Mutual Reflections Jews And Blacks In American Art:

Mutual Reflections Milly Heyd, 1999 This text examines the mutual relationship between Jews and African Americans through visual art It investigates how artists of both backgrounds have viewed each other in the past how visual languages and thematic concerns have changed to reflect different issues of concern to each group Social Concern and Left

Politics in Jewish American Art Matthew Baigell, 2015-04-03 This book explores the important and barely examined connections between the humanitarian concerns embedded in the religious heritage of Jewish American artists and the appeal of radical political causes between the years of the Great Migration from Eastern Europe in the 1880s and the beginning of World War II in the late 1930s Visual material consists primarily of political cartoons published in leftwing Yiddish and English language newspapers and magazines Artists often commented on current events using biblical and other Jewish references meaning that whatever were their political concerns their Jewish heritage was ever present By the late 1940s the obvious ties between political interests and religious concerns largely disappeared The text set against events of the times the Russian Revolution the Depression and the rise of fascism during the 1930s as well as life on New York s Lower East Side includes artists statements as well as the thoughts of religious literary and political figures ranging from Marx to Trotsky to newspaper editor Abraham Cahan to contemporary art critics including Meyer Schapiro Boxing Kasia

Boddy, 2013-06-01 Throughout history potters sculptors painters poets novelists cartoonists song writers photographers and filmmakers have recorded and tried to make sense of boxing From Daniel Mendoza to Mike Tyson boxers have embodied and enacted our anxieties about race ethnicity gender and sexuality In her encyclopedic investigation of the shifting social political and cultural resonances of this most visceral of sports Kasia Boddy throws new light on an elemental struggle for dominance whose weapons are nothing more than fists Looking afresh at everything from neoclassical sculpture to hip hop lyrics Boddy explores the ways in which the history of boxing has intersected with the history of mass media Boddy pulls no punches looking to the work of such diverse figures as Henry Fielding and Spike Lee Charlie Chaplin and Philip Roth James Joyce and Mae West Bertolt Brecht and Charles Dickens in an all encompassing study that tells us just how and why boxing has mattered so much to so many Red, Black, and Jew Stephen Katz, 2010-01-01 Between 1890 and 1924 more than two million Jewish immigrants landed on America s shores The story of their integration into American society as they traversed the difficult path between assimilation and retention of a unique cultural identity is recorded in many works by American Hebrew writers Red Black and Jew illuminates a unique and often overlooked aspect of these literary achievements charting the ways in which the Native American and African American creative cultures served as a model for works produced within the minority Jewish community Exploring the paradox of Hebrew literature in the United States in which separateness and engagement and acculturation are equally strong impulses Stephen Katz presents voluminous examples of a process that could ultimately be considered Americanization Key components of this process Katz argues were poems and works of prose fiction written in a way that evoked Native American forms or African American folk songs and hymns Such Hebrew writings presented America as a unified society that could assimilate all foreign cultures At no other time in the history of Jews in diaspora have Hebrew writers considered the fate of other minorities to such a degree Katz also explores the impact of the creation of the state of Israel on this process a transformation that led to ambivalence in American Hebrew literature as writers were given a choice between two worlds Reexamining long neglected writers across a wide spectrum Red Black and Jew celebrates an important chapter in the history of Hebrew belles lettres The Other American Moderns ShiPu

Wang,2017-07-14 In The Other American Moderns ShiPu Wang analyzes the works of four early twentieth century American artists who engaged with the concept of Americanness Frank Matsura Eitar Ishigaki Hideo Noda and Miki Hayakawa In so doing he recasts notions of minority artists contributions to modernism and American culture Wang presents comparative studies of these four artists figurative works that feature Native Americans African Americans and other racial and ethnic minorities including Matsura and Susan Timento Pose at Studio ca 1912 The Bonus March 1932 Scottsboro Boys 1933 and Portrait of a Negro ca 1926 Rather than creating art that reflected Asian aesthetics Matsura Ishigaki Noda and Hayakawa deployed imagery of the Other by the Other as their means of exploring understanding and contesting conditions of diaspora and notions of what it meant to be American in an age of anti immigrant sentiment and legislation Based on a decade long excavation of previously unexamined collections in the United States and Japan The Other American Moderns is more than a rediscovery of forgotten minority artists it reconceives American modernism by illuminating these artists active role in the shaping of a multicultural and cosmopolitan culture This nuanced analysis of their deliberate engagement with the ideological complexities of American identity contributes a new vision to our understanding of non European identity in modernism and American art Encyclopedia of the Harlem Renaissance Cary D. Wintz,Paul Finkelman,2012-12-06

