Turned Clare Revell,2014-09-12 Turned upside down by misadventure Amy Childs is late for a party when she makes an illegal turn and hits a pedestrian the brother of one of the most corrupt men in town Now her brush with the law has her running for her life from those who want retribution Torn apart by tragedy Detective Sgt Dane Philips lost his wife to a serial killer He s juggled work and parenting his two daughters since but can no longer cope To save his job he must find a live in nanny immediately While he knows he shouldn t hire someone without references he desperately needs someone Perhaps Amy is an answer to prayer But as events take a sinister turn only a miracle can save them all from destruction Is Amy the woman of his dreams or the start of a nightmare

Fake Or Fortune Peter Maidens,2012-09 AUTHOR S NOTE Most good stories come easily for authors who understand fi rst hand the fragility of values when pastoral holdings are overburdened with debt or when the provenance of fi ne art is in question So it is also when a farming woman is at her wits end burdened with debt abuse and the desperation to be loved Born in the Australian outback Peter Sharp spent his early working years as a talented livestock auctioneer Some years later a far cry from the dust and fl ies of country livestock saleyards he makes a name for himself as an outstanding auctioneer and valuer of fi ne art in London In 1965 when Sharp arrives at the prestigious out back pastoral holding known as Morgan Plains he is ready to value a small art collection It s possible that all the paintings are fakes but then again maybe they are worth a fortune However there are some things he is not ready for and Malcolm Morgan is one of them Quite by accident the background to this arrogant and enigmatic man lies with the young farming woman sitting next to Sharp at Morgan s dinner table that fi rst night Morgan Plains covers an area 13% the size of Sicily but there are closer ties to Sicily than that as Sharp will soon fi nd out His long time friend and mentor Austin Yates unknowingly becomes the lynch pin as this intriguing story unfolds Quite apart from the intrigue surrounding the Morgan Collection Fake or Fortune is a powerful love story one that would never have happened had it not been for this chance assignment out on the vast black soil plains of New South Wales Ten years and several countries later Peter Sharp is more involved than ever with the Morgan Collection and the love of this truly extraordinary country woman

Writing Australian History On-screen Jo Parnell,Julie Anne Taddeo,2023-02-15

Writing Australian History On screen Television and Film Period Dramas Down Under reveals the depths of Australian history from convict times to the present day The essays in this book are thematically driven and take a rounded historical cultural sociological psychological approach in analyzing the various selected productions In their analyses and interpretations of the topic the contributors interrogate the intricacies in Australian history as represented in Australian filmic period drama taken from an Australian perspective Individually and together as a body of authors they highlight past issues that despite the society s changing attitudes over time still have relevance for the Australia of today In speaking to the subject the contributing writers show a keen awareness that addressing new areas arising from the humanities is key to learning and hence to developing an understanding of the Australian culture the society and sense of the ever unfurling flag of an Australian something that is not yet a national identity The Tyranny of Time Robert Banks,1997-03-04 The problem of too little time says Robert Banks is a real one The notion of increased leisure time is a myth From a distinctly Christian perspective Banks explains how we can break out of the time prison at work and at church as individuals and as families He emphasizes who we are over what we do and shows how we can develop a sense of personal and social rhythms Caught on Screen James Findlay,2025-09-18 From innocent criminals to radical revolutionaries feisty feminists to manly pioneers egalitarian settlers to violent invaders Caught on Screen shows how over successive generations the shape shifting convict emerged on screen as a potent historical symbol Convicts loom large in Australian history As transported criminals and the first European settlers they have shackled the nation to a curious and contested origin story Historians were largely silent on their exploits until the second half of the twentieth century but before then a tradition of convict representation on screen appeared with the rise of cinema taking hold of the popular imagination From silent films to more recent television series screen culture has elevated the convict experience to become a key historical narrative through which filmmakers and audiences have repeatedly reframed and challenged an understanding of Australia s colonial past Caught on Screen traverses this history of convict representation for the first time Through detailed archival research into their production and reception the book explores engaging case studies produced in Australia and internationally including the work of Douglas Sirk Alfred Hitchcock and Jennifer Kent It illuminates the fact that the convict as historical symbol is one that intersected with and helped to direct major debates about nationalism the legacies of colonisation Aboriginal dispossession and the origins and character of Australian society Savage Girls and Wild Boys Michael Newton,2025-08-22 Savage Girls and Wild Boys is a fascinating history of extraordinary children brought up by animals raised in the wilderness or locked up for long years in solitary confinement Wild or feral children have fascinated us through the centuries and continue to do so today In a haunting and hugely readable study Michael Newton deftly investigates a number of infamous cases He looks at Peter the Wild Boy who gripped the attention of Swift and Defoe and at Victor of Aveyron who roamed wild in the forests of revolutionary France He tells the story of a savage girl lost on the streets of Paris of two children brought up by wolves in the jungles of India and of a Los Angeles girl who emerged from thirteen years locked in a room to international celebrity He describes too a boy brought up among monkeys in Uganda and in Moscow the child found living with a pack of wild dogs Savage Girls and Wild Boys examines the lives of these children and of the adults who rescued them looked after them educated or abused them How can we explain the mixture of disgust and envy that such children can provoke And what can they teach us about our notions of education civilization and man's true nature

