whose shrines devotees offer bottles of water and used auto parts in commemoration of her tragic death in the Argentinean desert Gaucho Gil is only one of many gaucho saints whose characteristic narrative involves political injustice and Robin Hood crimes on behalf of the exploited people The widespread cult of the Mexican saint Nino Fidencio is based on faith healing performed by devotees who channel his powers Nino Compadrito is an elegantly dressed skeleton of a child whose miraculous powers are derived in part from an Andean belief in the power of the skull of one who has suffered a tragic death Graziano draws upon site visits and extensive interviews with devotees archival material media reports and documentaries to produce vivid portraits of these fascinating popular movements In the process he sheds new light on the often fraught relationship between orthodox Catholicism and folk beliefs and on an important and little studied facet of the dynamic culture of contemporary Spanish America