From the music of Louis Armstrong to the portraits by Beauford Delaney the writings of Langston Hughes to the debut of the musical Show Boat the Harlem Renaissance is one of the most significant developments in African American history in the twentieth century The Encyclopedia of the Harlem Renaissance in two volumes and over 635 entries is the first comprehensive compilation of information on all aspects of this creative dynamic period For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Encyclopedia of Harlem Renaissance website Reclaiming Biblical Heroines Monika

Czekanowska-Gutman,2022-11-07 Although recently more studies have been devoted to the representations of Biblical heroines in modern European art less is known about the contribution to the portrayals of Biblical women by modern Jewish artists This monograph explores why and how heroines of the Scripture Judith Esther and the Shulamite received a particular meaning for acculturated Jewish artists originating from the Polish lands in the last decades of the nineteenth century and the first two decades of the twentieth century It convincingly proves that artworks by Maurycy Gottlieb Wilhem Wachtel Ephraim Moses Lilien Maurycy Minkowski Samuel Hirszenberg and Boris Schatz significantly differed from renderings of contemporary non Jewish artists adopting a Jewish perspective creating complex and psychological portrayals of the heroines inspired by Jewish literature and as well as by historical and cultural phenomena of Jewish revival and the cultural Zionism movement

Complex Identities Matthew Baigell, Milly Heyd, 2001 Focusing on 19th and 20th century European American and Israeli artists the contributors explore the ways in which Jewish artists have responded to their Jewishness and to the societies in which they lived or live and how these factors have influenced their art their choice of subject matter and presentation of their work

Classicisms in the Black Atlantic Ian Moyer, Adam Lecznar, Heidi Morse, 2020-01-09 The historical and cultural space of the Black Atlantic a diasporic world of forced and voluntary migrations has long provided fertile ground for the construction and reconstruction of new forms of classicism From the aftermath of slavery up to the present day black authors intellectuals and artists in the Atlantic world have shaped and reshaped the cultural legacies of classical antiquity in a rich variety of ways in order to represent their identities and experiences and reflect on modern conceptions of race nation and identity The studies presented in this volume range across the Anglophone Francophone and Hispanophone worlds including literary studies of authors such as Derek Walcott Marlene NourbaSe Philip and Junot Diaz biographical and historical studies and explorations of race and classicism in the visual arts They offer reflections on the place of classicism in contemporary conflicts and debates over race and racism and on the intersections between classicism race gender and social status demonstrating how the legacies of ancient Greece and Rome have been used to buttress racial hierarchies but also to challenge racism and Eurocentric reconstructions of antiquity

A Moment's Monument Sharon Hecker, 2017-06-13 Medardo Rosso 1858 1928 is one of the most original and influential figures in the history of modern art and this book is the first historically substantiated critical account of his life and work An innovative sculptor photographer and draftsman Rosso was vital in paving the way for the transition from the academic forms of sculpture that persisted in the nineteenth century to the development of new and experimental forms in the twentieth His antimonumental antiheroic work reflected alienation in the modern experience yet also showed deep feeling for interactions between self and other Rosso's art was also transnational he refused allegiance to a single culture or artistic heritage and declared himself both a citizen of the world and a maker of art without national limits In this book Sharon Hecker develops a narrative that is an alternative to the dominant Franco centered perspective on the origin of modern sculpture in which Rodin plays the role of lone heroic innovator Offering an original way to comprehend Rosso A Moment's Monument negotiates the competing cultural imperatives of nationalism and internationalism that shaped the European art world at the fin de siècle

Que Me Veux-tu?: Claude Cahun's Photomontages , The Palgrave Handbook of Holocaust Literature and Culture Victoria Aarons, Phyllis Lassner, 2020-01-24 The Palgrave Handbook of Holocaust Literature and Culture reflects current approaches to Holocaust literature that open up future thinking on Holocaust representation The chapters consider diverse generational perspectives survivor writing second and third generation and genres memoirs poetry novels graphic narratives films video testimonies and other forms of literary and cultural expression In turn these perspectives create interactions among generations genres temporalities and cultural contexts The volume also participates in the ongoing project of responding to and talking through moments of rupture and incompleteness that represent an opportunity to contribute to the making of meaning through the continuation of narratives of the past As such the chapters in this volume pose options for reading Holocaust texts offering openings for further discussion and exploration The inquiring body of interpretive scholarship responding to the Shoah becomes itself a story a narrative that materially extends our inquiry into that history

