews with a diverse group of women from these two communities Karim investigates what it means to negotiate religious sisterhood against America s race and class hierarchies and how those in the American Muslim community both construct and cross ethnic boundaries American Muslim Women reveals the ways in which multiple forms of identity frame the American Muslim experience in some moments reinforcing ethnic boundaries and at other times resisting them
