Nurturing Reflective Christians To Teach:

Nurturing Reflective Christians to Teach Daniel C. Elliott, 1995 In the Spring of 1994 teacher educators from representative institutions within the Christian College Coalition met to consider the question Just what is it that Christian colleges of education should do in preparing teachers for the nation s schools This well constructed volume begins to answer that question Toward a Theology of Special Education David W. Anderson, 2012-10-31 Professor mentor author disability advocate seminar leader around the world Dr David Anderson corralled his many talents and worldwide experiences to author this important book The volume should prove invaluable to Christians concerned about disabilities especially teachers Without flinching Dr Anderson tackles the tough issues How could a good and benevolent God permit disabled children Are disabilities the result of sin How does a Christian teacher of the disabled differ from secular counterparts Especially helpful is his emphasis on the reflective teacher integrating faith and learning Certainly this is a volume that belongs on the bookshelves of anyone concerned with disabilities Steven A Kaatz PhD Graduate Programs in Special Education Bethel University St Paul Minnesota I have had the privilege of traveling with Dr Anderson as he has taught the concepts addressed in this book to educators pastors and parents in a variety of countries Ive seen the material come alive as leaders discover the importance of thinking Christianly about disability This book has the potential of impacting all readers in similar ways Dr Anderson challenges all of us to come to grips with a biblical worldview and then to live it out within our spheres of influence Toward a Theology of Special Education thus encourages all readers to think Christianly about disability Such thinking will then motivate us to care with Gods care and to serve with Gods concern for justice and compassion Dr Richard Schoenert pastor emeritus Calvary Church Roseville Minnesota Christian Faith and English Language Teaching and Learning Mary Shepard Wong, Carolyn Kristjansson, Zoltán Dörnyei, 2013 Ideological and educational political aspects of the link between language and faith especially between Global English and Christianity is a topic of growing interest in the field of English language teaching This book explores the possible role and impact of teachers and students faith in the English language classroom Bringing together studies representing a diversity of experiences and perspectives on the philosophies purposes practices and theories of the interrelationship of Christianity and language learning and teaching it is on the front line in providing empirical data that offers firm insights into the actual role that faith plays in various aspects of the language learning teaching experience By adding a data based dimension the volume contributes to the cultivation of valid research methods and innovative ways to analyze and interpret studies of the intersection of Christian faith and the practice of teaching and learning language Teaching in a Distant Classroom Michael H. Romanowski, Teri McCarthy, 2009-11-18 Veteran educators Mike Romanowski and Teri McCarthy provide an essential guide for Christians teaching in overseas contexts Providing both the theoretical framework as well as practical tools the authors offer concrete advice and real life examples for classroom instruction daily life and much more The Pedagogy of Shalom HeeKap Lee, Paul

Kaak,2016-11-25 Based on the teachings of Jesus and a biblical foundation this book presents a new framework for education and teaching referred to as the shalom education model that addresses four essential questions in education why teach what to teach how to teach and who are teachers After explaining the theoretical background of shalom the book investigates a range of contemporary educational issues including gender identity bullying disability linguistic and cultural diversity and social justice and presents practical guidelines that can be applied to classroom teaching The book also emphasizes the role of teachers as missional leaders who help students unlock their full potential Christian Teachers in Public Schools Julia K. Stronks, Gloria Goris Stronks, 1999-08-01 A guide for Christians teaching in public schools to 1 bring their faith to bear on their work and 2 understand the legal issues governing religion and public schools Christian Scholar's Review ,2004

Innovating Christian Education Research Johannes M. Luetz, Beth Green, 2021-01-04 This book reformulates Christian education as an interdisciplinary and interdenominational vocation for professionals and practitioners It speaks directly to a range of contemporary contexts with the aim of encouraging conceptual empirical and practice informed innovation to build the field of Christian education research The book invites readers to probe questions concerning epistemologies ethics pedagogies and curricula using multidisciplinary research approaches By helping thinkers to believe and believers to think the book seeks to stimulate constructive dialogue about what it means to innovate Christian education research today Chapters are organised into three main sections Following an introduction to the volume s guiding framework and intended contribution Chapter 1 Part 1 features conceptual perspectives and comprises research that develops theological philosophical and theoretical discussion of Christian education Chapters 2 13 Part 2 encompasses empirical research that examines data to test theory answer big questions and develop our understanding of Christian education Chapters 14 18 Finally Part 3 reflects on contemporary practice contexts and showcases examples of emerging research agendas in Christian education Chapters 19 24 The Gift of the Stranger David Smith, Barbara Maria Carvill, 2000 A pioneering look at the implications of Christian faith for foreign language education It has become clear in recent years that reflection on foreign language education involves more than questioning which methods work best This new volume carries current discussions of the value laden nature of foreign language teaching into new territory by exploring its spiritual and moral dimensions David Smith and Barbara Carvill show how the Christian faith sheds light on the history aims content and methods of foreign language education They also propose a new approach to the field based on the Christian understanding of hospitality Teaching on Target Daniel C.