Learning on the Left Stephen J. Whitfield, 2020-09-15 Brandeis University is the United States only Jewish sponsored nonsectarian university and while only being established after World War II it has risen to become one of the most respected universities in the nation The faculty and alumni of the university have made exceptional contributions to myriad disciplines but they have played a surprising formidable role in American politics Stephen J Whitfield makes the case for the pertinence of Brandeis University in understanding the vicissitudes of American liberalism since the mid twentieth century Founded to serve as a refuge for qualified professors and students haunted by academic antisemitism Brandeis University attracted those who generally envisioned the republic as worthy of betterment Whether as liberals or as radicals figures associated with the university typically adopted a critical stance toward American society and sometimes acted upon their reformist or militant beliefs This volume is not an institutional history but instead shows how one university over the course of seven decades employed and taught remarkable men and women who belong in our accounts of the evolution of American politics especially on the left In vivid prose Whitfield invites readers to appreciate a singular case of the linkage of political influence with the fate of a particular university in modern America

Songs in Dark Times Amelia M. Glaser, 2020-11-24 A probing reading of leftist Jewish poets who during the interwar period drew on the trauma of pogroms to depict the suffering of other marginalized peoples Between the world wars a generation of Jewish leftist poets reached out to other embattled peoples of the earth Palestinian Arabs African Americans Spanish Republicans in Yiddish verse Songs in Dark Times examines the richly layered meanings of this project grounded in Jewish collective trauma but embracing a global community of the oppressed The long 1930s Amelia M Glaser proposes gave rise to a genre of internationalist modernism in which tropes of national collective memory were rewritten as the shared experiences of many national groups The utopian Jews of Songs in Dark Times effectively globalized the pogroms in a bold and sometimes fraught literary move that asserted continuity with anti Arab violence and black lynching As communists and fellow travelers the writers also sought to integrate particular experiences of suffering into a borderless narrative of class struggle Glaser resurrects their poems from the pages of forgotten Yiddish communist periodicals particularly the New York based Morgn Frayhayt Morning Freedom and the Soviet literary journal Royte Velt Red World Alongside compelling analysis Glaser includes her own translations of ten poems previously unavailable in English including Malka Lee s God s Black Lamb Moyshe Nadir s Closer and Esther Shumiatscher s

At the Border of China These poets dreamed of a moment when we could mean we workers rather than we Jews Songs in Dark Times takes on the beauty and difficulty of that dream in the minds of Yiddish writers who sought to heal the world by translating pain Cannibalizing the Canon ,2024-02-06 This rich in depth exploration of Dada s roots in East Central Europe is a vital addition to existing research on Dada and the avant garde Through deeply researched case studies and employing novel theoretical approaches the volume rewrites the history of Dada as a story of cultural and political hybridity border crossings transitions and transgressions across political class and gender lines Dismantling prevailing notions of Dada as a Western movement the contributors to this volume present East Central Europe as the locus of Dada activity and techniques The articles explore how artists from the region pre figured Dada as well as actively cannibalized that is reabsorbed and further hybridized a range of avant garde techniques thus challenging Western cultural hegemony

Perfecting Friendship Ivy Schweitzer,2006 Contemporary notions of friendship regularly place it in the private sphere associated with feminized forms of sympathy and affection As Ivy Schweitzer explains however this perception leads to a misunderstanding of American history In an exploration Studies in Contemporary Jewry Eli Lederhendler,2001-12-20 Bringing together contributions from established scholars as well as promising younger academics the seventeenth volume of this established series offers a broad ranging view of why Judaism a religion whose observance is more honored in the breach in most western Jewish communities has garnered attention authority and controversy in the late twentieth century The volume considers the ways in which theological writings sweeping social change individual or small group needs and intra communal diversity have re energized Judaism even amidst secular trends in America and Israel The Shape of Power Karen Lemmey,Tobias Wofford,Grace Yasumura,2024-11-12 A major new survey of American sculpture exploring how it both reflects and redefines concepts of race and identity in the United States How does American sculpture intersect with the history of race in the United States The three dimensional qualities of sculpture give it a distinct advantage over other art forms in capturing a subject s likeness and our minds can swiftly conjure a body and racialize it from the most minimal of prompts The Shape of Power examines the role of American sculpture from the nineteenth century to today in understanding and constructing the concept of race in the United States and how this medium has shaped the way generations have learned to visualize and think about race Exploring the relationship between sculpture and ideas about race in the United States this book provides fresh perspectives on artists ranging from Hiram Powers Edmonia Lewis and Augusta Savage to Barbara Chase Riboud Titus Kaphar Raven Halfmoon Sanford Biggers Betye Saar Yolanda L pez and Simone Leigh It reveals how sculptors use this versatile medium to challenge discriminatory ideologies and entrenched social and cultural constructions of race while offering bold new visions of community identity and selfhood Featuring superb illustrations of sculptural works in a broad range of media The Shape of Power contributes new scholarship to the understudied field of American sculpture which hasn t been the subject of a major publication survey in more than fifty years Published in association with the