The Belgian Photonovel, 1954-1985 Clarissa Colangelo, 2023-09-01 The Belgian photonovel is the missing link in the amazing history of the photonovel a comics inspired form of visual narrative that combines elements from very different genres and media ranging from literary melodrama cinema and of course comics This monograph discloses the specific Belgian contribution to the genre in close connection with the singularities of the Belgian women's and general magazines where these photonovels appeared If the photonovel is generally considered a typically French or Italian genre this study demonstrates the importance of a different tradition which appropriated the foreign models in a very original way Belgian photonovels are distinct not only because they tell other kinds of stories but also because they interact with other types of magazines in ways that are very different from the mainstream forms of the genre in Italy and France Finally this lavishly illustrated study is also the first in scrutinizing the technical aspects of magazine printing techniques in the development of the photonovel

Globalizing the Avant-Garde David Ayers, Joana Cunha Leal, Benedikt Hjartarson, Margarida Brito Alves, 2024-12-16 How has the process of globalization shaped artistic practices on the one hand and art history and theory on the other The contributions in this volume approach this question from a range of perspectives taking into account the role of travel for example or practitioners increasing knowledge of other cultures art's increasing awareness of itself as existing on a global level literary translation the advance of technology and the ever changing grand narratives of art history As well as reflections on European avant gardes and neo avant gardes the collection features discussions of Japan Latin America Africa Asia and the Pacific As a whole the volume engages with broader current discourses about cultural globalization and features input from leading scholars around the world as well as some important novel interventions by early career researchers The authors not only make a major contribution to the evolution of avant garde studies but also offer valuable original points of view to art history and to the cultural theory of globalization more broadly

Migrants of the British diaspora since the 1960s A. James Hammerton, 2017-07-21 This is the first social history to explore experiences of British emigrants from the peak years of the 1960s to the emigration resurgence of the turn of the twentieth century It explores migrant experiences in Australia Canada and New Zealand alongside other countries The book charts the gradual reinvention of the British diaspora from a postwar migration of austerity to a modern migration of prosperity It offers a different way of writing migration history based on life histories but exploring mentalities as well as experiences against a setting of deep social and economic change Key moments are the 1970s loss of Britons privilege in Commonwealth destination countries Thatcher s refugees in the 1980s and shifting attitudes to cosmopolitanism and global citizenship by the 1990s It charts a long process of change from the 1960s to patterns of discretionary and nomadic migration which became more common practice from the end of the twentieth century Yarn Spinners Dymphna Cusack, Florence James, Miles Franklin, 2001 Love life writing and friendship are the intimate subjects of letters between three intelligent witty women who shared a passionate commitment to Australian literature These carefully selected letters tell a story that reads like a novel Their correspondence from the late 1920s to the mid 1950s reveals their public battles as well as their private ones Their personal conflicts are a microcosm of Australian society s struggles over the period The Cambridge History of Australian Literature Peter Pierce, 2009-09-17 Draws on scholarship from leading figures in the field and spans Australian literary history from colonial origins indigenous and migrant literatures as well as representations of Asia and the Pacific and the role of literary culture in modern Australian society Tasmania's Convicts Alison Alexander, 2010-10 To the convicts arriving in Van Diemen s Land it must have felt as though they d been sent to the very ends of the earth In Tasmania s Convicts Alison Alexander tells the history of the men and women transported to what became one of Britain s most notorious convict colonies Following the lives of dozens of convicts and their families she uncovers stories of success failure and everything in between While some suffered harsh conditions most served their time and were freed becoming ordinary and peaceful citizens Yet over the decades a terrible stigma became associated with the convicts and they and the whole colony went to extraordinary lengths to hide it The majority of Tasmanians today have convict ancestry whether they know it or not While the public stigma of its convict past has given way to a contemporary fascination with colonial history Alison Alexander debates whether the convict past lingers deep in the psyche of white Tasmania The Routledge Companion to Romantic Love Ann Brooks, 2021-11-29 The Routledge Companion to Romantic Love is a multidisciplinary and interdisciplinary reference work essential for students and researchers interested in the field of love romance and popular romance fiction This first of its kind volume illustrates the broad and interdisciplinary nature of love studies International contributors including leaders in their field reflect a range of perspectives from cultural studies history literature popular romance studies American studies sociology and gender studies Comprising over 30 chapters by a team of international contributors the Companion is divided into 12 parts Love romance and historical and social change Love and feminist discourses Love and popular romance fiction Love gender and sexuality Romancing Australia South and Southeast Asian romance communities Nation place and identity in US popular romance novels Romantic love and national identity in Chinese and Taiwanese discourses of love Muslim and Middle Eastern romances Discourses of romance fiction and technologies of power Writing love and romance Legal and theological fiction and sexual politics This is an
