Risen Among Wisdom:

Wisdom's Watch Upon the Hours Heinrich Seuse, 1994 Written by Dominican preacher and mystic Bl Henry Suso c 1300 1366 Horologium Sapientiae or Wisdom's Watch upon the Hours was one of the most successful religious writings of its time Now it is offered to the English speaking world in a new translation based on Pius Kunzle's critical Latin edition The Spirit's Relation to the Risen Lord in Paul Mehrdad Fatehi, 2000 Mehrdad Fatehi studies Paul's letters and shows that the risen Lord is featured in the religious experiences of Paul and the Pauline believers as the present and active lord of the new covenant community These experiences seem to point beyond the notion of a divine agent alongside God to a redefinition of the very concept of God in a way that it would include Christ within itself This is confirmed by the way Paul and the Pauline communities believed themselves to have experienced the risen Lord through God's Spirit In Judaism in general as well as in Paul the Spirit was not regarded as an entity distinct or separable from God but as God himself in his presence and action in and among his people Yet we have clear evidence in Paul's letters that the risen Christ was experienced and conceived of as being present and active through the Spirit bestowing grace and gracious gifts infusing wisdom communicating his will regenerating and transforming his people and dwelling in and among them all through the Spirit in a way which is best understood after the analogy of God's presence and work through the Spirit in Judaism In other words Paul's the Spirit of Christ is best understood after the analogy of the Spirit of God Paul's application of the Spirit language to describe and interpret the Christians experiences of the risen Lord shows that Paul most probably presupposed a redefinition of monotheism in which Christ would be included within the Godhead The Cosmic Drama of Salvation Sang Meyng Lee, 2010 Revision of author's thesis Ph D Claremont Graduate University 2008 under title The cosmic drama of salvation the law and Christian Paul's undisputed writings from anthropological and cosmological perspectives We Believe in the Crucified and Risen Lord Mark J. Edwards, 2009-07-13 This volume offers patristic comment on the second half of the second article of the Nicene Creed concerning the work of Christ Readers will gain insight into the history and substance of what the early church believed about Jesus as the God Man Wisdom's Feast Barbara E. Reid, 2016-10-03 Woman Wisdom in Proverbs 9 invites any who want to learn her ways to come and eat at her table an image for the rich and satisfying teaching that she offers In this book Barbara Reid invites readers to this feast drawing on women's wisdom to offer fresh new interpretations of biblical texts in a way that promotes equal dignity and value for women and men alike Reid begins by presenting feminist methods of biblical interpretation and explaining why they are important giving attention not only to gender perspectives but also to race class and culture as determinative factors in how one understands the biblical text She then presents fresh readable feminist interpretations of selected Old and New Testament texts Each chapter concludes with discussion questions for group or personal use Making feminist interpretation of Scripture understandable compelling and usable Wisdom's Feast will be valuable to any readers hungry to learn from the rich insights of feminist biblical scholars
