children and families Fact, Fiction, and Representation Louis Mackey, 1997 First ever full length study of four works by Gilbert Sorrentino the contemporary American novelist Gilbert Sorrentino is the most innovative and experimental writer now working in America In a long and still continuing series of novels he has broken down the barriers of fictional realism in ways which undercut the traditional boundaries between fact and fiction exposing the problematical character of representation However although his position in contemporary American fiction is assured he has not yet received the serious critical attention his work deserves This volume is the first full length treatment of his work in depth and detail it examines four novels published by Sorrentino in the 1980s Crystal Vision Odd Number Rose Theatre and Misterioso aiming to identify the critical and philosophical problems raised in his work and assessing his achievements in dealing with them

The Cambridge Companion to Harriet Beecher Stowe Cindy Weinstein, 2004-07-15 The Cambridge Companion to Harriet Beecher Stowe establishes new parameters for both scholarly and classroom discussion of Beecher Stowe's writing and life This collection of specially commissioned essays provides new perspectives on the frequently read classic Uncle Tom's Cabin as well as on topics of perennial interest such as Stowe's representation of race her attitude to reform and her relationship to the American novel The volume investigates Stowe's impact on the American literary tradition and the novel of social change Contributions also offer lucid and provocative readings that analyze Stowe's writings through a variety of contexts including antebellum reform regionalism law and the protest novel Fresh accessible and engaged this is the most up to date introduction available to Stowe's work The volume which offers a comprehensive chronology of Stowe's life and a helpful guide to further reading will be of interest to students and teachers alike Official Statistics 4.0 Walter J. Radermacher, 2019-12-28 This book explores official statistics and their social function in modern societies Digitisation and globalisation are creating completely new opportunities and risks a context in which facts can play an enormously important part if they are produced with a quality that makes them credible and purpose specific In order for this to actually happen official statistics must continue to actively pursue the modernisation of their working methods This book is not about the technical and methodological challenges associated with digitisation and globalisation rather it focuses on statistical sociology which scientifically deals with the peculiarities and pitfalls of governing by numbers and assigns statistics a suitable position in the future informational ecosystem Further the book provides a comprehensive overview of modern issues in official statistics embodied in a historical and conceptual framework that endows it with different and innovative perspectives Central to this work is the quality of statistical information provided by official statistics The implementation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals in the form of indicators is another driving force in the search for answers and is addressed here This book will be of interest to a broad readership The topics of sociology epistemology statistical history and the management of production processes which are important for official statistics and their role in social decision making processes are generally not dealt with in statistics books The book is primarily intended for official statisticians but researchers and advanced students in statistics economics sociology and the political sciences will find the book equally stimulating Last but not least it offers a valuable source of reflection for policymakers and stakeholders Editor & Publisher ,1928
