Satan Never Sleeps:

Natural Selection Gary Giddins, 2006 Long recognized as America's most brilliant jazz writer the winner of many major awards including the prestigious National Book Critics Circle Award and author of a highly popular biography of Bing Crosby Gary Giddins has also produced a wide range of stimulating and original cultural criticism in other fields With Natural Selection he brings together the best of these previously uncollected essays including a few written expressly for this volume The range of topics is spellbinding Writing with insight humor and a famously deft touch he offers sharp edged perspectives on such diverse subjects as Federico Fellini and Jean Renoir Norman Mailer and Ralph Ellison Marlon Brando and Groucho Marx Duke Ellington and Bob Dylan horror and noir the cartoon version of Animal Farm and the comic book series Classics Illustrated Giddins brings to criticism an uncommon ability long demonstrated in his music writing to address in very few words an entire career so that we get an in depth portrait of the artist beyond the film book or recording under review For instance Giddins offers a stunning reappraisal of Doris Day who he terms the coolest and sexiest female singer of slow ballads in film history He argues eloquently for a reconsideration of the forgotten German language novelist Soma Morgenstern In a section on comedy he offers fresh perspectives on the three great silent film stars Chaplin Keaton and Lloyd while resurrecting the legendary Jack Benny and reevaluating the controversial Jerry Lewis There's also a memorable look at Bing Crosby's film career he calls Crosby's blockbuster Going My Way a neglected masterpiece and a close examination of Marcel Carne's beloved Children of Paradise Of course Giddins also supplies excellent commentary on jazz major and underrated figures and especially the uses of jazz in film A wonderful gathering of little known treasures Natural Selection will broaden the perception of Gary Giddins as one of our most important cultural critics

Richard Rodney Bennett: The Complete Musician Paul Harris, Anthony Meredith, 2011-08-01

Sir Richard Rodney Bennett in the enormous diversity of his activities is arguably the most complete musician of all time. Not only does he have a remarkable 300 commissioned concert works to his credit which have established him among the leading British twentieth century composers yet at the same time with supreme success he has also contrived to lead several completely different musical lives. For some he is the ultimate exponent of crossover as epitomised in his remarkable Concerto for Stan Getz and concert works for Cleo Laine. Others remember him as a concert pianist with a special enthusiasm for pioneering contemporary music, his partnerships with Susan Bradshaw, Jane Manning and Barry Tuckwell being particularly notable. Meanwhile he also has over 70 film and television scores to his credit, the many classic titles ranging from Murder on the Orient Express and Far From the Madding Crowd to Equus and Four Weddings and a Funeral. For cabaret and jazz club devotees he is again something completely different, one of the finest and most knowledgeable of all exponents of the Great American Songbook, a much in demand singer and accompanist over the past thirty five years and as such the stage partner of some of the most glamorous performers in the business. This then is a book about a uniquely gifted musician. It is also a study of a most engaging personality and a fascinatingly complex human being.

Anthony Meredith whose two previous collaborations with co-researcher Paul Harris were the highly praised biographies of Malcolm Arnold and Malcolm Williamson has been a widely published writer over the past twenty five years. He is a member of MCC, a Friend of Covent Garden and Northern Ballet. His co-researcher Paul Harris is a leading music educationalist well known for his seminars, workshops and masterclasses with over 500 books to his name.

ACTOR IN AN Art Business Martin Keith Sopocy, 2024-12-02

The author of this manuscript is dyslexic. I suppose that means that I see things backwards. Also I tend to skip steps in the chain of logic and replace them with powerful intuitive responses. Through my writing I have achieved originality. I have functioned with dyslexia all my life but I have learned to make an asset of it. My dyslexia diagnosis is fundamental to my work as a writer. My dyslexia is not something to be suppressed as my goal is to use this manuscript to encourage others with the same disability. I was able to obtain a Bachelor's degree from the University of Chicago, work successfully as a play reader for the National Broadcasting Company (NBC) and finally as an employment interviewer for the Labor Department of the State of New York. Looking back on life at 80 years of age I have never had a job that I didn't like or was not able to excel in. I am sharing my life long history with dyslexia as encouragement to others with similar disabilities. By sharing this information my desire is to encourage others with the same or similar disabilities. I have authored a manuscript that has the viewpoint that is a product of a singular mode of perception and has a distinct value in its presentation. My work is no less valid due to my penchant for skipping steps in the expected chain of logic. In didactic writing I have presented a
