Numerous Choirs Elizabeth Ann Seton,1996-05-01 Elizabeth Ann Seton Anne Merwin,2019-03-25 Elizabeth Ann Seton grew up in New York City during the very beginning of America s independence Let author Anne Merwin former president of the Mother Seton House in Baltimore guide you through the life of this young socialite who becomes the pioneer of the Catholic school system in the United States and the foundress of the Sisters of Charity Discover the secret of Elizabeth s holiness a courageous determination to allow God to guide her no matter where he might lead Elizabeth Seton Catherine O'Donnell,2018-09-15 No detailed description available for Elizabeth Seton Conjugal Spirituality Mary Anne McPherson Oliver,1994 Mary Anne Oliver develops an alternate to celibate religious practices drawing from the experience of couples and diverse sources in the Christian tradition This work explores the dynamics of conjugal love Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Joseph I. Dirvin,2025-05-05 This 2nd edition of the classic spiritual portrait of Mother Seton newly edited with introduction by Sister Betty Ann McNeil D C traces the spiritual journey of the 19th century American wife mother educator and religious leader who became the first native born canonized saint of the United States This work is exceptional and unique because it is the only in depth exploration and analysis based on the actual archival documents of Seton s life conversion spiritual growth and development as the foundress of the Sisters of Charity It underscores her great importance for the Church in the United States and the lasting spiritual impact of her enduring legacy as a Catholic convert an educator and a religious leader The colloquial style of this critical edition and the abundance of moving excerpts from the pen of Mother Seton inform and inspire the reader to reflect on her remarkable journey towards holiness Organized thematically and chronologically this is an astonishing account of an ordinary woman who lived an extraordinary life of heroic virtue as she embraced the will of God This updated edition of the acclaimed spiritual work is being released to celebrate this fiftieth anniversary of the canonization of Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton who was declared the first native born American saint by St Pope Paul VI in 1975 Faith Formation of the Laity in Catholic Schools Sister Patricia Helene Earl,2008-10-01 Two major real world problems prompted this study maintaining the Catholic identity of the Catholic schools and increasing interest in character education Traditionally Catholic schools in the United States were staffed exclusively by priests sisters and brothers Today they are predominately staffed by laypersons This change has influenced the essential religious character and culture of Catholic schools While Religious filter their teachings through their own religious training and emphasize the mission and charisma of Catholic education lay staff often lack the same intensely religious experiences to bring to the teaching learning environment This qualitative interview study explored the influence that a series of spirituality and virtue seminars had on lay teachers perceptions of the Catholic school and character education Pioneer Spirit Mary Ellen Doyle,2021-12-14 Mother Catherine Spalding 1793 1858 was the cofounder and first leader of one of the most significant American religious communities for women the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth near Bardstown Kentucky Elected at age nineteen to lead the order Spalding also founded several educational institutions Louisville's first private hospital and the first social service agency for children in Kentucky Pioneer Spirit is the first biography of Catherine Spalding a woman who made it her life's work to serve the citizens of the Kentucky frontier Catherine who lost her mother at a young age and was raised in many different homes before she was ten years old eventually came to be raised in a colony of Catholic families These formative years taught her independence the value of hard work and an enduring spirit and the importance of education all of which would figure prominently in her later career Spalding became increasingly interested in health care services for orphans and education and her business skills and strong sense of purpose allowed her to achieve her goals with little interference from outsiders She showed a natural gift for administration and the scope and services of the Sisters of Charity expanded under her leadership In the midst of this ministerial work however Spalding always maintained the connection of her ministry to spiritual and communal life ascribing great importance to all three facets of her calling Author Mary Ellen Doyle notes that in Spalding's correspondence with the Sisters she repeatedly emphasized the heart of charity genuine interest in each other and sisterly affection free of personal ambition or jealousy By the time of Catherine Spalding's death the Sisters of Charity of Nazareth extended beyond Nazareth to more than one hundred sisters in sixteen convents Spalding's legacy of service continues today with more than six hundred members worldwide and her story of progressive and compassionate leadership offers unique insights into the growth of a religious order and the struggles of developing America's frontier communities

American Saint Joan Barthel, 2014-03-04 A fascinating biography of Elizabeth Seton who shocked high society by converting to Catholicism a faith that was illegal in New York when she was born Booklist In this riveting biography of the first American saint Joan Barthel tells the mesmerizing story of a woman whose life encompassed wealth and poverty passion and sorrow love and loss Elizabeth was born into a prominent New York City family in 1774 when Catholicism was illegal and priests in the city were arrested and sometimes hanged Her father was the chief health officer for the Port of New York and she lived down the block from Alexander Hamilton She danced at George Washington's sixty fifth Birthday Ball in cream slippers monogrammed When Elizabeth and her husband sailed to Italy in a doomed attempt to cure his tuberculosis she and her family were quarantined in a damp dungeon And when after she was widowed Elizabeth became a Catholic she was so scorned that people talked of burning down her house American Saint is the inspiring story of a brave woman who forged the way for other women who followed and who made a name for herself in a world entirely ruled by men Founder of the Sisters of Charity she resisted male clerical control of her religious order and she also started America's first Catholic school laying the foundation of an educational system that would help countless children thrive in a new nation Compelling an exquisite story of Seton's inspiring life Readers interested in Catholic history and U S history should not overlook this important biography Publishers Weekly Barthel is a fine and insightful observer of this larger than life woman who was so far ahead two hundred years ago that we're still catching up with her Gloria Steinem Includes a foreword by Maya Angelou Neither Lady nor Slave Susanna Delfino, Michele Gillespie, 2003-10-15 Although historians over the past two decades have written extensively on the plantation mistress and the slave woman they have largely neglected the world of the working woman Neither Lady nor Slave pushes southern history beyond the plantation to examine the lives and labors of ordinary southern women white free black and Indian Contributors to this volume illuminate women's involvement in the southern market economy in all its diversity Thirteen essays explore the working lives of a wide range of women nuns and prostitutes iron workers and basket weavers teachers and domestic servants in urban and rural settings across the antebellum South By highlighting contrasts between paid and unpaid officially acknowledged and invisible work within the context of cultural attitudes regarding women's proper place in society the book sheds new light on the ambiguities that marked relations between race class and gender in the modernizing South The contributors are E Susan Barber Bess Beatty Emily Bingham James Taylor Carson Emily Clark Stephanie Cole Susanna Delfino Michele Gillespie Sarah Hill Barbara J Howe Timothy J Lockley Stephanie McCurry Diane Batts Morrow and Penny L Richards Secret Habits Carol Mattingly, 2016-07-26 Literacy historians have credited the Protestant mandate to read scripture as well as Protestant schools for advances in American literacy This belief however has overshadowed other important efforts and led to an incomplete understanding of our literacy history In Secret Habits Catholic Literacy Education for Women in the Early Nineteenth Century Carol Mattingly restores the work of Catholic nuns and sisters to its rightful place in literacy studies Mattingly shows that despite widespread fears and opposition including attacks by vaunted northeastern Protestant pioneers of literacy Catholic women nonetheless became important educators of women in many areas of America They founded convents convent academies and schools developed their own curricula and pedagogies and persisted in their efforts in the face of significant prejudices The convents faced sharp opposition from Protestant educators who often played on anti Catholic fears to gain support for their own schools Using a performative rhetoric of good works that emphasized civic involvement Catholic women were able to educate large numbers of women and expand opportunities for literacy instruction A needed corrective to studies that have focused solely on efforts by Protestant educators Mattingly's work offers new insights into early nineteenth century women's literacy demonstrating that literacy education was more religiously and geographically diverse than previously recognized
